SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1818.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Declaring the Calling of a new Parliament.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, have thought fit, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to dissolve, and have, by such advice as aforesaid, this day dissolved, the Parliament begun and holden at Westminster the twenty-fourth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and twelve, in the fifty-third year of His Majesty's reign, and from thence continued, by several prorogations, to the twenty-seventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and which on the said twenty-seventh day of January was holden and sat, and continued sitting from thence until and upon this tenth day of June, when it was by Us dissolved as aforesaid: And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet His Majesty's people, and to have their advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all His Majesty's loving subjects Our will and pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, that, with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, We have this day given order that the Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, and the Chancellor of Ireland, do respectively forthwith issue out writs, in due form and according to law, for calling a new Parliament: And We do hereby also, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, by this Proclamation under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, require writs forthwith to be issued accordingly by the said Chancellors respectively, for causing the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons who are to serve in the said Parliament, to be returned to, and give their attendance in, the said Parliament; which writs are to be returnable on Tuesday the fourth day of August next.

Given at the Court at Carlton-House, the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the Name and on the Behalf of His Majesty,

A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE, P. R.

WHEREAS We have, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, thought fit to declare Our pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, on Tuesday the fourth day of August next ensuing the date hereof: In order therefore to the electing and summoning the sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament; We do, acting as aforesaid, by the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, issue forth this Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-House, in Edinburgh, on Friday the twenty-fourth day of July next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose the sixteen Peers to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law). And the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the names of the sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into the High Court of Chancery of Great Britain: And We do, by this Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial care to preserve the peace thereof during the time of the said election, and to prevent all manner of riots, tumults, disorders, and violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such election.

Witness George Prince of Wales, Regent of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, at Westminster, the tenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, in the fifty-eighth year of His Majesty's reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of June 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the thirty-first of May one thousand eight hundred and seventeen, it was ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the twenty seventh of June last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said twenty-seventh of June last, and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June; it is therefore ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the twenty-seventh day of this instant June, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the said twenty-seventh day of this instant June.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 27th of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to allow for three years, and until six weeks after the commencement of the then next session of Parliament, the importation into ports specially appointed by His Majesty within the provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, of the articles therein enumerated, and the re-exportation thereof from such ports," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into, and export from, such ports within the provinces of Nova Scotia or New Brunswick, as shall be specially appointed for that purpose, certain articles in the said Act enumerated, any thing in any law to the contrary notwithstanding; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, by virtue of the powers vested in His Majesty by the above-recited Act, is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, and during the continuance of the Act above recited, until further order made thereon, it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to import into the port of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and the port of Saint John, in New Brunswick, any scantling, planks, staves, heading-boards, shingles, hoops, horses, neat cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, or live stock of any sort, bread, biscuit, flour, peas, beans, potatoes, wheat, rice, oats, barley, or grain of any sort, pitch, tar, turpentine, fruits, seeds, and tobacco; provided that such articles shall, in all cases where the same shall be imported in foreign vessels, be of the growth, produce, or manufacture of the country to which the vessels importing the same shall belong; and that it shall be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, to export from the said ports any of the said articles either to the United Kingdom or to any other of His Majesty's possessions :

And it is hereby further ordered, that it shall and may be lawful, in any British-built ship or vessel, owned and navigated according to law, or in any ship or vessel belonging to the subjects of any Sovereign or State in amity with His Majesty, to export from the ports of Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Saint John, in New Brunswick, any gypsum, grind-stones, or other produce or manufacture of the said provinces, and also any produce or manufacture of the United Kingdom, or of His Majesty's colonies or plantations in the West Indies, or any goods whatever, which shall have been legally imported into the said provinces ; provided that none of the said articles shall be exported from the ports above-named, to any foreign country or place, in any foreign vessel, unless such foreign vessel shall belong to the country to which the said articles shall be exported :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 13th of May 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the tenth of October last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant May ; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer ; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth, therefore, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth of this instant May), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition ;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled " An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council :"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of April 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 57, intituled " An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding : And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year ; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer;

provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chelwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where]

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States, and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the _____ at the _____ this day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and _____

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Thomas Wood, of West Haddlesey, in the parish of Birkin, in the county of York, Esq. His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Davison, in addition to and after that of Wood, and also bear the arms of Davison, in compliance with a direction contained in a codicil to the last will and testament of John Davison, late of West Haddlesey aforesaid, Esq. deceased, as also in testimony of his grateful respect to the memory of the said testator; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to order, that this royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 19, 1818.

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent hath been pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to give and grant unto Philip Vyvyan, of Nansloe, in the county of Cornwall, Esq. second son of the Rev. Richard Vyvyan, of Lamerton, in the county of Devon, Clerk, and grandson of Richard Vyvyan, of Tresmarrow, in the said county of Cornwall, Esq. deceased, which last mentioned Richard Vyvyan was the second son of Sir Richard Vyvyan, of Trelovanen, in the same county of Cornwall, Bart. also deceased, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he, and his issue, may henceforth take and use the surname of Robinson, in addition to and after that of Vyvyan, and that he, and they, may bear the arms of Robinson, quarterly, in the first quarter, with his, and their, own family arms, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of the Rev. William Robinson, late of Nausloe aforesaid, Clerk, deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 22, 1818.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Toulmin, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, June 23, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that on Tuesday the 26th and Saturday the 30th days of May last, the woods belonging to Sir Thomas Edward Winnington, Bart. in the manor of Bewdley, in the county of Worcester, called the Yard Coppice and Hitterell Coppice, were maliciously set on fire;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above-mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said woods), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, viz.

The sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by Mr. Bury, Solicitor, in Bewdley; and

The like sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be paid by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods and Forests.

Whitehall, May 9, 1818

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that for some time past great dissensions have prevailed; and turbulent meetings have been held in the parish of Melcombe Regis, in the county of Dorset, respecting the election of a Mr. Mayne to be Lecturer in the Church of the said parish; and that on Sunday the 19th day of April last, a letter signed, "A Friend to the Church Rites," was addressed to the Rev. Thomas Deason, threatening death to the Rev. Thomas Wyndham, L. L. D. Rector of the said parish, if the said Mr. Mayne were not permitted to perform the evening service;

For the purpose of upholding the said Rector in the exercise of his undoubted rights, and of marking with the severest censure, dissensions so contrary to all true sense of Religion, and so subversive of Church discipline, and for bringing the author of the said letter to condign punishment, His Royal Highness is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person privy to the writing or sending the said letter, who shall discover the person or persons who actually wrote and sent the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Thomas Wyndham, L. L. D. Rector of the said parish, to any person who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the person or persons guilty of writing and sending the said letter.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain, to be secured in warehouse without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any goods, wares, or merchandise enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed marked (C), which shall be legally imported or brought into the port of London, to land any such goods without payment at the time of the first entry of such goods, wares, and merchandise, of the duties of Customs due on the importation thereof; and such goods may be lodged and secured at or in such places, and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, upon the said importer, proprietor, or consignee entering into bond to His Majesty, his heirs, and successors, with one sufficient surety, to be approved of by the Collector and Comptroller of the Customs of the said port of London, in double the amount of the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise, with condition that such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be either duly exported in the manner and under such rules, regulations, and restrictions, so far as the same are applicable thereto, as by this Act are directed in respect of goods, wares, and merchandise secured in warehouses as aforesaid, and exported directly from thence, or that the full duties due and payable on the importation of such goods, wares, and merchandise shall be paid to the Collector, or other proper Officer of the Customs, within the space of twelve months from the date of the first entry of such goods; and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them, shall deem it expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and shall cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandise to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the article of legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such foreign linseed should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act marked (C); and that such foreign linseed should be lodged and secured at or in such places as the Commissioners of the Customs in England, or any four or more of them, shall approve and direct, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such foreign linseed in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act marked (C), at the time of the passing the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 25th day of June 1818, Sale by Execution.—First Proclamation.

BY virtue of an appointment from His Excellency the Governor, dated 11th of September 1816, given upon the petition of Evan Fraser, for himself and the rato cave-rende, for Thomas Mewburn, in their quality as curators to the estate of John Campbell, deceased, late of the Colony of Demerary, v. William Harris.

Notice is hereby given to the public, that I the undersigned, or the Marshall at the time being, intend to sell, at public execution sale, in the month of April 1818, the precise day hereafter to be notified through the Gazette of this Colony, the cotton estate called Achlyne, with all its cultivation, slaves, buildings, and further appurtenances thereto belonging, the property of above-named William Harris, in order to recover from the proceeds of said sale such sum of money, if possible, as wherefore the same has been taken in execution.

Should therefore any person or persons conceive to have any right, title, or claim, on the above stated property, and wishing to oppose the sale thereof, let such person or persons, address themselves to me, in due time, at the Marshall's Office, stating their reasons of opposition, when I will appoint such person or persons a day of hearing before the Honourable Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, and further act therein as the law directs.

This first proclamation published as customary.—Berbice, March 2, 1817.
K. FRANCKEN, First Marshall.

Sale of Leasehold Premises, situate at Mill Wall, Poplar, under a Commission of Bankrupt, against Richard Barnett, a Bankrupt, by order of the Commissioners.

To Barge Builders, Shipwrights, and Others.

TO be Sold by Auction, by Drayton and Ventow, at the Auction Mart, on Thursday the 2d of July 1818, at Twelve o'Clock, before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorized in and by a commission of Bankrupt, issued against Richard Barnett,

A valuable Leasehold Estate, eligibly situate at Mill Wall, near the Stone-Wharf, Poplar, and comprising an extensive Boat or Lighter Builder's Yard, with Ways and Slips in excellent condition, extending 93 feet on the Banks of the River Thames; also the erection of a large covered shed and tool-house thereon, together with a newly-built respectable dwelling-house and six cottages adjoining, with small gardens in front, (the garden being held at will only), on lease for a long term, and subject to a moderate ground rent.

The buildings have been recently erected with excellent materials, the yard spacious, and particularly calculated for a continuance of the business in which it has been recently employed, which, together with the right of extensive river frontage, renders it a desirable acquisition.

May be viewed ten days preceding the sale, and printed particulars had on the premises; of Mr. West, Solicitor to the Commission, Red-Lion-street, Wapping; Messrs. Bleasdale, Lowless, and Crosse, Hatton-court, Threadneedle-street; and of Drayton and Ventom, Surveyors and Auctioneers, Auction Mart, where a plan of the estate may be seen.
