Lord Chamberlain's-Office, November 18, 1819.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Friday the 26th instant, at two o'clock.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of November 1819,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Orders of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the twenty-eighth May and the twelfth July last, for prohibiting the exportation of gunpowder, arms, or ammunition, to the places therein specified, will expire on the thirtieth day of this instant November; and whereas it is expedient, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the thirtieth day of this instant November), presume to transport any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place within the dominions of the King of Spain, or to any port or place on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on any part of the Continent of America (except to a port or place, or ports or places in His Majesty's territories or possessions on the Continent of North America, or in the territories of the United States of America), or ship or lade any gunpowder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any such ports or places within the dominions of the King of Spain, or into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa, or in the West Indies, or on the Continent of America (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act, passed in the twenty-ninth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of salt-petre, and to enforce the law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the exportation of gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying coastwise of salt-petre, gunpowder, or any sort of arms or ammunition;" and also by an Act, passed in the thirty-third year of His Majesty's reign, cap. 2, intituled "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the exportation of naval stores, and more effectually to prevent the exportation of salt-petre, arms, and ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Crown-Office, November 23, 1819.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT:

County of Kent.

Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. in the room of Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. deceased.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cambridge.

Edward Loomes, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant for the Isle of Ely. Dated 25th September 1819.

Whitehall, November 16, 1819.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about a quarter past eleven o'clock in the night of Thursday the 11th of November instant, Mr. Nadin, Deputy Constable of the town of Manchester, when in the execution of his duty, near the Theatre Royal, in Fountain-street, in the said town, was wilfully shot at by a man then standing close to him; the ball (which is supposed to have been fired from a horse pistol), passed through the crown of Mr. Nadin's hat, within which the wadding was lodged;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said shot), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction, by the Boroughreeve and Constables of Manchester.

The man who fired at Mr. Nadin as above-mentioned, appeared to be thin, and about five feet two or three inches high, pale complexion, long visaged, inmouthed, and his nose and chin rather long.

His dress, a light coloured jacket (without laps), waistcoat and breeches something darker, and leggings or stockings darker than any other part of his dress.

On the discharge of the pistol, another man, standing at about five yards distance, ran off. He seemed to be about five feet nine inches high, slenderly formed, and his clothes were all of a dark cast.

Admiralty-Office, November 20, 1819.
