Chetwynd.

Crown-Office, November 23, 1819.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT:

County of Kent.

Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. in the room of Sir Edward Knatchbull, Bart. deceased.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cambridge.

Edward Loomes, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant for the Isle of Ely. Dated 25th September 1819.

Whitehall, November 16, 1819.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about a quarter past eleven o'clock in the night of Thursday the 11th of November instant, Mr. Nadin, Deputy Constable of the town of Manchester, when in the execution of his duty, near the Theatre Royal, in Fountain-street, in the said town, was wilfully shot at by a man then standing close to him; the ball (which is supposed to have been fired from a horse pistol), passed through the crown of Mr. Nadin's hat, within which the wadding was lodged;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said shot), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid on conviction, by the Boroughreeve and Constables of Manchester.

The man who fired at Mr. Nadin as above-mentioned, appeared to be thin, and about five feet two or three inches high, pale complexion, long visaged, inmouthed, and his nose and chin rather long.

His dress, a light coloured jacket (without laps), waistcoat and breeches something darker, and leggings or stockings darker than any other part of his dress.

On the discharge of the pistol, another man, standing at about five yards distance, ran off. He seemed to be about five feet nine inches high, slenderly formed, and his clothes were all of a dark cast.

Admiralty-Office, November 20, 1819.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the schooner City of Norwich, of North Yarmouth, whereof George Scott was Master, and the brig Salacia, of the same port, whereof Benjamin Brown was Master, have both been stranded on the Lincolnshire coast, on the 12th instant.
