

Commissions in the Warwickshire, Regular Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Warwick.

John Bohun Smyth, Gent. to be Ensign. Dated 2d November 1821.

Charles Brockman, Gent. to be ditto. Dated as above.

Whitehall, November 23, 1821.

The King hath been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas Courtney, sometime of Chelsea, in the county of Middlesex, but now of Colchester, in the county of Essex, Esq. and unto Harriet Courtney his wife, His royal licence and authority, that she the said Harriet Courtney may, in compliance with a condition contained in the last will and testament of Elizabeth Shillito, late of Colchester aforesaid, widow, deceased (formerly Elizabeth Mayhew), take and use the surname of Mayhew, in addition to and after that of Courtney, and her issue male, that of Mayhew only:

And also to order, that this His Majesty's concession and declaration be recorded in the College of Arms, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, November 27, 1821.

The King hath been pleased to give and grant unto the Right Honourable Thomas Grosvenor, Earl of Wilton, of Wilton-castle, in the county of Hereford, and Viscount Grey de Wilton, in the said county, second son of the Right Honourable Robert Earl Grosvenor, Viscount Belgrave, and Baron Grosvenor, by Eleanor Countess Grosvenor his wife, only surviving child and heir of the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Wilton, of Wilton-castle aforesaid, and Viscount and Baron Grey de Wilton, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, out of affectionate respect for the memory of his maternal grandfather, the said Thomas Earl of Wilton, deceased, and in compliance with a proviso and declaration contained in his last will and testament, take and use the surname of Egerton only, and also bear the arms of Egerton only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 30, 1821.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Bubb, of Cheltenham, in the county of Gloucester, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting certain goods imported into Great Britain to be secured in warehouses without payment of duty," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the importer or importers, proprietor or proprietors, consignee or consignees, of any of the goods, wares, or merchandise, enumerated or described in the table thereunto annexed, marked (E), and which shall have been legally imported or brought into the port of London, to lodge and secure in a warehouse or warehouses to be provided for that purpose, any such goods, wares, or merchandise, under the joint locks of the crown and the merchant, without payment at the time of the first entry of the duties of customs due on the importation thereof: and it is by the said recited Act further enacted, that if the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the time being, or any three or more of them shall deem it expedient, that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to any goods, wares, and merchandise, not enumerated or described in either of the tables annexed thereto, and should cause a list of such goods, wares, and merchandises, to be published in the London Gazette, then and from thenceforth, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions, of the said Act, shall extend to such goods, wares, and merchandise, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said tables respectively, at the time of passing the said Act:

We, the undersigned, Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, pursuant to and in execution of the powers vested in us, in and by the said Act, do hereby declare, that it appears to us expedient that the provisions of the said Act should be extended to the articles of Pigs' Chaps, Pigs' Faces, and German Sausages, legally imported or brought into the port of London (not being imported by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies); and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be added to the list of goods, wares, and merchandise enumerated and described in the table annexed to the said recited Act, marked (E), and that such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages should be lodged and secured at or in such warehouse or warehouses, under the regulations and directions of the said Act: and we do further declare, that from and after the publication of this our certificate in the London Gazette, conformable to the directions of the said Act, all and every the provisions, regulations, and restrictions of the said Act shall extend, and be construed to extend, to all such pigs' chaps, pigs' faces, and German sausages, in every respect in as full and ample a manner as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the table annexed to the said Act, marked (E), at the time of the passing of the same Act.

Given under our hands at the Treasury Chambers, Whitehall, this 29th day of October 1821.
