

and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 15th of November 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of this instant November to Thursday the second day of January next.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of August 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade between His Majesty's possessions in America and the West Indies, and other places in America and the West Indies," it is enacted, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the schedule marked A, annexed to the said Act, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, that from and after the passing of this Order, all articles permitted by the said Act to be imported into and exported from the ports enumerated in schedule A annexed to the said Act, shall and may be in like manner imported into and exported from the port of Annotto Bay, in the island of Jamaica, on payment of the duties, and subject to the rules, regulations, penalties, and forfeitures enacted by the said Act; And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 5th of July 1822,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for

His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should be suspended for the space of one year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the date hereof, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia be suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

Jas. Buller.

At the Court at Carlton-House, November 22, 1822.

A CHAPTER of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, with the Officers of the Order hereafter mentioned, in their mantles, chains, and badges, attended the Sovereign in his own apartment soon after one o'clock; and, being called over by Garter Principal King of Arms, a procession was made to the Chapter-Room in the following order:

- Marquess of Anglesey.
- Earl Bathurst.
- Earl of Liverpool.
- Earl of Lonsdale.
- Earl of Winchilsea.
- Earl Spencer.
- Earl of Westmorland.

| His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence. | His Royal Highness the Duke of York. |
| Sir Thos. Tyrwhitt, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod. | Sir George Nayler, Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms. |
| The Lord Bishop of Salisbury, Chancellor of the Order. | |

THE SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and the Knights Companions being seated, the Chancellor, standing in his place on the left hand of His Majesty, signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure, that the vacant stall in the Royal Chapel of Saint George at Windsor be filled.

The suffrages were thereupon collected by the Chancellor (beginning with the Junior Knight Companion), and, by him, presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command his Lordship to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Honourable Francis-Charles Marquess of Hertford had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, the Mar-
