TUESDAY, MARCH 25, 1823.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1823,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His Majesty's reign (chapter 104), intituled "An Act to continue, until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, the bounty to vessels employed in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Straights; and to authorise His Majesty to alter the times for the sailing of the said vessels, and any of the limitations contained in the Acts for allowing the said bounty," His Majesty is authorised, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued for that purpose, to suspend, or vary, any or either of the limitations and restrictions contained in the several Acts granting bounties to vessels employed in the fisheries carried on in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Straights, in such manner as may appear expedient, and as may be expressed and set forth in such Order or Orders in Council; And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third (chapter 22), it is enacted, "that every ship or vessel having on board one apprentice for every fifty tons burthen, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fishery to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Straights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by this Act;" And whereas it is expedient, that further provision should be made with respect to the number of apprentices to be taken on board ships proceeding to the said fisheries, His Majesty is pleased, by virtue of the authority vested in him by the Act first above recited, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, British vessels employed in the fisheries in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Straights, having on board one apprentice for every one hundred tons burthen of each vessel, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fisheries to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Straights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by law for the encouragement of the said fisheries; provided that all the other provisions of the laws for regulating the said fisheries be duly complied with: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly. Jas. Buller.

The King has been pleased to grant unto James-Waller Samo, Esq. Captain in the 1st Royal Veteran Battalion, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Waller, in addition to and after his present surname of Samo:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, March 21, 1823

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Saturday the 1st instant, an anonymous letter was found in the accounting-house of Mr. Joseph Barker, of Holbeach, in the county of Lincoln, brewer, threatening to murder the said Joseph Barker, and also Messrs. James Slator, John Coddling, William Pears Thimbleby, John Vorley, and James Cole Dowse, and to burn the stacks of the said Joseph Barker; and that on the night of Sunday the 9th instant, as the servant man of the said William Pears Thimbleby was returning home alone in his master's chaise, he was stopped, about four miles from Holbeach aforesaid, by two men, who illtreated and robbed him;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offences above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the actual writer of the said letter), who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of either of the said offences.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the person or persons concerned in sending the said anonymous letter, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; and a reward of SIXTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the person or persons concerned in the said robbery, so that they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—The said rewards to be paid on application to Mr. John Johnson, of Holbeach aforesaid, attorney at law.

Admiralty-Office, March 21, 1823.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at the Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Friday the 25th day of April next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

East India-House, March 21, 1823.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Tuesday the 8th April next, from eleven o'clock in the forenoon until six in the evening, at the desire of the undermentioned Proprietors:

J. Baillie, John Plummer,
David Lyon, Willm. Mitchell,
Neil Malcolm, Saml. Dixon,
C. Robertson, Alexr. Grant,
Rowd. Mitchell, P. M. Lucas;

to ballot on the following question, viz.

"That this Court is deeply impressed with the injustice and impolicy of the existing restrictions on the sugar trade of British India.

"That these restrictions, while they operate most injuriously on the interests of the merchants, the ship owners, the sugar refiners, and the manufacturers of this country, as well as on those of the British community at large, are peculiarly oppressive and unjust towards our fellow-subjects in India, and highly detrimental to the interests of the East India Company, not only as a commercial body, but in connection with the prosperity of the dominions placed under their government.

"That as the inhabitants of British India have the strongest claims on the protection of the East India Company, it is the duty of this Court to afford their energetic support to all measures that have a tendency to promote the prosperity of the vast population over whom they preside, and who are equally entitled with every other class of British subjects to the favourable consideration of the British Legislature.

"That it appears to this Court, that since the repeal, by the Acts of last session of Parliament, of the restrictions formerly imposed on the West India trade, no pretension exists for any exclusive protection to the sugars of the West India colonies against those of British India.

"That as the present unequal duties on the sugars of the East and West Indies terminate in March 1824, this Court do earnestly recommend to the immediate attention of the Court of Directors, the necessity of using their strenuous efforts with His Majesty's Ministers to obtain an equalization of the said duties.

"That should these efforts prove unsuccessful, contrary to the just expectations of this Court, the Court of Directors be requested and enjoined to present petitions, in the name and on behalf of the East India Company, to both Houses of Parliament, praying for an equalization of the duties on East and West India sugars, and for permission to be heard by counsel before the two Houses of Parliament respectively, in support of their claims."
