Admiralty-Office, December 13, 1825.

A LETTER has been received at this Office from Captain Coe, of His Majesty's ship Liffey, lately senior Officer of His Majesty's ships in the East Indies, addressed to John Wilson Croker, Esq. and dated at Sea the 17th June 1825, of which the following is an extract:

"I have the honour of inclosing, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, various dispatches from Captain Alexander, of His Majesty's ship Alligator, in command of the naval forces co-operating with the army under Brigadier-General Sir Archibald Campbell, in their advance against Ava, the capital of the Burmese dominions; to whom I am particularly indebted for the very able and gallant manner in which he has conducted and is still conducting this difficult and extremely harassing service; this Officer is too well known to their Lordships to need any comment of mine on his worth and ability; he speaks in the highest terms of Captain Chads, of His Majesty's sloop Arachne, and particularly of Mr. William Smith, his own first Lieutenant; they are Officers who have distinguished themselves on all occasions; and the highest encomiums are passed by Captain Alexander on the conduct of the Officers of the squadron named in the margin (1); as well as of the seamen and marines.

Mr. James Wilkinson, senior Lieutenant of His Majesty's ship under my command, latterly in command of the light division of boats, has been spoken of in the highest terms by Captain Alexander, as well as those serving under him; I have known this Officer since 1821, and while serving with me in His Majesty's ship Tees, and since in the Liffey, I have had frequent opportunities of observing his zeal and abilities; he was severely wounded last year at the first attack of the stockades. Mr. George Winsor, late Admiralty Midshipman of His Majesty's sloop Sophie, now of His Majesty's ship Alligator, has been again spoken of in a handsome way by Captain Alexander, for the very judicious manner in which he has conducted the steam boat under his charge.

I have also the honour to inclose dispatches from Captain Chads, and one through Captain Alexander, detailing various operations against the enemy, which reflect the greatest credit upon that Officer, and all employed under him. He speaks in the strongest terms of the conduct of Lieutenant Keele, and also of Acting Lieutenants Hall and Goldfinch, Mr. W. Watt, Surgeon, and Mr. Robert Atherton, Acting Purser, with the assistance he received from Lieutenant Dobson and Mr. George Winsor, Admiralty Midshipman, as well as of the persons named in the margin (2).

I likewise transmit dispatches from Captain Marryat, of His Majesty's sloop Larne, detailing various successful operations against the enemy at Negrais and at Bassein, and speaking in the highest praise of Lieutenant Fraser, Mr. Hodder, the Master, Mr. Robert Atherton, Acting Purser, and Messrs. Downes and Norcock, Midshipmen.

The various successes that have attended the exertions of every Officer, seaman, and marine that have been employed on this service, merit the highest encomiums, and must be attributed to the discipline and well laid plans of the Officers conducting them, and the zeal, promptitude, and perseverance with which they were carried into effect; and where so many have rendered themselves conspicuous, I feel it difficult to do justice to their individual merit."

MARY SMITH'S CHARITY.
NEXT OF KIN.

Whereas Mary Smith, late of the City of Bristol, widow, by her last will and testament, bearing date the 12th day of March 1784, devised certain premises in Redcliff Street, Bristol, after the decease of certain persons in her will mentioned, to the Churchwardens of the several Parishes of Saint Thomas and Saint Mary, Redcliff, upon trust, as to one quarter part of the rents and profits thereof, to be equally distributed to and amongst any of her relations whosoever they dwell, as should be at any time reduced to poverty, and to continue such payment during so long time as their poverty continued: and whereas by a Decree or Order of His Majesty's High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 21st day of January 1822, made upon a petition presented by they then Churchwardens of the said Parishes, in the matter of the said Charity, it was, amongst other things, ordered that to give effect to the said charitable bequest for the benefit of the relations of the said Testatrix, who should be reduced to poverty, and at the same time to limit the number of applicants, so that it might be practicable to investigate their claims, it should be enquired and ascertained by the said Churchwardens of the said Parishes, who were the next of kin of the said Testatrix at the time of her death, according to the Statutes made for the distribution of the estates of Testators, and that the benefit of the said charitable bequest, so far as it regarded the relations of the said Testatrix who should be reduced to poverty, should be confined to such persons as should be so found to have been the next of kin of the said Testatrix, if any of them were then living, and their descendants: and whereas the said Mary Smith departed this life between the said 12th day of March 1784, and the 8th day of May 1786; and on the said 12th day of March 1784, it appears by her said will that she had then living two sisters, viz. Rachael Burton otherwise Chance, widow, and Sarah Wauke worth, widow, and a nephew, Posthumus B. ckford, of London, gentleman; now, therefore, notice is hereby given, that the Churchwardens of the said several Parishes will meet on Tuesday the 10th day of January next, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, at the house of Thomas Burden, called the Bell Inn, in Saint Thomas Street, Bristol, for the purpose of enquiring and ascertaining, as directed by the said Order, who were the next of kin of the said Testatrix at the time of her death, and all persons claiming to be descended from such next of kin, or whom it may otherwise concern, are desired to attend at such meeting, and to produce to and before the said Churchwardens, such evidence and information as may enable them satisfactorily to ascertain who were such next of kin of the said Testatrix at the time of her decease.
