TUESDAY, AUGUST 15, 1826.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th of July 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered, by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the twenty-fourth day of August next, be further prorogued to Thursday the second day of November next; and that the Conventions of Canterbury and York, which stand prorogued to Friday the twenty-fifth day of August next, be further prorogued to Friday the third day of November next.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS We have heretofore been pleased to direct that copper money should be coined of the currency of Ireland, to be circulated only in that part of Our United Kingdom, and to pass current as one penny, one halfpenny, and one farthing respectively, of such Irish currency; and whereas an Act, passed in the sixth year of Our reign, for the assimilation of the currency and monies of account throughout the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, under the provisions of which We directed a new copper coinage to be prepared for circulation in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and which by a Proclamation issued by Our Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, dated Dublin the twenty-sixth December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, was directed to be current at the following rates, viz.: one penny as the twelfth part of one British silver shilling, one halfpenny as the twenty-fourth part of one British silver shilling, and one farthing as the forty-eighth part of one British silver shilling: and it was by the said Proclamation provided, that the several pieces of copper money of the then currency of Ireland should, until otherwise declared, pass current according to the then standard value, viz.: the penny piece as of the value of one thirteenth part of one British silver shilling, one halfpenny as of the value of one twenty-sixth part of one British silver shilling, and one farthing as of the value of one fifty-second part of a British silver shilling; and whereas it has been represented to Us, that great inconveniences arise from the copper coin heretofore coined for Ireland being current at a different and lower rate than that coined for the general circulation of the United Kingdom, and that it will be a considerable time before the same can be recoined; we have, therefore, with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Proclamation; and We do hereby declare and command, that all such pieces of copper money of the said currency of Ireland, as have heretofore been coined for circulation in that part of the United Kingdom, shall, from and after the date hereof, cease to be current in Ireland at the rates aforesaid; and that from and after the date hereof all such pieces of copper money shall be the current and lawful money of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and until the same shall be called in and recoined shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the said United Kingdom, at the rates following; that is to say, every such penny piece of the said currency as the twelfth part of one shilling British silver money; every such halfpenny piece as the twenty-fourth part of one shilling British silver money; and every such farthing piece as the forty-eighth part of one shilling British silver money: Provided that no person shall be obliged to take more of such penny pieces, in one payment, than shall be of the value of one shilling, after the rate aforesaid, or to take more of such halfpenny, or farthing pieces, in any one payment, than shall be of the value of six pence, after the rate aforesaid.

Given at Our Court, at Windsor, this twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and in the seventh year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th of July 1826,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intitled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place; but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order of Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas by an Order in Council, made the nineteenth day of July last, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth day of July last, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth day of July last: and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of this instant July; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of this instant July, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of this instant July.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order of His Majesty in Council, dated the nineteenth July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, sec. 38, it is directed with respect to vessels having on board any of the articles enumerated in the said Order, and intending to import the same into any port or place in the United Kingdom, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any port or place in Europe without the Straights, or on the Continent of America, at which there is not a regular establishment for the performance of quarantine, declared sufficient by His Majesty in Council for the due performance of quarantine, that the master, or other person having charge of every such vessel, shall produce certain declarations described in the said Order: and whereas it is further directed, that if it shall appear from the said declarations that any of the said enumerated articles, so imported as aforesaid, are of the growth, produce, or manufacture of Turkey, or of any place in Africa within the Straights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary, or the Atlantic Ocean, such goods, with the vessels, crews, &c. importing the same, shall perform quarantine in the manner set forth in the said Order: and whereas there is at present in the port of Bordeaux a regular establishment for the performance of quarantine, and all necessary precautions are there taken for preventing the introduction of the plague, or any other infectious disorder, by the importation of articles from Turkey, or elsewhere, and such establishment is by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, hereby declared sufficient for the due performance of quarantine; His Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, the Masters or other persons having the charge or command of vessels arriving in any of the ports of the United Kingdom, or of the Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from the said port of Bordeaux, having taken on board any of the said enumerated articles at the port of Bordeaux, shall not be required to produce the declarations described in the thirty-eighth section of the said Order in Council of nineteenth July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five:
