BROWN, Mayor.

A Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, held in the Inner Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Tuesday the 17th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1827, and in the 8th year of the reign of George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

WHEREAS in and by a certain Order, made by the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City of London, bearing date the 1st day of March, in the year of our Lord 1825; in pursuance of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 4th year of the reign of His present Majesty, King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for altering and amending two Acts passed in the 11th and 33d years of His late Majesty King George the Third, for consolidating, extending, and rendering more effectual the powers granted by several Acts of Parliament for making, enlarging, amending, and cleansing the Vaults, Drains, and Sewers within the City of London and Liberties thereof, and for paving, cleansing, and lighting the Streets, Lanes, Squares, Yards, Courts, Alleys, Passages, and Places, and preventing and removing obstructions and annoyances within the same; it was ordered and directed, that that part of Gracechurch-street which is situate opposite the Half Moon Tavern or Inn, in Gracechurch-street aforesaid, should be, and the same was thereby appointed, among other places mentioned in the said Order, for carts, wains, or waggons, to stand and ply for hire. And it was thereby ordered and directed (among other things), that one cart, wain or waggon, and no more, should stand or ply for hire at the place or stand therein before appointed by the said Court in Gracechurch-street aforesaid; and which said Order was duly advertized in The London Gazette, and otherwise, as directed by the said Act. And whereas great obstructions are occasioned in Gracechurch-street aforesaid, being the principal avenue to the present and the intended London-bridge, by the standing of such cart, wain or waggon, for hire, in the said street; and it is expedient that the same should be removed and discontinued. This Court doth therefore, by virtue and in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, hereby order and direct, that the aforesaid part of Gracechurch-street, which is situate opposite the Half Moon Tavern or Inn, in Gracechurch-street aforesaid, shall be no longer a place for carts, wains or waggons, to stand or ply for hire: and doth also hereby order and direct, that no cart, wain or waggon, shall hereafter stand or ply for hire at the aforesaid place or stand in Gracechurch-street aforesaid.

BROWN, Mayor.

A Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, held in the Inner Chamber of the Guildhall, of the City of London, on Tuesday the 17th day of July, in the year of our Lord 1827, and in the eighth year of the reign of George the Fourth, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

WHEREAS in and by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and enlarge the powers of an Act passed in the 4th year of the reign of His present Majesty, for the rebuilding of London-bridge and for improving and making suitable approaches thereto;" after reciting, among other things, that great obstructions were occasioned in Gracechurch-street and Fish-street-hill, the principal avenue to the present and to the said intended bridge, by hackney-coaches and other carriages and stage-coaches standing and plying for hire, and that it was desirable that the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said city should be empowered to make proper regulations for the better government of hackney-coaches and other carriages and stage-coaches in the said streets, and the drivers or other persons having the management thereof; it is (among other things) enacted, that it shall be lawful for the said Court of Mayor and Aldermen, from time to time, to appoint proper places in or near Gracechurch-street and Fish-street-hill aforesaid, where hackney-coaches and other carriages and stage-coaches respectively may stand and ply for hire, and make such orders for regulating the number of such carriages to stand in such places respectively, and the distances at which they shall stand from each other, and the times at and during which they may stand and
