Foreign-Office, July 1, 1828.

The King has been graciously pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Lord Stuart de Rothesay,

G. C. B. to be His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Most Christian Majesty.

Whitehall, June 28, 1828.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Sir Benjamin Hallowell, of Beddington-park, in the county of Surrey, and of Orpington, in the county of Kent, Knight Commander of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Commander of the Royal Sicilian Order of St. Ferdinand and of Merit, and a Vice-Admiral of the Red Squadron of His Majesty's Fleet, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of Anne Paston Gee, late of Beddington-park and Orpington aforesaid, widow, deceased, take and use the surname of Carew, in addition to and after that of Hallowell, and bear the arms of Carew quarterly with those of Hallowell; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, June 25, 1828.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 24th, or early on the morning of Sunday the 25th of May last, some evil-disposed person or persons feloniously and maliciously stabbed two cart mares, which were lying in a field in the parish of Greens Norton, adjoining the hamlet of Duncott, near Towcester, in the county of Northampton, in the occupation of Mr. William Burt, in consequence of which both the said mares have since died;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually stabbed the said mares) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid by Mr. Henry Burt, of Towcester.

WARWICKSHIRE MILITIA.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a General Meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Warwick will be held at the Judges' House, in the ho-
