Whitehall, May 4, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Tuesday the 28th ultimo, a fire was discovered in the north transept of Westminster Abbey, and that there is reason to suppose the same was occasioned by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually occasioned the said fire) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Dean and Chapter of Westminster to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall give such information as may lead to a committal of the offender or offenders for trial; and a further reward of ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY POUNDS, if such information shall lead to the conviction of the said offender or offenders.—Such rewards to be paid on application to Mr. G. Vincent, Chapter Clerk.

Whitehall, May 8, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the nights of Sunday the 3d, Monday the 4th, Tuesday the 5th, and Thursday the 7th instant, certain evil-disposed persons riotously assembled and entered the dwellings of the journeymen weavers in Spitalfields, and maliciously cut and destroyed the silk in the looms, being therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offence before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL,

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, May 8, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the nights of Sunday the 26th and Wednesday the 29th ultimo, the parish church of Conover, in the county of Salop, was feloniously entered by some evil-disposed person or persons, who broke open the parish chest and carried off several pieces of communion plate;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Churchwardens of Conover, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 28th day of April 1829, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 203, intituled "An Act for raising an additional sum of money for carrying into execution the several Acts for widening the entrance into the city of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street at Snowhill, and for raising money, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, for those purposes, and for extending the powers of the said Acts;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 28th day of October next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 28th day of October next ensuing, upon the undermentioned bonds, being the remaining part of the sum of £40,000, and part of the sum of £20,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the fifty-first and fifty-second of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 28th day of October, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

Ninety-nine bonds, of one hundred pounds each, under the first-mentioned Act of the fifty-first George the Third, ch. 203, numbered 302 to 400, both inclusive; and fifty bonds, of one hundred pounds each, under the second-mentioned Act of the fifty-second George the Third, numbered 1 to 50, both inclusive; and eight hundred pounds, part of a bond for fifteen thousand pounds, under the said second-mentioned Act, numbered 51.

Campbell and Martin Daly, in quality as testamentary deliberating Executors to the last will and testament of John Adam Dehnert, late of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, for the first time, summon by edict all known and unknown creditors and claimants against the estate of the abovenamed John Adam Dehnert, or against his property, to appear before the Bar of the Honourable the Court of Civil Justice of this Colony, at their ordinary Session, to be holden in the month of July 1829, and following Sessions, there to render in their respective claims, properly substantiated and in due form and time against aforesaid estate; whereas, in default of which, and after the expiration of the fourth and last edictal summons, will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.

This first edictal summons published as customary.—Barbice, the 9th February 1829.

K. FRANCKEN, First Marshal.

WHEREAS George William Reye, a resident inhabitant of this place, of Ritzbüttel, being provided with a substituted Power of Attorney from Messrs. Oakden and Gilles, at Hamburg, has declared before the Court of Justice of this Government, that he intended to prosecute and to finish a process between the said Messrs. Oakden and Gilles, cessionario nomine, late John Barton, of Cuxhaven, deceased, in the year 1823, in a state of insolvency, on one side, and his former Partner, John Thwaites, of Norwich, on the other side, the subject of this process being the proprietorship of a house in Cuxhaven, situate at the New-Road, sub No. 35, inhabited by the said Bankrupt, but afterwards sold in public auction; likewise that he, the said George William Reye, intended to displace the claims which a brother of the said Bankrupt, George Barton, has reserved to himself, on account of the before-mentioned house, on his brother's failure:—Now the Court of Justice in this Government has published the following notice and summons, that the above-mentioned John Thwaites (who is now said to be deceased, in England), his heirs, executors, and administrators, as also the before-named George Barton, formerly residing in Cuxhaven, and afterwards in London, shall appear personally, or by a duly appointed Attorney, before this Court of Justice, on the 17th of June 1829, which is the only and peremptorily appointed term, in order to prosecute or to reassume the before-mentioned process, and to prove the pretended claims to the objectum litis, the value of which is partly deposited at the Court of Justice, partly still to be paid by the present owner of the house; and further, that in case of non-appearance of the said persons on the appointed day, the 17th of June 1829, John Thwaites and George Barton, their heirs, executors, and administrators shall then and from thenceforth no more be heard and admitted in the said process and bankruptcy, but shall forfeit their intended claims and demands as aforesaid.—Thus done, Ritzbüttel, this 1st day of April 1829.

(In fidem) P. A. KEETMANN, Secretary to the Government of Ritzbüttel.
