LORD CHANCELLOR.—Monday the 3d day of August, in the tenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, 1829, between James Ewing, plaintiff; Jasper Taylor Hall, defendant.

UPON opening of the matter this present day unto this Court by Mr. Solicitor-General, of Counsel for the plaintiff, it was alleged that it appears by the affidavit of Thomas Johnson and James Trower Bullock, Clerks to Richard Bullock Andrews, of Furnival's-Inn, London, Gent. Solicitor for the plaintiff, that the said Thomas Johnson did, on Saturday the 30th day of May 1829, personally serve the above-named defendant, Jasper Taylor Hall, with a subpoena, issuing out of and under the Seal of this Court, by delivering to, and leaving with, the said defendant, Jasper Taylor Hall, at his lodgings, No. 194, Regent-Street; in the County of Middlesex, a label of the said subpoena, leaving, at the same time, the body of the said subpoena, so under seal as aforesaid; by which said subpoena the said defendant was directed to appear in this Court on the 19th day of June, at the suit of the plaintiff, as appeared by the label of the said subpoena; and that the bill in this cause was filed on the 3d day of June last; after which the said deponent bespoke a new subpoena, grounded on the said bill, and obtained the said new subpoena the next day; and that he did, on Thursday the 4th day of June 1829, serve the defendant, Jasper Taylor Hall, with the said new subpoena, issuing out of and under the seal of this Court, by delivering to, and leaving with, a female servant of the name of Ann Adcock, at the lodgings of the said defendant, No. 194, Regent-Street aforesaid, the body of the said last-mentioned subpoena, so under seal as aforesaid; by which said subpoena the said defendant, Jasper Taylor Hall, was required to appear in this Court on the said 19th day of June, at the suit of the above-named plaintiff, as appeared by the label of the said last-mentioned subpoena; and that the said Ann Adcock informed the said defendant that she was the servant of the house, and that the defendant had no servant there; and that the said Ann Adcock promised that the said body of the said subpoena should be delivered to the said defendant by the means of a Mr. Alves, the defendant's brother in law, who was expected to call on the following day; and for some days to come, to take charge of any letters or papers directed to the said defendant, Jasper Taylor Hall, as had been previously arranged between the said defendant and his said brother in law, in order that the same might be forwarded to the said defendant, who had just left the said lodgings but had not then, as the said Ann Adcock thought, left London, and that he had since called at the said defendant's lodgings in Regent-Street aforesaid, and was informed by the said Ann Adcock that, on the day after the said deponent had left with her the body of the said subpoena as aforesaid, the said Mr. Alves called at the said house, and that she delivered to the said Mr. Alves the said subpoena, under seal as aforesaid, to be forwarded to the said defendant; and that the said Mr. Alves took the same away with him for that purpose; and that he did, on Saturday the 20th day of June 1829, call at the Counting-House of Mr. Richard Lee, of Fowkes-Buildings, Tower-Street, London, who the deponent had been informed and believes acts as the merchant of the said defendant, and to whom consignments of produce from the plantation and estate of the said defendant in Jamaica are from time to time made by order of the said defendant, to enquire after the said defendant, and was informed by one of the clerks of the said Mr. Lee, that the said defendant had left London more than a fortnight ago and was gone to reside on the Continent; and that Mr. Lee had during the preceding week received a letter from the said defendant dated at Paris; and that he had also made enquiries of other persons, and particularly of Mr. Aldersey, who informed the said deponent he acted generally as the solicitor for the said defendant, and that he was aware the defendant had been served with the label of the aforesaid subpoena, but the said defendant left London for Paris on Sunday the 31st day of May last (the day after the said defendant had been personally served with the first mentioned subpoena as aforesaid), from all which information the said deponent suspects and believes that the said defendant is gone beyond Sea, or otherwise absconds, on purpose to avoid being served with the process of this Court; and that the said defendant, Jasper Taylor Hall, hath not yet entered any appearance in this cause; and that at the interview he had with Mr. Aldersey, before stated, Mr. Aldersey informed the said deponent that it was not intended to appear to the said bill; and the said James Trower Bullock did, on Friday the 24th day of July 1829, call at No. 194, Regent-Street aforesaid, and saw the said Mr. Alves, who admitted to the said deponent that he had received the said last mentioned subpoena from the said Ann Adcock.—It was therefore prayed that the defendant may be ordered to appear to the plaintiff's bill, whereupon, and upon hearing the said affidavit, whereby it appears the defendant has been in England within two years next before the issuing of the subpoena, his Lordship doth order that the defendant do appear to the plaintiff's bill, on or before the 20th day of October next.
