Whitehall, June 9, 1830.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 1st day of June instant, between the hours of nine and ten, the premises of Mr. Mosyer, a farmer, at Orpington, in the county of Kent, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, by which the stacks, barns, and farm buildings were consumed: and whereas it hath been further humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Sunday the 6th day of June instant, the premises of Mr. Vowles, also a farmer, at Orpington, in the county of Kent, were feloniously and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and that the greater part of the same were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL,

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, or either of them.—Fifty pounds of
