At the Court at St. James's, June 20, 1831.

A Chapter of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Entreé-room, viz.

Their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland, Sussex, and Gloucester, the Earl of Westmorland, the Marquess Camden, the Earl of Hardwicke, the Duke of Beaufort, the Earl of Lonsdale, the Marquess Wellesley, the Duke of Monmouth, the Earl Bathurst, the Duke of Northumberland, the Marquess of Hertford, the Duke of Dorset, the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Richmond, the Duke of Bedford, and Earl Grey, attended by the under named Officers of the Order, in their mantles, chains, and badges, viz. the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order; the Honourable and Reverend the Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order; Sir George Nayler, Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms; and Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knt. Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At half past three o'clock the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Throne-room.

The Sovereign being seated on the Throne, and the Knights Companions having taken their respective places, the Prelate of the Order, by His Majesty's command, signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure that a lineal descendant of His Majesty King George the Second should, in pursuance of the statute in that behalf made, be elected into the said Most Noble Order.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Prelate, were by his Lordship presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that His Serene Highness Augustus-William-Maximilian-Frederick-Lewis, Reigning Duke of Brunswick had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

The Duke of Brunswick was thereupon conducted from the private apartment of the Sovereign into the Chapter-room, between their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Sussex, the two senior Knights Companions, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion), and by Black Rod.

On entering the Chapter-room, His Serene Highness was received by the Sovereign and Knights Companions standing, and placed in a chair of state on the right hand of the Sovereign.

His Majesty was then graciously pleased to announce to the Duke of Brunswick, that His Serene Highness had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Garter, upon his knee, presenting the Garter to the Sovereign, His Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Cumberland and Sussex, buckled it on the left leg of His Serene Highness, the Prelate pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the George, and the Sovereign, assisted as before, put the same over the shoulder of the Duke of Brunswick, the Prelate pronouncing the admonition:

The Sovereign, thereupon, gave the accolade to His Serene Highness, who also received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions present.

The Chapter being ended, Garter, by command of the Sovereign, again called over the Knights Companions, and a procession was made back to the Royal Closet, in the same order as before, His Serene Highness the Duke of Brunswick walking on the right hand of His Majesty. The Knights Companions and Officers of the Order then retired from the presence of the Sovereign.

Her Majesty the Queen, their Royal Highnesses the Princesses, Her Serene Highness the Duchess of Saxe-Weimar, the Hanoverian Ministers, the Great Officers of State, the Officers of the Royal Household, and many personages of distinction, were present at this august ceremony.
