An Act for more effectually repairing the road from North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, to the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and certain branches communicating therewith; and also for making and repairing additional branches of road.

An Act to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers of the several Acts now in force relating to the new river or cut from Eau Brink to King's-Lynn, in the county of Norfolk, called the Eau Brink Cut, and to raise further funds for carrying the said Acts into execution.

And three private Acts.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 10th day of August 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or place not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said ports of Black River, Rio Bueno, and Morant, in the island of Jamaica:

And the Right Honourable the Lord Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames, and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation, and for other purposes connected therewith," after reciting that, under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament, and grants therein recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid, had collected, taken, levied, and received from, or in respect of, ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in the Act of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, therein mentioned, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls, of various denominations, from, or in respect of, all British ships or vessels, and from, or in respect of, all foreign ships and vessels, entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had not, by the terms of the said several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls, imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid: and that it was expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations hereinafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish, any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time, as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable; it is thereby enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby authorised and empowered, from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His said late Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or

Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times after the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase or otherwise alter or modify any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require; so as nevertheless that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act: and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival, re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification of any such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to and shall have been assented to and confirmed by His said late Majesty, His heirs, or successors in His or their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so received or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken: and whereas the said

Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty in His Privy Council, the propriety of modifying and reducing the duties payable for the Flatholm Light in the Bristol Channel, in manner following, that is to say :

	Present Toll.	Proposed Toll.
British over sea traders } - - - }	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters and Irish traders } - - - }	$\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.	$\frac{1}{4}$ d. per ton.
Coasters between Land's-end and St. David's Head }	1s. per vessel.	1s. per vessel.
Foreign vessels privileged as British }	1d. per ton.	$\frac{3}{4}$ d. per ton.
Foreign vessels not so privileged - }	2d. per ton.	$1\frac{1}{2}$ d. per ton.

And whereas His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, hath assented to the said proposal. His Majesty doth, therefore, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in Him vested by the said Act of Parliament, confirm the proposed tolls or duties, and the same are hereby confirmed accordingly :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act :

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Basseterre, in the island of Saint Christopher, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America, to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act :

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested, in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Kingstown, in the island of Saint Vincent, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 13th day of July 1831,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time, by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth of July in this year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year, from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year, but that the ballot or enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended, for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July instant.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We did, by Our Royal Proclamation of the twenty-third day of April last, establish and declare a scale of rates at which freight should be payable for public and private treasure conveyed on board any of Our ships and vessels, We have, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit further to ordain, declare, and command, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command, that, from and after the first day of September next, the freight for conveying gold and silver in any of Our packets between any two ports, the navigable distance between which shall exceed six hundred leagues, shall be fixed at the rate of one per cent. both for gold and silver: and We do hereby establish and declare, that the responsibility of the officer in charge of such treasure shall commence when it shall be safe alongside the said packet, and shall cease the moment that it shall be landed at the port of destination:

And it is further declared, that in all other respects the said Proclamation of the twenty-third day of April last, and the rules and regulations thereby established, shall continue in full force.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

WILLIAM, R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit to order that certain pieces of money should be coined, that is to say, certain pieces of gold money, to be called respectively double sovereigns, sovereigns, and half sovereigns; and certain pieces of silver money, to be called respectively crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences; and certain pieces of copper money, to be called respectively pence, half pence, and farthings; to be of the several values and weights hereinafter particularly described, that is to say, the double sovereigns to be each of the value of forty shillings, and of the weight of ten pennyweights, six grains, and $\frac{5}{16}$ troy weight, of standard gold; and the sovereigns each of the value of twenty shillings, and of the weight of five pennyweights, three grains, and $\frac{7}{16}$ troy weight, of standard gold; and the half sovereigns each of the value of ten shillings, and of the weight of two pennyweights, thirteen grains, and $\frac{7}{16}$ troy weight, of standard gold, according to the weight approved of and confirmed by Our Royal Brother, His late Majesty King George the Fourth, in Council, in pursuance of an Act, made in the fourteenth year of the reign of Our Royal Father King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating and ascertaining the weight to be made use of in weighing the gold and silver coin of this kingdom:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the fifteenth year of the reign of Our Royal Father, His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to provide for a new silver coinage, and to regulate the gold and silver coinage of the realm," the Master and Worker of Our Mint in London was empowered to coin silver bullion into silver coins, consisting of crowns, half crowns, shillings, and sixpences, of the standard of eleven ounces and two pennyweights of fine silver and eighteen pennyweights of alloy to the pound troy, and in weight after the rate of sixty-six shillings to the pound troy: and whereas, in virtue of the power so given, a coinage of crowns or five shilling pieces, half crowns or pieces of the value of two shillings and sixpence each, at the rate and of the standard aforesaid, has been made, as well as a coinage of copper pieces, called respectively pence, half pence, and farthings: and whereas We have further ordered that such double sovereigns shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the inscription "Gulielmus III, D. G. Britanniarum Rex F. D." and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield, encircled by the collar of the Order of the Garter, mantled and surmounted by the Royal Crown, with the date of the year, and upon the edge of the piece the words "Decus et Tutamen," and the year of Our reign; and that every such gold sovereign and every such half sovereign so ordered to be coined, shall have for the obverse impression Our effigy, with the same inscription and date, and for the reverse the ensigns armorial of the United Kingdom contained in a shield, plain, with the date of the year, and a graining on the edge of the piece; and every such crown has for the obverse and reverse impressions the same effigy, inscriptions, and dates as are hereby ordered for each double sovereign; and every such half crown has for the obverse and reverse impressions the same effigy, inscriptions, dates, and graining as are hereby ordered for each sovereign; and every such shilling has for the obverse impression the same effigy, inscription, and date, and for the reverse the words "one shilling," placed in the centre of the piece, within a wreath, having an olive branch on one side, and an oak branch on the other; and the sixpences have the same obverse and reverse impressions as those upon the shilling, except the word "sixpence," instead of the words "one shilling:" and We have also thought fit to order that each of the said penny pieces, half penny pieces, and farthings shall have the same obverse impression, effigy, inscription, and date, and for the reverse the figure of Britannia: and whereas pieces of money of all the above descriptions have been coined at Our Mint, and will be coined there, in pursuance of orders issued by Us, We have therefore, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare, and command that the said pieces of money so coined, and to be coined, shall be current and lawful money of the Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and shall be called by the several names, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful money of the Kingdom, at the several values hereinbefore assigned to them, in all payments whatsoever.

Given at our Court at St. James's, this thirteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

1st Regiment of Royal Tower Hamlets Militia.

The Right Honourable George Earl of Munster to be Colonel, vice Sir Daniel Williams, deceased.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Oxford.

Charles John Baillie Hamilton, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 23d July 1831.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Somerset.

West Somerset Regiment of Yeomanry Cavalry.

The Right Honourable Henry John George Herbert, commonly called Lord Porchester, to be Lieutenant-Colonel. Dated 29th August 1831.

Charles John Kemys Tynte, Esq. to be Major. Dated 29th August 1831.

Whitehall, September 6, 1831.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of eight and nine in the evening of Thursday the 1st day of September instant, an oat rick, in a field on the farm of Mr. Broome Witts, of Baydon, in the county of Wilts, was feloniously and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and a further reward of FIFTY POUNDS by Mr. Witts, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

MELBOURNE.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses hereby give notice, that a Light-house has been erected upon Dunnethead, in the county of Caithness; the light of which will be exhibited on Saturday the 1st day of October next, and will thereafter continue to be lighted every night, from the going away of day-light in the evening till the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Position of the Light-House, and the Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners:

Dunnethead Light-house is situate on the northern extremity of the mainland of Scotland, in north latitude 58 deg. 42 min., and west longitude 3 deg. 29 min.

The light-house, by compass, bears from the north end of the island of Stroma, in Pentland Frith, W. by N. distant $7\frac{1}{2}$ miles; from Hoy Head, leading to Hoy Sound, S. S. W. distant 13 miles; from the Stack and Skerry, S. by E. $\frac{3}{4}$ E. distant 31 miles; and from Cape Wrath, in Sutherlandshire, E. by S. $\frac{3}{4}$ S. distant 42 miles. In reference to these bearings, the light will be visible to the mariner in a northerly direction from S. E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. to W.

This light will be known to mariners as a stationary light, from oil, with reflectors; and being elevated 346 feet above the medium level of the sea, it will be seen like a star of the first magnitude, at the distance of from 7 to 8 leagues, and at intermediate distances, according to the state of the weather.

By order of the Commissioners of the Northern Light-houses, C. Cunningham, Secretary.
Edinburgh, August 18, 1831.

LINCOLNSHIRE.

Seaford, September 8, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that an adjourned General Meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenancy for the county of Lincoln will be held at the Castle of Lincoln, on Friday the 23d day of September instant, to apportion the number of men to be raised in each hundred, rape, lathe, or other division, to serve in the two regiments of militia for the county of Lincoln, according to the numbers contained in the respective certificates received from the several subdivision meetings.

By command of the Lord Lieutenant,
W. Forbes, Clerk of the General Meetings.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 23d of August 1831, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 91, intituled "An Act for enlarging and improving the west end of Cheapside, in the city of London, also St. Martin-le-Grand Aldersgate-street, St. Ann's-lane, and Foster-lane, and for providing a site for a new Post-Office, between St. Martin-le-Grand and Foster-lane aforesaid;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 23d day of February next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 23d day of February next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being part of the sum of £80,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Act of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 23d day of February, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

The sum of eight thousand one hundred pounds, the remaining part of a bond for ten thousand pounds, under the before-mentioned Act of Parliament, of the fifty-fifth of George the Third, ch. 91, numbered 2; and the sum of three thousand one hundred pounds, part of a bond for ten thousand pounds, under the said Act, numbered 3.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.
Guildhall, August 24, 1831.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act to continue the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making a public carriage road from the present turnpike road, near the south end of Highbury-place, Islington, to Haberdashers'-walk, in the parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex;" and which said road lies in and passes through and into the several parishes of St. Mary, Islington, and St. Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex.

Parson and Ellis, St. Mildred's-court.

CONTRACTS FOR STRAW.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, September 5, 1831.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, to furnish for twelve months, from the 1st of November next, such quantities of as may from time to time be required at barracks and ordnance stations in the under-mentioned counties and islands, may receive particulars of the contracts on applying at this Office, between the hours of ten and four; and to the respective Barrack-Masters in the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney; and deliver their tenders at this Office, marking thereon "Tender for Straw," until twelve o'clock on Tuesday the 4th of October next.

Proposals are to be made separately for each county in South Britain, for the whole of the barracks in North Britain, and also for the whole of those in the three islands of Guernsey, Jersey, and Alderney; but no proposal will be noticed, unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the prices inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposals from a person of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, for the due performance of the contract.

CITY OF LINCOLN.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Beard v. Pinder, with the approbation of George Boone Roupell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Crown and Anchor Inn, in the City of Lincoln, on Friday the 16th September 1831, at Five o'clock in the Afternoon, in four lots;

The valuable and extensive real estates, late of Mr. H. G. Beard, deceased, situate in the City of Lincoln, consisting of a capital mansion, replete with comfort, and with out offices of every description and garden, green-house, and paddock, containing one acre, immediately attached, late in the occupation of the Honourable A. L. Melville, but now of Major Terwest; the paddock having an extensive frontage on the river, is very valuable as building ground.

A malt-kiln capable of steeping fifty quarters of barley, a spacious warehouse, counting-house, coal-yards, granaries, tenement, and outhouses, all immediately contiguous to the navigation, and now occupied by Messrs. Thorpe, and seven small tenements adjoining the dwelling-house.

The above property comprises an area of 2A. 3R. 2P. and is well calculated for carrying on the malting, corn, wool, and coal trades extensively.

A moiety of a messuage in Much-Lane, Lincoln, formerly occupied by Mr. Samuel Beard, and lately by Mr. Capp, with out offices, malt-kiln, and coal-yard immediately adjoining and contiguous to the Witham.

The entirety of seven other freehold messuages in Lincoln, and a valuable paddock in Far Newland, containing 2A. 1R. 14P. occupied by Mr. William Rudgard, and several pews in the Parish Churches of Saint Martin's and Saint Peter, at Arches.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; and at the place of sale; at the Offices of Messrs. Barrow and Rawlings, Solicitors, Doughty-Street, Bedford-Row; of Mr. James Scott, Solicitor, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields, London; and of Mr. Joseph Moore, Solicitor, Lincoln.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the Court of Chancery at Durham, dated the 30th day of August 1831, made on the hearing of a certain cause their depending, wherein Thompson and others are complainants, and Thomas and others are defendants, it was ordered and decreed that the original suit and proceedings and the decree had therein, dated the 12th day of October 1801 (wherein Jacob Thomas and others are complainants, and Robert Thomas and others are defendants), should stand revived; in and by which said last mentioned Decree, it was, amongst other things, referred to John Gregson, Esq.
