MORTON'S PATENT SLIP.

Invention of Thomas Morton, formerly Ship-BUILDER, in Leith, and now of Pilrig-Place, Leith-Walk, in the County of Edinburgh, of "a Method of dragging Ships out of the Water on dry Land," for Repairs and other Purposes, commonly called Morton's Patent Slip.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended to apply to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for prolonging to the said Thomas Morton, his executors, administrators, and assigns, for a term of years to be limited, the sole and exclusive right, benefit, and advantage of making, using, exercising, and vending the said invention of the said Thomas Morton, of a method of dragging ships out of the water; for the exclusive right and sole privilege and authority to make, use, exercise, and vend which invention, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland, the said Thomas Morton obtained His late Majesty King George the Third's letters patent, under the Great Seal appointed by the Treaty of Union to be used in place of the Great Seal of Scotland, dated the 6th day of June, and written to the seal registered and sealed the 20th day of August, both 1818 years, and in the fifty-eighth year of His said Majesty's reign, for and during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent; and for the exclusive right, sole privilege and authority to make, use, exercise, and vend the said invention, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, and also in all the colonies and plantations abroad, the said Thomas Morton obtained his said Majesty's letters patent, under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, dated the 23d day of March 1819, and in the fifty-ninth year of His said Majesty's reign, for and during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said last-mentioned letters patent.

(Signed) Greig and Morton, W. S. Abercromby-place, Edinburgh.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill and to obtain an Act to continue the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for making a public carriage road from the present turnpike road, near the south end of Highbury-place, Islington, to Haberdashers'-walk, in the parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex;" and which said road lies in and passes through and into the several parishes of St. Mary, Islington, and St. Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex.

Parton and Ellis, St. Mildred's-court.

Notice to the Creditors of Archibald Farquharson, Esq. of Finzean, and Insurance-Broker, in Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, September 9, 1831.

THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills this day sequestrated the whole estates, heritable and moveable, real and personal, of the said Archibald Farquharson, and appointed his Creditors to meet in the Lemon Tree Tavern, Aberdeen, on Tuesday the 27th day of September current, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, to name an Interim Factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, on Wednesday the 12th of October next, to elect a Trustee on the said sequestrated estates.—All in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of William Martin, of Blackford, Banker, in Lockerby.

September 9, 1831.

JOHN BARKER, Banker, in Dumfries, Trustee on the said sequestrated estate, hereby intimates, that the Sheriff of Dumfries-shire has fixed Friday the 23d day of September current, and Friday the 7th day of October next, for the first and second examination of the Bankrupt and others connected with his affairs,—the examinations to proceed within the Sheriff-Clerk's Office, Dumfries, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon each day.

The Trustee also intimates, that two meetings of the said Creditors will be held at Lockerby, and within Thomas Lawrence's Inn there, the first on Saturday the 8th and the second on Saturday the 22d days of October next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon each day, to elect Commissioners and instruct the Trustee.

And the Trustee hereby requires the Creditors to produce in his hands their claims and grounds of debt, and oaths of verity thereon, at or previous to the said first mentioned meeting; and he intimates, that unless the said productions are made on or before the 26th day of May next, the party failing shall draw no share of the first dividend.
