TUESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1831.

TO THE GENTLEMEN OF HIS MAJESTY'S
MOST HONOURABLE PRIVY CHAMBER.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, October 10, 1831.

IT is requested, that every Gentleman of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Chamber will send his name and address to this Office, on or before the last day of the present month; those Gentlemen only who comply with this notice, can be considered as holding that appointment.

Whitehall, October 11, 1831.

THE following Address having been transmitted to Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty, and graciously received:—

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Inhabitant Householders and rate payers of the parish of St. John of Wapping, offer our grateful thanks for your Majesty's fatherly attention to the welfare of your people in dissolving the late Parliament, which had declared itself hostile to your Majesty's wishes, and to the best interests of the nation; we beg also to congratulate your Majesty on the recent happy occasion of your Majesty's Coronation. At the same time, being deeply convinced that the bills now in Parliament for a reform in the representation of the people most seriously involve the present and future welfare of the nation, we most humbly intreat that your Majesty will be pleased so to exert your undoubted prerogative, as to secure the realization of those vitally important national measures, thereby securing your people's happiness, and strengthening by ties more powerful than any ceremonial, however venerable in its antiquity and splendid in its pageantry, their love and attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family.

We venture to subscribe ourselves, Sire, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects.
