The cards of the Gentlemen to be presented at the Levee on the 9th instant, should be at this Office by twelve o'clock on the Friday preceding.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 1st day of July 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poors' rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every

Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas by an Act, passed in the thirty-second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor of the several parishes within the city of Lincoln, and county of the same city, and of the parish of St. Margaret, part whereof lies within the said city, and the other part in the close of Lincoln, in the county of Lincoln," it is, amongst other things, enacted that the Mayor and Aldermen of the said city of Lincoln for the time being, and all and every person or persons inhabiting in any of the several and respective parishes within the said city, and county thereof, and also of the said parish of St. Margaret (which is thereby declared to be deemed to be within the said city, for the purposes of that Act as aforesaid), rated and assessed in any degree to the relief of the poor thereto respectively belonging, and who shall be in the actual possession and enjoyment or receipt of the rents and profits therein described, of the clear yearly value of fifteen pounds or upwards, and also all and every person and persons inhabiting in any of the said several and respective parishes, and being rated and assessed to the relief of the poor of the said respective parishes for or in respect of their holding or occupying any lands, tenements, or hereditaments situate, or any tythes arising and encreasing, within any of the said parishes respectively, of the yearly rack rent of ten pounds or upwards, or being possessed of a personal estate, in money or goods, of the value of three hundred pounds or upwards, should be, and they were thereby declared to be, incorporated, by the name and title of " the Guardians of the Poor within the city of Lincoln, and liberties thereof ;" and empowering such guardians to elect parish directors and corporation directors for the care and management of the poor, in the manner therein directed :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient, in order to carry into effect the purposes of the before recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships before mentioned, in the most convenient manner within the said city and county of the city of Lincoln, and parish of St. Margaret, that the Board of Health for such city and county should be empowered and authorised to apply for all the necessary powers and expences to the directors and guardians of the poor for such city and county, in lieu and stead of applying to the vestries of the several parishes and townships therein :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), that the Board of Health constituted for the said city and county of the city of Lincoln, shall and may apply to the clerk of the said corporation to convene a general meeting of the said directors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county (which court the said clerk is hereby commanded and directed forthwith to convene) ; and the said Board of Health, by their chairman or secretary, shall and may submit proposals accounts and estimates to such court, and apply for the necessary powers and authorities, and for a certain sum of money to defray the reasonable expences, delivering their proposals to such directors and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in the place and stead of making any such application to the vestries of the several incorporated parishes, as in the before recited Order mentioned ; and the said directors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered (if they think proper so to do) to confer upon the Board of Health of the said city all or any of the powers and authorities mentioned in the said Order of their Lordships ; and the said directors and guardians of the poor for the said city and county are further ordered and directed to ascertain and fix the amount of the sum to be allowed for carrying into effect the purposes of the first before recited Act, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon, in the place and in lieu and stead of the vestries in the before recited Order mentioned, and to use and exercise all other the functions and powers given by such Order of their Lordships to select or parish vestries :

And for all acts and deeds properly done by such directors and guardians of the poor of the said city and county, in execution and furtherance of this or of any other Order or Orders of the Lords and others in Council, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 27th day of June 1832,

By the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, or any two or more of them (of whom the Lord President of the Council, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, shall always be one), by any Order or Orders to be by them from time to time made, to establish, and again, from time to time, by any such Order or Orders, to revoke, renew, alter, or vary all such rules and regulations, or to substitute any such new rules and regulations, as to them may appear necessary or expedient, for the prevention, as far as may be possible, of the spreading of the said disease, called the cholera, or spasmodic, or Indian cholera, in England or Wales, or any part thereof, or for the relief of any persons suffering under, or likely to be affected by, the said disease :

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act, that all and every the expences which may be reasonably or properly incurred, in carrying into effect any Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, made as aforesaid, shall, under and by virtue of an order in writing of one justice of the peace, dwelling in or near the parish or division (and which said order any such justice is thereby empowered and directed to make), commanding the churchwardens, overseers, or guardians of the poor, for the time being, to pay a certain sufficient sum of money for such purpose, be defrayed out of the rates for the relief of the poor of the parish, township, or extra parochial place maintaining its own poor, in which the same shall be incurred, and, in other extra parochial places, out of the poor's rate of the parish nearest adjoining :

And whereas the said disease hath extended to different parts of Great Britain, and other parts thereof may be affected by the same :

And whereas by an Order, made on the sixth day of March last past, by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council was one), it was, amongst other things, ordered and directed that every Board of Health, constituted by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council for cities, towns, districts, or divisions of England and Wales, should and might apply to the select or parish vestry of every parish or place within such city, town, district, or division, for authority and powers to carry into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and the measures of precaution in the said Order described, and to provide a sufficient sum of money for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries :

And whereas it hath been shewn to the satisfaction of their Lordships, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimate and statement of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of one hundred and twenty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for the parish of Ormskirk, to the vestry of the said parish, and such vestry hath declined to give authority or directions to the Board of Health, and to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of the Act before recited, and of the Order of their Lordships founded thereon :

And whereas it doth appear to the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) proper and expedient to sanction, by an Order of the Lords of the Privy Council, certain of the expences contained in the estimate and statement so submitted by the said Board of Health for the parish of Ormskirk to the vestry of such parish as aforesaid :

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the Order of the sixth day of March last past, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences, to be fixed and declared by such select or parish vestry as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the parish of Ormskirk, and the sum of seventy pounds; and that the said Board of Health for the said parish of Ormskirk shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to, make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the parish or division, to make an order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish of Ormskirk, commanding them to pay the said sum of seventy pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish, which order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money, in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act and to the present Order :

And the Lords of the Privy Council (of whom the Lord President of the Council is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things properly done by any such Board of Health, justice of the peace, parish officers, guardians of the poor, district churchwardens, and others of His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of the present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Windsor-Castle, June 25, 1832.

THE following Address to the King was this day presented to His Majesty, and graciously received:

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Dean and Canons of your Free Chapel of Saint George, within your Castle of Windsor, most respectfully request your gracious permission to express the mingled feelings of grief and indignation, with which we have regarded the late atrocious outrage, perpetrated against your sacred person.

When, Sire, we contemplate this treasonable act, together with a series of insults, beyond the power of language to characterize, which have been recently offered, as well to your Majesty, as to the august Partner of your Throne, whom to know, is to admire and revere, we tremble under the apprehension that the most fearful indication of divine displeasure, "the being given over to a reprobate mind," may have fallen on a guilty people; nevertheless, in the immediate preservation of your Majesty, we humbly recognize an earnest of the Almighty's still subsisting favour; and we fervently pray, that He will continue, His daily guardian care over both your Majesties, to preserve you alike, from assaults which hurt the body, and from insults which afflict and wither the heart.

In thus beseeching from Heaven, protection to your Majesties, we are well aware that we are imploring a blessing upon ourselves, for we can never forget, that the prosperity of this nation is inseparably bound up in the welfare of its Monarch.

We have only further to intreat your Majesty, as an additional mark of the condescension and kindness with which you have deigned to honour us, from the first moment of your accession to the Throne, that you will graciously receive from us, this feeble tribute of our veneration and attachment.

Whitehall, July 3, 1832.

THE following Addresses to the King, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to His Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New Sarum.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor and Commonalty of the city of New Sarum, in Common Council assembled, impressed with the strongest feelings of horror and indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attack on your Majesty's sacred person, beg to convey to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty having, under the protection of Divine Providence, been preserved from injury, and our regret that an individual could be found capable of so flagitious an outrage.

To our assurances of unalterable loyalty and attachment to your Majesty, we add our most fervent prayers, that your Majesty may long reign in health and prosperity over a free and happy people, united in one general feeling of obedience to the laws, veneration for our constitution, and dutiful allegiance to your Majesty.

Given under our common seal, this 29th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1832.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Aldermen of the Town or Borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful, loyal, and affectionate subjects, the Mayor and Aldermen of the town or borough of Kingston-upon-Hull, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, to offer to your Majesty our sincere and heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's late providential escape from the wicked and treasonable designs of an infatuated individual, and also to express our indignant abhorrence of so atrocious and daring an attack upon your Royal Person.

At this momentous crisis, when an important alteration has been effected in the British Constitution, and an inordinate desire for change in the established institutions of the country is attempted to be supported by clamour and dictation, we consider it becomes the duty of every loyal and patriotic subject to rally round the Throne, and, by upholding the dignity of the Crown, to preserve the dearest liberties of the people; be assured, therefore, most gracious Sire, of our unshaken fidelity and attachment to your Majesty's person and government, and of our determination to defend and support to the utmost of our power the integrity of that constitution, which is the envy and admiration of the world, and alike the stay and glory of Britain.

That your Majesty may long continue to sway the sceptre of these realms, and in health and peace reign over a happy and prosperous nation, and that the inestimable blessings we enjoy may, by your Majesty's wisdom and firmness, be preserved, and handed down to our latest posterity, is the earnest prayer of us your Majesty's faithful subjects.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor and Burgesses of the town or borough of Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, on the 20th day of June 1832.

Robt. Raikes, jun. Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Majesty our deepest horror and indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable attempt upon your Majesty, and our heartfelt congratulations, that, under Divine Providence, your Majesty escaped from it without injury to your sacred person.

We beg leave also to express to your Majesty, the deep concern we feel at there having been found within your Majesty's dominions a person capable of so flagitious an attempt; and that we make it our earnest prayer to Almighty God that He will preserve to us the blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild government, and continue to watch over and protect a life so justly dear to us, and to the empire at large.

In offering these our humble congratulations to your Majesty, we would beg, at same time, to tender the renewal of our allegiance to your Majesty, and the assurance that our cordial and united services shall ever be at the command of your Majesty for the protection of your royal person, and the maintenance of the laws, the religion, and the liberties of our country.

Signed in name, and by appointment, of a general meeting of the Company, and the seal of the Company affixed, this 25th day of June 1832.

R. Scott, Master of the Merchant Company.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and Inhabitants of the borough of Plymouth, hasten to approach your Majesty with the expression of our abhorrence and indignation at the late atrocious attack on your Majesty's sacred person, and to deplore that any subject of your Majesty should have been guilty of so dastardly and atrocious an act.

We are, however, consoled by the reflection, that the hand of Divine Providence has been interposed to preserve your Majesty's invaluable life, and thus to continue the benignant reign of a Monarch, whom we glory in revering as the father of his people.

We beg to offer to your Majesty the renewed assurance of our devoted loyalty and attachment, and our ardent prayers that your Majesty may long be preserved to rule over a free and happy nation.

On behalf of myself, the corporation, and inhabitants of the borough of Plymouth.

A. Tozer, Mayor.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the city of Oxford, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to express to your Majesty our deep abhorrence and indignation of the treasonable attack made on your Majesty's royal person at Ascot-heath; and whilst we deplore that any individual in your Majesty's dominions could be capable of committing an act of such atrocity, we congratulate your Majesty and the nation at large that, through the blessing of Divine Providence, your Majesty's life was preserved.

We beg to add our fervent hope, that your Majesty's reign may be long and happy, and that this country may continue to prosper under your Majesty's mild government.

Given under our common seal, the 27th day of June 1832.

Roberson, Town-Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Sire,

WE, the Office-Bearers and Members of the Most Ancient Lodge of Free Masons, in Scotland, called Saint Mary's, holding Number 1, on the Roll of the Grand Lodge of Scotland, at a very numerous meeting, held upon the 25th day of June current, for the purpose of celebrating the festival of Saint John, and for expressing the feelings of the brethren upon the wicked and treasonable assault made upon your Majesty's sacred person, resolved by this address, humbly presented to your Majesty, to express our utter abhorrence of so shameful an outrage. But we, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, congratulate you, the patron of our craft, upon your Majesty's providential escape; and we pray that your Majesty may long be preserved to reign over a people devoted to your Majesty's august person.

Signed and sealed in name of, and by authority of the other Office-Bearers and Brethren of the most ancient Lodge, by me, the R. W. Master.

J. W. Marshall.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Incorporation of Traffickers, or Merchant Company, of Leith.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Incorporation of Traffickers, or Merchant Company of Leith, beg to approach your Majesty.

with the renewed expression of affection and respect towards your Majesty's person and government.

We have viewed with deep indignation the occurrence of the late daring and treasonable attack on your most gracious Majesty, at Ascot, and sincerely regret that there should have existed an individual capable of perpetrating so atrocious an act.

While we express this regret, however, we beg to convey our congratulation to your Majesty, and to declare how grateful we are to Providence that no serious injury has thereby resulted to your Majesty's sacred person, to assure your Majesty that our cordial services shall ever be at command for the protection of your Majesty, and the maintenance of the laws, religion, and liberties of the country, and that our most anxious wish is, that your Majesty and your Royal Consort may long enjoy every happiness, and occupy a throne surrounded and supported by a free and loyal people.

Signed in name and by authority of the incorporation, and the seal thereof appended, this 27th day of June, 1832. James Duncan, Master.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Society of Writers to your Majesty's Signet in Scotland.

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Society of Writers to your Majesty's Signet, beg leave humbly to approach the Throne, and, under a deep feeling of gratitude to Almighty God for defeating the late atrocious attack upon your sacred person, to express our sincere congratulations on your Majesty's preservation.

When we contemplate your Majesty's public conduct, and your anxiety for the welfare of your people, it is with difficulty we can persuade ourselves that there exists a mind so depraved as could prompt the impious hand of treason to lift itself against our Sovereign.

While we feel abhorrence at the late flagitious attack, we pray for your Majesty's safety and welfare, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, a happy, and a loyal people.

Signed by appointment of the Society, at a general meeting held at Edinburgh, June 25, 1832, and in their name.

Richard Mackenzie, Deputy Keeper of the Signet.

To the KING's Most Gracious Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the royal burgh of Haddington, beg leave to express our sincere and hearty congratulations upon your Majesty's escape from the late daring outrage offered to your person; we feel deeply concerned that there should be a single individual in this country capable of committing so desperate an outrage against your Majesty's person, and so daring a violation of the laws of the land.

While we thus express our horror at the recent violence offered to your Majesty, and our congratulations on your escape, we embrace the opportunity of renewing the expression of our loyalty, and our prayer that your Majesty may be preserved during many years to reign in health and prosperity over a free and an united people.

Signed in presence and by authority of the Magistrates and Council of this burgh, assembled at Haddington, the 26th day of June 1832, and the seal of the burgh is hereto affixed, by Arch. Dunlop, Provost.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Vicar, Curate, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of New Brentford, the county town of Middlesex, having heard with deep regret and high indignation the atrocious assault committed upon your Majesty's sacred person, at a time too, when you, Sire, had graciously condescended to mingle in the recreations of your people.

It gives us heartfelt satisfaction to know, that in conveying to your Majesty, and to your Royal Consort, our congratulations on the escape of your Majesty from the brutal hand of the assailant, we express the feelings of the whole British empire.

That your Majesty, under the protection of Divine Providence, may long sway the sceptre of these realms, and convey the blessings of your paternal government to a free, united, and loyal people, is the fervent prayer of

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, Inhabitants of the borough and town of Weymouth and Melcombe Regis, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty with feelings of the deepest respect and veneration, to render to your Majesty our heartfelt and grateful thanks for having recalled to your Majesty's Councils those Ministers who, through evil and through good report, have been so long struggling for the restoration of the people's rights, which, we trust, through your Majesty's paternal kindness, they will now succeed in obtaining. Thus tendering our homage of thanks to your Majesty, we humbly implore the Divine Ruler and Governor of kings to shower down upon your Majesty his choicest blessings, and that you may be long spared to the nation whose father and benefactor you have been, will be our unceasing prayer.
