

for the discharge of the necessary expences thereof, of which the amount should be declared and fixed by the said vestries:

And whereas it hath been represented to the Lords of the Privy Council, that application for such powers and provisions as aforesaid, together with an estimated statement, accounts, and vouchers of all the necessary expences, and a request for the funds to meet them, amounting in the whole to the sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, hath been made by the Board of Health for Sedgley to the vestry meeting of that parish, such vestry having been duly convened; when such vestry virtually and in effect declined or avoided to comply with the application of the said Board of Health, and did not give the required authority and directions to such Board, or provide the said sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, or any part thereof; such grant of money being applied for by the said Board of Health to provide for the expences of carrying into effect the purposes of prevention of the before-recited Act, and the measures of preparation and precaution prescribed in the before-mentioned Orders of their Lordships founded thereon:

It is, therefore, ordered by the Lords and others of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one), in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the before-recited Act, that so much of the said Orders in Council, as requires the amount of the sum to be defrayed in discharge of the necessary expences of such precautionary and sanitary measures to be declared and fixed by such vestries as aforesaid, be, and it is hereby, revoked and altered, in so far as respects the said parish of Sedgley, and the sum of four hundred and fifty pounds:

And that the said Board of Health for Sedgley shall and may, and they are hereby authorised and empowered to make application, by their chairman or secretary, to some justice of the peace living in or near the said parish or division, to make his order, in writing, upon the parish officers, guardians of the poor, or district churchwardens of the said parish, commanding them to pay the said sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, for the purposes aforesaid, out of the rates levied, or next hereafter to be levied, for the relief of the poor of such parish; which said last-mentioned order such justice of the peace is hereby required and enjoined to make, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him by the before-recited Act; and the said parish officers, guardians of the poor, and district churchwardens are hereby ordered and commanded to pay such sum of money in obedience to the order of such justice, in the manner therein directed, or they will incur the penalties consequent upon disobedience to such before-recited Act, and to the present Order:

And the Lords and others of His Majesty's Privy Council (of whom Viscount Melbourne, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is one) do hereby declare, that for all acts, deeds, matters, and things reasonably and properly done by such Board of Health, justice of the peace, overseers, churchwardens, guardians of the poor, and others His Majesty's subjects, in execution and furtherance of this present Order of the Lords and others in Council, or of any order so to be made by any such justice as aforesaid, this Order shall be their full and sufficient warrant.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto the Reverend Richard Tomkyns, of Cotheridge-court, in the county of Worcester, Clerk, and Rector of Great Horwood, in the county of Buckingham, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may assume and from henceforth use the surname of Berkeley only, instead of that of Tomkyns, in compliance with the last will and testament of Rowland Berkeley, sometime of Cotheridge-court aforesaid, Esq. deceased, and that he and they may also take and bear the arms of Berkeley, of Cotheridge; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.
