FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1835.

Lord Great Chamberlain's-Office, February 20, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given that, in consequence of the fitting up and appropriation of the Painted Chamber for the sitting of the House of Peers, the usual number of orders of admission cannot be issued from this Office, on His Majesty's coming to Parliament on Tuesday the 24th instant.

Peercresses will have places reserved for them, on their announcing the previous day, their intention of being present on this occasion.

No stranger can be admitted, except by an order subscribed by the Deputy Great Chamberlain.

No Lady can be admitted into the body of the House, except in full dress.

The doors will not be open for the admission of strangers until twelve o'clock.

CHOLMONDELEY.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 5, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 25th of February next, at two o'clock; and on every succeeding Wednesday until further orders.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend His Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them (not the Lord in Waiting), should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to the Levee on the 25th of February, and on the Monday previous to each succeeding Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation; it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the King.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Thursday, June 25th.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT HER MAJESTY'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

THE Ladies who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms are requested to bring with them three cards with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Page in Waiting in the Presence-Chamber, one to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting upon the King, and the third to be given to the Queen's Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, that it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Office of the Queen's Lord Chamberlain, three clear days before the Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation, it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen.

Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, Queen's House, St. James's, February 14, 1835.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Drawing-Room to be held at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 5th of March, will be for the celebration of the Queen's Birth-day.

The cards of those Ladies who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Room must be sent in to the Office of the Lord Chamberlain to the Queen, before twelve o'clock on Monday the 2d of March.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, January 5, 1835.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of February 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Wilton, Lord Steward of His Majesty's Household, was, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th day of February 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

HIS Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint John Henry Lewis, of Dolgun, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county of Merioneth.

And His Majesty was pleased to make the following amendments on the Roll:

Leicestershire,	William Henick, Esq. made William Herrick, Esq.
Surrey,	James Strudi Broadwood, Esq. made James Shudi Broadwood, Esq.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 7th day of February 1835,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing, altering, and amending several Acts for the better regulation of lastage and ballastage in the River Thames; and for enabling the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish dues payable to the said Corporation; and for other purposes connected therewith;" after reciting, amongst other things, that under the authority and by virtue of the several Acts of Parliament and grants thereinbefore recited, as well as of other Acts of Parliament, and of divers charters, grants, and letters patent of Kings and Queens of this realm, and also by prescriptive right, the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had collected, taken, levied, and received from or in respect of ships and vessels requiring ballast, the several rates and prices specified in an Act therein mentioned, of the forty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, and certain dues or duties, rates or tolls of various denominations from or in respect of all British ships and vessels, and from or in respect of all foreign ships and vessels entering or departing from the ports, harbours, or roadsteads of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland; and that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid had not by the terms of the several Acts of Parliament, charters, grants, and letters patent, or any of them, any power to reduce, modify, alter, relinquish, or abolish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls imposed or granted, collected, taken, levied, and received as aforesaid; and that it was expedient that the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should be empowered (under the regulations thereafter contained) to reduce, alter, modify, relinquish, or abolish, and at any time or times thereafter to revive and re-establish any of the rates, prices, dues, duties, and tolls aforesaid, or any part or parts thereof, from time to time as to them the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants should seem meet, just, and reasonable; it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond aforesaid shall be, and they are thereby, authorised and empowered from time to time, and at any time or times thereafter, upon the requisition or with the consent of His Majesty, His heirs and successors, in His or Their Most Honourable Privy Council, to reduce, relinquish, abolish, alter, or modify all or any or either of the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls imposed or granted by the said several grants, charters, or Acts of Parliament, or any of them, or collected, taken, levied, and received under the authority thereof respectively, or by ancient usage, custom, or prescription, or any part or parts thereof, so far as may be consistent with the charitable and other uses, purposes, and intents for which the said Corporation has been established and maintained; and that it shall also be lawful for the Master, Wardens, and Assistants for the time being of the said Corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, at any time or times alter the passing thereof, to revive and re-establish any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been relinquished or abolished, or to increase, or otherwise alter or modify, any rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls which may have been reduced, altered, or modified under the authority of the said Act, and so from time to time to relinquish or abolish, and revive or re-establish, and reduce or increase, alter or modify, all or any of such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls as occasion may require, so as, nevertheless, that no such rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls shall at any time be increased beyond the amount which might be collected, taken, levied, or received by the said Corporation in respect thereof before the passing of the said Act; and it is thereby provided, that no such relinquishment, abolition, reduction, alteration, or modification, or subsequent revival re-establishment, increase, alteration, or modification, of any such rates, prices, dues, duties or tolls, or any or either of them, or any part or parts thereof, shall at any time be deemed valid or take effect until the same shall have been submitted by the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to, and shall have been assented to and confirmed by, His Majesty, His heirs, or successors, in His or Their Most Honourable Privy Council, and such assent and confirmation shall have been signified in writing unto the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants; and that it shall be lawful for the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants to fix and determine the period (so that the same do not exceed three calendar months, from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation as aforesaid), from and after which, all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so relinquished or abolished, shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received, or from and after which, all and every the rates, prices, dues, duties, or tolls so revived or re-established, reduced, increased, altered, or modified respectively as aforesaid, shall and may be collected, received, levied, or taken:

And whereas the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants have submitted to His Majesty in Council the proposals, of which a copy is contained in the schedule subjoined to this present Order; and whereas it hath appeared to His Majesty in Council expedient, that the said proposals should be confirmed;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in His Majesty in that behalf vested, His Majesty doth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, assent to and confirm the said proposals; and it is hereby ordered that such assent and confirmation shall be signified, in writing, to the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants, to the intent that, in further pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, the said Master, Wardens, and Assistants do fix and determine the period, so that the same do not exceed three calendar months from the receipt by them of such assent or confirmation, from and after which all and every the rates, dues, duties, or tolls relinquished or abolished, as in the said subjoined proposals is mentioned, shall be discontinued and no longer collected, taken, levied, or received:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

SCHEDULE to which the preceding Order refers.

First.—That vessels belonging to the United Kingdom, and also all foreign vessels, which may be driven by stress of weather to seek shelter in any British or Irish port (excepting such as shall break bulk or take in cargo at such port, and excepting also such as shall remain in port longer than the state of the weather or the reparation of damage may render unavoidable) shall not be chargeable with any light or other duties payable to the Corporation of Trinity house of Deptford Strond; and no vessel shall be chargeable with the duty for any light (such duty being payable to that Corporation) which such vessel may pass or receive benefit by when driven out of her course by stress of weather.

Second.—That all vessels, smacks, and boats, belonging to the United Kingdom, while actually employed in catching fish within soundings, shall be exempt from light and other duties payable to the Corporation of Trinity-house aforesaid; but which exemption shall not extend to vessels which are employed in carrying to port fish caught by other vessels, or otherwise procured.

East India-House, February 18, 1835.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company hereby give notice,

That the following postage will be levied at Bombay on all letters conveyed to that Presidency, by the Hugh Lindsay, from Suez, on her approaching voyage, in March, letters weighing

Quarter ounce, or less, half a rupee (one shilling);
Half ounce and more than quarter ounce, one rupee (two shillings);

Three quarters ounce and more than half ounce, one and a half rupee (three shillings);

One ounce and more than three quarters ounce, two rupees (four shillings);

And so on, a rupee (or two shillings) being charged for every additional half ounce.

Such postage will include all charges from Alexandria to Suez, but not the postage from England to Alexandria, which will be levied in this country by His Majesty's Government, nor the postage which may be chargeable at the different Presidencies of India for the conveyance of letters or packages by dawk or bangy into the interior; single newspapers, in covers, open at both ends, will be charged only the lowest rate of postage, i. e. half a rupee, or one shilling.

The Court of Directors further give notice, that no letters will be received at this House to be sent by the steamer to Alexandria, that the present conveyance of a packet, by the way of Suez, is an experiment only, the East India Company not being yet prepared with steam vessels, nor having yet adopted any permanent arrangements with a view to the regular conveyance of monthly or periodical packets from Alexandria to India by this route.

Reeves and Jackson, Solicitors, situate No. 11, Parliament-Street, in the said Town of Kingston-upon-Hull, on the 23d day of March next, at Eleven in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignees will declare the amount of the balance in their hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive Dividends as may be made according to the Statute.

Insolvent Debtor.—Dividend.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Henry Winship Dodd, formerly of No. 43, Upper Mary-le-Bone-Street, in the County of Middlesex, then of the Simon's Hotel, Calais, in France, then of No. 2, Great May's Buildings, Saint Martin's-Lane, and late of No. 6, Thayer-Street, Manchester-Square, both in the County of Middlesex, Lieutenant in the Royal Navy, an Insolvent Debtor, whose petition is numbered 35,863, hath caused an account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee, Mr. Frederick Goodr, at his Office, situate No. 15, Surrey Street, Strand, in the County of Middlesex aforesaid, on the 24th day of March next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Creditors of Thomas Moore, late of Pluckley, in the County of Kent, Farmer, and late a Prisoner in the Gaol of Maidstone, and discharged therefrom on or about the 18th day of January 1834, under and by virtue of an Act, made and passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors in England," that the Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent intends to hold a meeting on Friday the 13th day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Offices of Mr. Mourilyan, situate in Strand-Street, in Sandwich, in the said County of Kent, at which meeting all the Creditors of the said Insolvent are desired to attend, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing or prosecuting any action or actions at law, for the recovery of any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said Insolvent, and more especially for the recovery of certain sums of money paid by the said Insolvent to certain of his Creditors, immediately previous to his commitment to prison, and which payments were made for the purpose of giving such Creditors fraudulent and undue preference; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignee to take such steps and pursue such measures, from time to time, in and about the said Insolvent's affairs as by them in their discretion may be deemed expedient and proper.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Richard Spooner, late of No. 6, Bond Street, Vauxhall, Surrey, Cowkeeper and Milkman, an Insolvent Debtor, whose petition is numbered 36,175, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn to, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors; the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the Chambers of Mr. F. J. H. Smyth, No. 4, Furnival's-Inn, in the City of London, on the 25th day of March next, at Twelve at Noon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a Dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute.—If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule, but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor, objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
