A PROCLAMATION,

For adjourning the Solemnity of the Coronation of Her Majesty.

VICTORIA, R.

HEREAS by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the fourth day of April last, We did, amongst other things, publish and declare Our Royal intention to celebrate the solemnity of Our Royal Coronation, upon Tuesday the twenty-sixth day of June next, at Our Palace at Westminster; and whereas We have thought fit to adjourn the saidsolemnity until Thursday the twenty eighth day of June next, We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation,. give notice thereof; and We do hereby strictly charge and command all Our loving subjects whom it may concern, that all persons, of what rank or quality soever they be, who, either upon Our letters to them directed, or by reason of their offices and tenures, or otherwise, are to do any service at the time of Our Coronation, do duly give their attendance at the said solemnity, on Thursday the twenty-eighth day of June next, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a solemnity appertaineth, and answerable to the dignities and places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth, and of this they, or any of them, are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their perils, unless upon special reasons by Ourself, under Our hand, to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their services or attendances: provided always, and We do further, by this Our Royal Proclamation, signify and declare, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to change or alter Our Royal determination as more fully declared in Our Royal Proclamation, bearing date the tenth day of April last, whereby We did signify it to be Our Royal will and pleasure, upon the occasion of I this Our Coronation, to dispense with that part of the Ceremonial which usually takes place in Westminster Hall, and that part thereof which consists of the procession.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this second day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, and in the first year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

A T the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of April 1838,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of con"venient places for the holding of assizes, in England and Wales," it was enacted, amongst other things, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council, should have power, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, shall be holden:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed accordingly, that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business, in and for the county of Montgomery, shall henceforth be holden, in the summer, at Newtown, in the said county, and in the spring, at Welch Pool, in the said county.

Wm. I. Bathurst.
