Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-eight, in the second year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of July 1838,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of assizes in England and Wales," it was enacted, amongst other things, that His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, should have power, from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in England and Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions, for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the twenty-fifth day of April last, to direct, that the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions, for the dispatch of civil and criminal business in and for the county of Montgomery, should thenceforth be holden, in the summer, at New Town, and, in the spring, at Welch Pool, in the said county:

A 2

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Order in Council of the twenty-fifth day of April last be, and the same is, hereby revoked.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.
