Edward Stidolph, Superintendent Registrar.

CONTRACT FOR CLEANSING AND REPAIRING BEDDING, &c.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualing and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 9, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 29th August instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for Cleansing and repairing Flock Beds and Bolsters, and Blankets, and for cleansing Hammocks and Cots.

The articles to be taken by the Contractor from Her Majesty's Yard at Deptford, and to be returned by him into Store at the said Yard, when cleansed and repaired.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for cleansing and repairing Bedding," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS FOR SALT BEEF AND PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 5, 1839.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 19th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

Salt Meat, of the cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 9000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 17,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

The said meat is to be delivered, three fourth parts thereof in tierces, and the remaining one fourth part thereof in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, one half thereof by the 28th day of February, and the other half by the 31st day of May 1840, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork; or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork, will be admitted; but all tenders for such small quantities will be accepted, if at a lower price than that for which larger quantities are offered.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorised in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the entire risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate, confirming, completing and carrying into effect such contracts, or any or either of them, and accepting and taking conveyances upon the terms and conditions thereof, or any of them, and paying and discharging the chief or other rents contracted and stipulated to be paid out of the said bankrupt's estate, and selling and disposing of, in manner and form aforesaid, for sums in gross, or for yearly chief or reserved rents, the property of which they may so accept and take conveyances as aforesaid, or any part thereof; and, in case of sales upon chief or reserved rents, to the said assignees selling and disposing of such chief or reserved rents in manner and form aforesaid; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees abandoning and giving up to the respective vendors, or any or either of them, all right, title, claim, and interest of, in, and under such contracts, or any or either of them, with or without receiving or obtaining any consideration or compensation for so doing; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, and to whom the said bankrupt has executed mortgages of certain parts of his freehold and leasehold estate, the particulars of which will be stated at such meeting, and also with certain other persons, who will be named at such meeting, and who hold the title deeds, evidences, and writings relating to portions of the freehold and leasehold estates of the said bankrupt, the particulars of which will be stated at such meeting, as and by way of liens or equitable mortgages, or with any or either of such legal or equitable mortgagees, in a sale or sales of such freehold and leasehold estates, or any part or parts thereof, to be conducted by and under the management of the said assignees; and to all or any of such sale or sales being made by public auction or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, and in one or more lot or lots, at one time and place, or several times and places, and either for ready money or payment on a future day or days, or partly for ready money and partly for payment on a future day or days, with or without taking security for payment of the purchase moneys, or any part thereof; and to all or any of such sale or sales being made to the said parties claiming to be legal or equitable mortgagees, or to any other person or persons whomsoever, with power to buy in all or any part of such estates and property, and again to offer the same, with like powers and authorities, without being answerable or liable for any loss, depreciation, or diminution in price or otherwise which may arise or occur; and to the said assignees allowing and permitting such legal and equitable mortgagees, respectively, to receive the balance of the respective purchase moneys arising from such sale or sales, after paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expences of and attending such sales, and the completion of the respective purchases, in full satisfaction of their debts and interest; and to the said assignees allowing such legal and equitable mortgagees to prove upon the estate of the said bankrupt for the balance due to them respectively, after giving credit for such purchase moneys respectively; and to the said assignees making and entering into such other agreements or arrangements with such legal and equitable mortgagees, respectively, respecting their respective mortgages, and the sale of the properties and appropriation of the proceeds of sale, as they the said assignees may be advised and think most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, or at a valuation or otherwise, in one or more lots, and at one time and place, or at several times and places, and for ready money or for payment on a future day or days, or partly for ready money and partly for payment on a future day or days, and either with or without taking any security for payment of the purchase moneys, or any part thereof, without being answerable or liable to make good any loss which may occur, the whole of the unmortgaged freehold and leasehold estates, chief and other rents and property of the said bankrupt, and also his stock in trade, fixtures, household goods and furniture, and other his personal estate and effects whatsoever, with power to buy in all or any part or parts thereof at any such sale or sales, and again to offer the same for sale, and sell or dispose thereof, in manner and with the like powers and authorities aforesaid, without being answerable or liable for any diminution, loss, or deterioration in price, value, or otherwise which may arise or occur; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees ratifying, confirming, carrying into effect, and completing, or otherwise rescinding and annulling, certain contracts made by the said bankrupt before his bankruptcy with certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, and the particulars of the contracts there stated and explained, for the sale and purchase of plots of land, part of the said bankrupt's estate, upon and subject to chief rents, and making and executing the proper and necessary deeds and documents for vesting such plots of land in the respective purchasers, subject to the rents contracted to be paid for the same, and afterwards selling and disposing of such chief rents, in manner and with the like powers and authorities aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the said bankrupt's estate, to certain persons, who will be named at such meeting, the various sums of money, which will be then stated; and for which such persons respectively claim liens upon certain title deeds, evidences, and writings, relating to portions of the freehold and leasehold estates of the said bankrupt, in order to obtain possession of such deeds, evidences, and writings, and to the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, any lien or claim which any other person or persons may have on the real and personal estate, goods, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, or on any title deeds, evidences, and writings relating thereto, in order to obtain possession and controul thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, employing an agent or collector to collect the rents of the said bankrupt's freehold and leasehold estates, and superintend and manage the same, and paying him or them such allowance or remuneration; out of the said bankrupt's estate, for his or their time, trouble, and services as to the said assignees shall seem just; and also to the said assignees employing a surveyor or surveyors, or other proper person or persons, to plan and allot the said bankrupt's freehold and leasehold estate, or any part or parts thereof, for sale, on chief rents, or otherwise, and to sell and dispose thereof, or of any part or parts thereof upon chief rent, and to their paying him or them such allowance or remuneration, out of the said bankrupt's estate, for his or their time, trouble, and service as to them, the said assignees, shall seem just and reasonable; also to sanction and allow to one of the said assignees, who is an accountant, such allowance and remuneration, out of the said bankrupt's estate, for his time, trouble, and services in investigating and making up the books, affairs, and accounts of the said bankrupt, and in the collection of the debts due to the said bankrupt's estate, and in the superintendance and management of the affairs of the said bankrupt, and the sale and disposition of his stock and effects, as to the said assignees shall seem just and reasonable; also to sanction, allow, and confirm

The acts of the provisional assignee, from the time of his appointment up to the choice of assignees, and the acts and proceedings of the assignees, from the time of their appointment up to the time of such meeting, in the general management and superintendence of the said bankrupt's estate, and all payments made by the said provisional assignee and assignees in and about the management and superintendence of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for and taking less than the whole of any debts owing to the said bankrupt which they may think desperate, bad, or doubtful, in full satisfaction and discharge of the amount of such debts, and to their releasing any such debtors therefrom, and to their giving time to any debtor or debtors for payment, by instalments or otherwise, without taking security, and to their executing any deeds of composition, assignment, inspection, letter of licence, or release between any debtors to the estate and their creditors, and signing any bankrupt's certificate; and to the said assignees commencing and prosecuting actions at law against any debtors to the estate, for the recovery of such debts, and settling, arranging, and agreeing the same actions, upon such terms and conditions as they, the said assignees, shall think proper, and to their referring and submitting to arbitration any disputes or differences which may arise between them and any person or persons whomsoever, in respect or relating to or concerning all or any of the matters aforesaid, or to the said bankrupt's estate and effects, in any manner howsoever; and to the said assignees giving their consent to any creditors of the said bankrupt who may hold bills of exchange or notes upon which other persons than the said bankrupt are liable, accepting compositions from such other persons so liable as aforesaid, and to their executing any deeds of assignment for the benefit of creditors, composition, deeds, or letters of licence, between such other persons so liable and their creditors, or to their giving time for payment of any such bills or instalments, or otherwise, and either with or without security, or to any such creditors of the said bankrupt entering into any other arrangement with such other person so liable as aforesaid respecting the payment of the bills upon which they are liable, as they, the said assignees, shall think fit, without prejudice to such creditors rights of proof under the said Fiat, in any manner howsoever; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees of the said bankrupt's estate employing the said bankrupt to assist in the management and winding up of his affairs, and paying him, out of his estate and effects, such allowance and remuneration as to the said assignees shall seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees bringing, presenting, commencing, defending, or opposing, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, any petition in bankruptcy, suits in equity, or actions at law, applications to the Commissioners, or any other proceedings at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, which may be necessary, or be presented, made, filed, or brought by any person or persons whomsoever, for the determining and deciding whether certain parts of the stock in trade, moneys, and effects which have been seized by, or which have, or may hereafter, come to the hands of the said assignees under the said Fiat, belong, to the separate creditors of the said bankrupt, or ought to be applied in the payment of the joint debts of the said bankrupt and his co-partners, the said Charles Adshhead and John Goodband; and generally for the protection, recovery, getting, or obtaining any parts of the said bankrupt's real and personal estate and effects, or for any sale or sales thereof; and to the said assignees abandoning and giving up any such proceedings, opposition, or defence, upon the terms and conditions as to the said assignees shall seem most conducive to the interest of the said bankrupt's creditors; and generally to take into consideration the state and situation of the estate, property, and affairs of the said bankrupt, and direct the assignees in what manner they shall act in the management, disposal, and getting in of the said bankrupt's affairs, estate, property, and effects; and to give the said assignees all such other proper and necessary powers as may be required for those or any of the purposes aforesaid; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 26th day of August 1839, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry should be supported by a valid receipt or invoice. This ensures transparency and allows for easy verification of the data.

In the second section, the author details the various methods used to collect and analyze the data. This includes both manual and automated processes. The goal is to ensure that the information gathered is both reliable and comprehensive.

The third section focuses on the results of the analysis. It shows that there is a clear trend in the data, which suggests that the current strategy is effective. However, there are some areas where improvement is needed, particularly in terms of efficiency and cost reduction.

Finally, the document concludes with a series of recommendations for future action. These include implementing new software tools, training staff on best practices, and conducting regular audits to ensure ongoing compliance and accuracy.
