

in testimony of His Majesty's approbation of his services in Candahar, Cabool, and at the capture of the fortress of Ghuznee; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said licence and permission doth not authorise the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 13, 1840.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto William Chute Hayton, of Moreton-court, in the county of Hereford, and of Penlline-castle, in the county of Glamorgan, Esq. Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of Emilia Gwinnet, sometime of Penlline-castle aforesaid, spinster, deceased, henceforth take and use the surname of Gwinnett only, and also bear the arms of Gwinnett; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms; and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.
