TUESDAY, APRIL 6, 1841.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 29, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 22d of April next, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies, who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty :

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place, unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23th day of February 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications; the fourth report of the Commissioners of " Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled " An Act to carry " into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth " report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical " Duties and Revenues " have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme :

" Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Lichfield have duly prepared and submitted to us a plan, for the disposal of the residence-house attached to the sixth canonry in the cathedral church of Lichfield, in the precincts of the said church, which plan has been duly approved by the Visitor of the said church, and is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

‘Whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled “An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,” it was enacted, “that, so soon as conveniently might be, measures should be taken by the deans and chapters of the several cathedral and collegiate churches for the disposal of such residence-houses then under their control, and houses attached to any dignity, office, or prebend, in the precincts of the respective cathedral and collegiate churches as might no longer be required, in such way as they should deem fit, according to plans to be, from time to time, prepared by their respective chapters, and, when approved by the Visitors, submitted to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and confirmed by the authority therein-after provided;” and whereas the house attached to the sixth canonry of the cathedral of Lichfield, in the precincts of the said church, is no longer required, the said canonry being vacant and suspended, under the provisions of the said Act:

‘And whereas the house attached to the fifth canonry of the said cathedral church was, several years ago, deprived of the coach-house belonging thereto, and the site thereof conveyed to trustees for building residences for the widows and orphans of clergymen; and whereas there is no possibility of providing a coach-house on the premises belonging to the said canonry:

‘And whereas formerly the registrar and chapter-clerk of the dean and chapter of the said cathedral church of Lichfield had and enjoyed a house, in the immediate precincts of the cathedral, in right of his said offices, abutting on the north transept thereof; and whereas, in the year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, it was deemed advisable, for the improvement of the close of the said cathedral, as well as for the safety of the said church, to take down the said house, and the same was accordingly taken down but no other residence has ever been provided in lieu thereof, and no pecuniary compensation allowed him, save the sum of eight pounds per annum; and whereas it is highly desirable that the registrar and chapter-clerk of the said church should be constantly resident within the precincts of the same, and there is no other house within the said precincts which can conveniently be appropriated to the residence of such officer, save the house attached to the vacant canonry above mentioned:

‘We, the Dean and Chapter of the said church, have, in pursuance of the said Act, proceeded to take measures for the disposal of the vacant residentiary-house aforesaid, and have agreed to appropriate, in the first instance, a part of the stable-yard belonging thereto, containing thirty-six feet in depth, and about twenty feet in width, to the house attached to the fifth canonry of the said cathedral, and to be used solely for a coach-house by the incumbent of the said canonry; and, in the next place, to appropriate the house and remainder of the premises, from henceforth, as a residence for the officer who, for the time being, shall hold the offices of registrar and chapter-clerk; and we humbly submit such appropriation as the most convenient plan for the disposal of the said house to the Lord Bishop of Lichfield, Visitor of the said church, for the approval of his Lordship, and to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in order that the same may be confirmed, according to the provisions of the Act above mentioned; in witness whereof we have caused our capitular seal to be hereunto affixed this fifteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one.’

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same; and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme:

"Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Worcester have duly prepared and submitted to us a plan, for the disposal of a residence-house attached to a suspended canonry in the cathedral church of Worcester, in the precincts of the said church, which plan has been duly approved by the Visitor of the said church, and is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

Whereas by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," it was enacted, "that, so soon as conveniently might be, measures should be taken by the deans and chapters of the several cathedral and collegiate churches for the disposal of such residence-houses then under their controul, and houses attached to any dignity, office, or prebend, in the precincts of the respective cathedral and collegiate churches as might no longer be required, in such way as they should deem fit, according to plans to be, from time to time, prepared by the respective chapters, and, when approved by the Visitors, submitted to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and confirmed by the authority therein-after provided;" and whereas there is a house, formally attached to one of the prebendal stalls, situate within the precincts of the cathedral church of Worcester, and abutting against the same, which it is very desirable to remove, the said house being a very unsightly object, and dangerous, in case of fire, to the safety of the cathedral; we, therefore, the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church, are desirous that the said house may be taken down, and having obtained the approval of the Lord Bishop of Worcester, as Visitor of the said cathedral church, we humbly submit the said plan to you, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners of England, in order that the same may be confirmed according to the provisions of the Act above mentioned; in witness whereof we have hereunto set our common seal this twenty-third day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Worcester.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods should be imported into, nor should any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America, by sea from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, excepting to or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act contained; and it was thereby provided, that, if His Majesty should deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it should be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports; and that, from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, subject, nevertheless, to the limitations and restrictions thereafter provided, should extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports, respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the before-mentioned provisions of the said Act, respecting such free ports, to the port of San Fernando, in the island of Trinidad:

Now, therefore, under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament, and in exercise of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that from and after the fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, the provisions of the said Act, as far as the same relate to the free ports, respectively, therein mentioned, shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the port of San Fernando, in the island of Trinidad; and that, from and after the said fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act conferred upon the free ports therein mentioned, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures in the said Act contained, subject to the limitations and restrictions therein provided, shall extend to the said port of San Fernando, in the island of Trinidad, as fully and effectually as if such port had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 5th day of February 1841.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of justices within the Metropolitan Police District," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute, within the Metropolitan Police District, so many police court divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and, from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for each of the other divisions; and that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that a police magistrate or magistrates should attend regularly at any police court or courts thereafter to be established, either daily or on such days and times as Her Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, should order.

Her Majesty is, therefore, pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the parishes of Fulham and Kensington (including so much of Brompton as has not been assigned by any Order in Council to the police court called "Queen Square Police Court," and such part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, as adjoins the hamlet of Hammersmith, and also that portion of the parish of Chelsea, commonly called Kensall-green, situate to the north of the said parish of Kensington), the hamlet of Hammersmith, and the parishes of Acton and Chiswick, in the county of Middlesex, shall henceforth be constituted a police court division, and that a police court shall be established for such division to be holden at Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, until the erection of a police court-house at Hammersmith, in the same county; and that immediately upon the completion of such court-house, at Hammersmith, the said police court shall thenceforth be holden therein, at Hammersmith aforesaid.

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the parishes of Wandsworth, Putney, Battersea, Tooting, Merton, Wimbledon, Roehampton, Barnes, and Clapham, together with so much of the parish of Streatham as comprises Upper Tooting and Balham-hill, in the county of Surrey, shall from henceforth be constituted a police court division; and that a police court shall be established for such division, to be holden at Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the magistrates, who shall hereafter be appointed for the said divisions, shall attend daily at such respective courts, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving; and that one of the magistrates, to be appointed as aforesaid, shall attend at the said Kensington Police Court, until the erection of a police court-house as aforesaid, and after the completion thereof at the said Hammersmith Police Court, from ten of the clock in the morning until one of the clock in the afternoon; and that one of the said magistrates shall attend at the said Wandsworth Police Court from two of the clock in the afternoon until five of the clock in the afternoon, and longer, if (in the discretion of the magistrate) it shall be deemed to be necessary for the dispatch of business.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of Her said Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that this Order shall take effect on and from the eighteenth day of February instant.

And the Most Noble the Marquess of Normanby, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 25th day of February 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by certain Acts, passed in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, powers are reserved to Her Majesty to reduce the rates and tolls on foreign ships of countries with which Great Britain has treaties of reciprocity, and on goods imported or exported therein, in manner in the said Acts mentioned;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth, in pursuance and in exercise of the powers and authority in Her vested by the above-mentioned Acts, declare, that the ships of all such foreign powers as have treaties of reciprocity with this country, and the cargoes imported or exported therein, shall be admitted, under the said Acts of Parliament, on paying the like rates of duties and tolls as those charged on British vessels and their cargoes:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.
