

securing the communication of the Garisons of Buda, Agria, and Neuigrad, with that of Newbeufel. Colonel Hufler is ordered to post himself with the Troops under his Command near Neutra, to hinder the Enemy from putting any relief into Newbeufel; which we are assured the design is to besiege formally at the opening of the Campaign. Count Teczeley has received a Summons to repair to Adrianople, to give the Grand Signior personally an account of the present posture of Affairs in Hungary, but he not liking the journey, has answered, That he cannot leave Hungary without ruining his Affairs, and has accompanied his excuse with Presents to the principal Ministers of that Court. The Visier of Buda has sent the Prince of Transylvania, and to the Hospodars of Moldavia and Valachia to supply him with Provisions, of which they are in much want at Buda. The said Visier has offered great rewards to the Christian Peasants, that shall carry any Provisions to Newbeufel.

Frankfort, December 28. The Emperor has given the Dutchy of Fagerisdorf in Silesia, (upon which the Elector of Brandenburg had great pretensions,) to the Duke of Lichtenstein, and he has accordingly done homage for the same to his Imperial Majesty. The Troops in Hungary are very badly accommodated in their Winter-quarters; but all possible care is taken to furnish them with every thing necessary for their subsistence. We do not hear that the States of the Empire assembled at Reisbonne have as yet taken any resolution upon the Memorial of the Imperial Commissioners demanding their assistance against the Turks.

Hamburg, December 29. The Duke of Hanover, we are told, has begun his Journey for Italy, accompanied with one of the Princes his Sons; before his departure he sent a Gentleman to Vienne with his Ratification of the Treaty he hath made with the Emperor for his Troops which are to be commanded by the Prince of Hanover, and under him by Monsieur Charvet, Lieutenant-General of the Forces of the Duke of Zell. They write from Berlin, That the Elector of Brandenburg intends to pass the Winter at Potsdam where an Envoy was arrived from the Elector of Saxony to complement the Electoral Prince and Princess upon their Marriage. There are Letters from Muscow which say that the Prince Wassli Wasilewitz, the Czars chief Minister, had declared that the incursion which the Cossacks and some Troops from Smolensko have lately made into Lithuania was without any order from the Czars, who though they had no reason to be very well satisfied with the Poles, yet would not give them any disturbance while they were engaged in a War against the Turks. The Princes of Lauenburg have desired the Elector of Brandenburg to grant the Troops they are to send to the Emperors Assistance passage through his Territories. The Heer Van Hairen Ambassador from the States General of the United Provinces to the King of Sweden, is arrived at Wismar in a Swedish man of War which brought him from Stockholme.

Cologne, January 2. The Abbot de Morbach, Nephew to the Bishop of Strasbourg, was chosen the 26th past Great Provost of the Cathedral of this City in the place of the Count de Mander- scheydt, who is lately dead. The two Companies of our Electors Troops that have been sometime in G rison here, have orders to march to Bonne. The Commonalty have agreed to a Tax of the hundred penny to defray the charge of putting on foot the 600 men, with which this City is to assist the Emperor. The last Letters from Liege told us that the 16 Chambers have not yet consented to the Subsidies which his Electoral Highness had demanded of them.

Paris, Jan. 10. The Officers which are to serve in the Ships and Gallies that are now sitting out at Toulon and Marseilles, have orders to repair forthwith thither; The Bailly Colbert is made Commander of a Squadron. The King has resolved to increase the number of his Gallies to Thirty six. They write from Rome, that the Pope has made a Fond of 1200 Thousand Crowns which he intends to send to the Emperor to be employed in the preparations for the next Campaign. The Letters from Germany tell us, that the Marriage between the Elector of Bavaria and the Arch-Dutchess the Emperors Daughter is concluded. The King has given the Regiment of Dragoons lately commanded by Monsieur de Noirville (who is made Governor of Canada in America in the place of the Sieur de la Barre) to Monsieur de Marseville.
