Office of the "Mixed British and Portuguese Commission," 94, Mount-Street, Grosvenor-Square, June 26, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the following Rules for the adjudication of the claims of British subjects, who served in the Army or Navy of Her Most Faithful Majesty during the War of Liberation, having been approved by Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and Her Most Faithful Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at this Court, they will be strictly adhered to by the Commission, and are published accordingly for the information and guidance of all claimants, their agents, or representatives.

(Signed) T. H. Barrow, A. Valdez, Joint Secretaries to the Commission.

General Rules for the Reception, Classification, and Adjudication of Claims by the Commissioners forming the "Mixed British and Portuguese Commission," approved by Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and Her Most Faithful Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of St. James's.

PREAMBLE.

The Mixed British and Portuguese Commission appointed by the British and Portuguese Governments, to examine and to decide upon the claims of British subjects who served in the Portuguese Army and Navy, during the late war for the liberation of Portugal, will commence the reception and registry of claims from the 10th day of July 1841.

The following rules will govern the proceedings of the Commission, and are published for the guidance of the claimants.

ARTICLE I.—Contract for Navy.

All officers, non-commissioned officers, sailors and marines who served in Her Most Faithful Majesty's Navy, will base their claims upon the "Sartorius" contract.

ARTICLE II.—Contracts for Army prior to January 8, 1834.

All officers, non-commissioned officers, and soldiers who served in the army, but left it, either voluntarily or compulsorily, before the 8th day of January 1834, will base their claims upon the "Sartorius" Contract, or "Cotter's" Contract.

ARTICLE III.—Contract for those who rejected the "Saavedra" Conditions.

All officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates, who left the service because they would not submit to the "proposals" or new terms (called the "Saavedra" Contract), or who opposed its introduction, and did not in effect serve under it, although detained in the country, will claim under the provisions of the "Sartorius" Contract.

ARTICLE IV.—Conditions for those remaining in the Service after January 1834.

All officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates, who served in the army from or after the 8th of January 1834, and are not included in Articles I and V, are allowed, individually, the option of choosing on which of the two Contracts, ("Sartorius" or "Cotter" or "Saavedra's"), they will found their claims.

ARTICLE V.—Exception to Articles I. II. III IV.

Are excepted from Articles I., II., III., and IV., all those individuals who may have had an especial and formal contract, or who may, voluntarily and of their own accord, have proposed to serve under other and special conditions; provided such propositions shall have been accepted by the Portuguese Government, and any conditions thereto annexed by the party proposing them have been duly fulfilled.

ARTICLE VI.—Object of Claim and Period of Claiming.

The Commission will recognize a claim for whatever rates of pay officers, non commissioned officers, and privates may have been entitled to, for the respective periods they may have remained in the service, as late as November 1835.

ARTICLE VII.—Provision for Claimants detained before Settlement.

The Commission will recognize a claim on the part of officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates for pay, but not for allowances, for any intervening period between the date of their leaving the service, and that of the Portuguese Government tendering a settlement. The Commission, however, will consider the Portuguese Government as having tendered a settlement in every case in which that Government shall have tendered to the claimant, at or near to, or at some time subsequent to, the close of his service, a large sum on account, in one instalment, and either in money or by "Titulo."

ARTICLE VIII.—Exceptions from the Provisions of Article VII.

Are excepted from Article VII.

§ Those who left the Service during the War.

§ 1. Those who left the service during the war, and not on account of the "Saavedra" Contract being proposed. These will be entitled to claim "pay" only to the period and date of their leaving the service.

§ Those who were, themselves, the Cause of Delay.

§ 2. Those, of whom it can be satisfactorily shown, that they, themselves, were the wilful cause of delay, more especially by refusing, or delaying to give, such accounts of public money disbursed by them, as, notwithstanding the circumstances of the service, it ought still to have been within their means to render, and which they were legally and fairly liable to render, according to the rules and regulations of military service; or, by refusing or delaying to give such information as they might be able to give, and which might be reasonably expected and justly required from them:—Provided, always, that it be shown, that such information was formally demanded by competent authority, and that it was within the scope of the duty of such claimants to furnish it.

§ Those who made no formal Application for Settlement.

§ 3. Those who made no formal application for settlement to the Portuguese Government, or to the authorities constituted to receive such application, and to adjudicate upon the claims.

§ The Heirs, or Representatives of those who died.

§ 4. The heirs, or representatives of those who died during the service; who are entitled to claim pay to the date of the disease of the party whose heir or representative they are.

ARTICLE IX.—Conditions for those who continued to serve after November 1835.

Those who continued in the Portuguese service after November 1835, will be considered as entitled only to the pay and allowances of the Portuguese army, unless they can prove that they continued beyond such period under any specific agreement with the Portuguese Government, establishing other terms.

ARTICLE X.—Claims for Prize Money.

Claims will be received for share of prizes made by the squadron, or by any of the ships of Her Most Faithful Majesty.

ARTICLE XI.—For Pensions, &c.

Claims will be received for compensation or pension for wounds received in action; and, if the Commission find the claim well founded, the parties will be examined before the British Army or Navy Medical Board; and the decision of the British Authorities will determine the amount to which each shall be entitled, according to the regulations of the British service. Before such Medical Board shall be granted by the Commission, satisfactory proof must be given of the wound or wounds having been received in action in the service of Her Most Faithful Majesty; and a certificate to that effect from a medical officer of the ship, or regiment, and of the commanding officer, will be required wherever such documents are attainable.

ARTICLE XII.—Claims for Arrears of Pensions.

Claims for arrears of pensions already granted by Her Most Faithful Majesty's Government will be received, provided such pensions shall be decided to be in conformity with the British regulations. This shall apply, alike, to the wounded, and to the widows or heirs of those deceased.

ARTICLE XIII.—Compensation for Delay.

A compensation of 5 per cent. per annum on the amount found due is awarded for delay to claimants, (by the "Minute of Instructions," Article VI.,) to commence from the day on which such claimant ceased to receive pay from the Portuguese Government.

ARTICLE XIV.—Exception to Article XIII. in reference to Provisions of Article VII.

Whereas the Commission, by the decision recorded in Article VII. of these "Rules," has awarded to all claimants, who were detained after their dismissal, before a settlement was offered to them by the Portuguese Authorities—a daily rate of pay for such intervening period; the Commission—(also keeping in view that the 5 per cent. allowed in Article VI. of the "Minute of Instruction," is therein defined to be a "Compensation for delay")—has decided that no claim can be admitted for the 5 per cent. compensation for such intervening period; namely, that elapsing between the time when the claimant left the service, and the time when a settlement was tendered. Neither, after the date of the tender of a settlement, will 5 per cent. be allowed upon the amount of daily pay which thus, by an act of the Commission, is added to the amount of arrears which may be found to have been otherwise due when such settlement was tendered.

ARTICLE XV.—Exceptions to Articles XIII. and XIV.

Are excepted, from the rate of compensation specified in Articles XIII. and XIV., those claimants whose cases are defined by Sections 2 and 4 of Article VIII.

ARTICLE XVI.—British Regulations for 1831-34 in force.

The claims founded upon British regulations shall be calculated according to the regulations in force for the British land and sea forces, in the years 1831, 1832, 1833, 1834.

ARTICLE XVII.—Period of Service for Officers.

The period of service of officers claiming shall commence from the date at which it can be shown that they were employed on duty by competent authority. Provided, always, that if more than one month intervened between the appointment of any officer and his embarkation for Portugal, such officer shall give satisfactory evidence of his having been detained on duty.

ARTICLE XVIII.—Exceptions to Article XVII.

Are excepted from Article XVII.

§ 1. Those who served under "Cotter's" Contract, who, it is therein stipulated, can claim only from the date of their disembarkation.

§ 2. Any officer serving under a special agreement or contract not herein specified, if any clause in such agreement should otherwise define the period of commencing service.

ARTICLE XIX.—Period of Service of Non-Commissioned Officers and Men.

The period of service for all non-commissioned officers and privates (excepting sailors and those engaged in the First Marine Battalion and who joined the fleet) shall commence from the date of their disembarkation in Portugal.

ARTICLE XX.—Form of Claim.

Every officer, non-commissioned officer, private, or sailor, shall present his claim in duplicate, according to the form No. 1, which will be delivered to each claimant on his applying at this office, either personally or by letter. And all documents or supporting vouchers are to be forwarded, together with a fair copy of the same signed by the claimant or his representative, by letter, and to be delivered at the office of the Commission. All letters addressed to the Commission must be pre-paid, or they will not be taken in.

ARTICLE XXI.—Receipt of Claim.

On the delivery of a claim, if in regular form, a receipt will be given for it, on which will be stated the day on which it was received, and the number attached to it on the register of claims.

ARTICLE XXII.—Registry of Claims.

All claims will be entered in the register in the order in which they are received, and they will be successively taken into consideration by the Commission, in that same order.

ARTICLE XXIII.—Days of Registry.

Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays shall be allotted, exclusively, for the registration of claims; and no claim will be registered on any other day. Fridays will be allotted for the delivery of the titulos to the claimants.

ARTICLE XXIV.—Periods for reception of Claims.

The claims of persons residing in London must be sent in within two months from the 10th of July, 1841.

Those of persons resident elsewhere in the United Kingdom, within four months from the same date; those of persons resident in any other part of Europe, within eight months; and those of persons resident in any other part of the world, within twelve months from the above-specified date.

ARTICLE XXV.—Agents.

No agent will be allowed to present more than ten claims for registration on any one day; but, at the end of each of the respective periods of two, four, eight, and twelve months, severally assigned in the next preceding Article, (Article XXIV.), a grace of ten additional days will be allowed for the reception of all claims, not previously registered, of parties residing within the limits to which each of such prescribed periods applies.

ARTICLE XXVI.—Final Limitation of such Periods.

When the periods defined in Article XXIV., and the ten additional days mentioned in Article XXV., shall respectively have elapsed, no additional claims of persons residing within those limits will be registered for adjudication by the Commission.

ARTICLE XXVII.—Evidence before the Commissioners.

The Commission will decide, in each case, whether they will or will not receive viva voce evidence, or explanations from claimants; and, in no case will any claimant or his representative be admitted to a personal interview with the Commission, unless the Commission shall have previously made an appointment with him for that purpose.

ARTICLE XXVIII.—Change of Residence of Claimant or his Agent.

Any change of residence on the part of a claimant or his agent, while his claim is pending before the Commission, must be immediately communicated to the Joint Secretaries to the Commission.

ARTICLE XXIX.—Officers receiving Public Money for Disbursement.

All officers who may have received public money, and have become responsible for the disbursement of such money, by the usages and regulations of military service, will be called upon by the Commission to render a satisfactory account of the application thereof, before their claims shall be taken into consideration, unless they shall have been recognized by the Portuguese Government as having already rendered such an account.

ARTICLE XXX.—Notice to Claimants of Amount found due.

Before the final adjudication of any claim, each claimant or his representative shall receive notice of the amount which the Commission shall have found due, upon the evidence before them, in order that, if such claimant or his agent should conceive that he is entitled to a different award, he or his agent may have an opportunity of stating the grounds upon which such an opinion on their part is founded. The Commission, after due consideration of such grounds, will give their final decision, and will direct their award to be prepared for delivery to the claimant.

ARTICLE XXXI.—Titulos.

A document or titulo will be delivered by the Commission to each claimant, payable to the claimant, or to his order, by such Financial Agent in London as Her Most Faithful Majesty may appoint; in which document the total amount awarded, and the interest which that amount bears, until paid, will be stated.

ARTICLE XXXII.—Minute of Award, and its Grounds.

A minute of the award and of its amount will be entered on the "minutes" of the Commission on the day it is given.

The "award" shall state the different amounts found due, and the grounds of each decision; such award, together with the claim and the various documents appertaining thereto, (or authenticated copies thereof,) made out in duplicate, will be preserved by each Commissioner, for the information of the British and Portuguese Governments.

ARTICLE XXXIII.—Proofs of Identity.

If the claimant be on the spot, he will be required to prove his identity; if he be an officer, by producing his commission, and by otherwise satisfying the Commissioners by such means as may seem to them in each case necessary. Petty officers and sailors, non-commissioned officers and privates, will be required to prove their identity by the presentation of their discharge, or by any other document or certificate of service which may be in their possession, and by a declaration made before a magistrate or justice of the peace, by some respectable householder established in London, attesting his personal knowledge of the claimant, and containing a description of the said claimant's person, (according to the form No. 2, which will be supplied at the office of the Commission on application,) and the Claimants will be required to give such further proof of their identity as the Commission may in each case deem necessary.

ARTICLE XXXIV.—If Absent.

If the claimant cannot appear in person before the Commission, his identity must be substantiated by a declaration to be made before a magistrate or justice of the peace, by two respectable householders residing in the same town or parish with the claimant; and by the certificate of the minister of the parish, or of some municipal or parochial authority of the district, within which the said claimant is residing, which certificate should state that the parties signing it know of their own knowledge that the person making such claim is the person whom he signs himself to be.

The forms containing the particulars referred to in these Articles, will be transmitted from the office to claimants upon application by letter.

ARTICLE XXXV.—Authentic Credentials to be produced by Heirs or Representatives, claiming under Probates of Wills, &c.

The heirs of British subjects who served in Her Most Faithful Majesty's army or navy will be required, if claiming under a will, to produce the probate of such will, or an authenticated copy of the probate; and, in case of intestacy, payment will be made to the personal representative, to whom letters of administration shall have been granted, and on whom the duty of distribution among the next of kin is imposed by such letters of administration.

ARTICLE XXXVI.—Authorities to Agents.

Agents or representatives of claimants must produce an explicit and formal written authority, according to the form No. 3, from the claimant, attested before a magistrate, and giving such agent the necessary powers. The agent will also be required to produce the evidence of identity of the party, indicated in Article XXXIII or XXXIV.

ARTICLE XXXVII.—Authorities given to two Agents by one Claimant.

If two such authorities to act for a claimant are presented by different parties, that bearing the latest date will be acted upon; and the representative, under the former authority, will be made acquainted with the presentation of the more recent authority. A claimant, in person, will take precedence of any party to whom he may have given a power of attorney or other written authority, provided he delivers to the Commission a formal and attested revocation of such power previously given by him to another person, according to the form No. 4.

ARTICLE XXXVIII.—Legal Questions to be referred to the Law Officers.

In the event of any legal question arising in reference to the foregoing points, such question will be referred to the decision of the Law Officers of the Crown.
