

the said William Archbishop of Canterbury shall and may forthwith collate some fit and proper person to the dignity or office of archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Maidstone; and that the right of collating the archdeacon of Maidstone shall be vested in the said archbishop and his successors, archbishops of Canterbury, for ever:

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the said canonry in the said cathedral church so lately held by the Reverend William Wood, and now vacant, shall, immediately upon the foundation of the said archdeaconry of Maidstone, become and be permanently annexed and united thereto; and that the first and every future archdeacon of Maidstone shall, upon being duly collated as such archdeacon, be entitled to installation to the same canonry, and shall be invested with all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of a canon of the same church, and shall hold and enjoy the same so long as he shall remain archdeacon of Maidstone, and no longer :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said diocese and archdeaconries, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts.”

And whereas, previously to laying the said scheme before Her Majesty in Council, notice thereof was given to the Dean and Chapter of the metropolitan church of Christ, Canterbury, and to the Archdeacon of the archdeaconry of Canterbury, and no objection was made thereto :

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.
