TUESDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1844.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of October 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the tenth day of October instant, be further prorogued to Thursday the 12th day of December next.

At the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of October 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Nathaniel Richard Clarke, Esq. and Richard Wildman, Esq., the Barristers appointed by virtue of the Statute of the fifth and sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act to provide for the regulation of municipal corporations in England and Wales," to re-divide and set forth the municipal wards of the city of Lincoln, did, by their report, bearing date the thirty-first day of August last, determine and set forth afresh the extent, limits, and boundary lines of the wards into which it was expedient that the said city should be re-divided; and did also by their said report re-assign Councillors to each of the said wards respectively :

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the third day of September last, the proposed alterations and re-division of the said wards, and of the number of Councillors assigned to each respectively, as set forth and recommended in the report of the said Barristers, were approved, and it was also ordered that the same should be published in the London Gazette accordingly :

And whereas the said Order in Council was subsequently duly published in the London Gazette :

And whereas the re-division of the said wards and re-assignment of Councillors thereto have not yet been carried into effect :

And whereas it is expedient that all proceedings under and by virtue of the said Order in Council should be further postponed; and for that purpose it is necessary that the said Order in Council approving the recommendation of the said Commissioners should be revoked :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby revoke and annul the said Order in Council of the third day of September last, approving the proposed alteration and re-division of the said wards, and of the number of Councillors re-assigned to each respectively, as set forth and recommended in the above mentioned report of the said Barristers, and doth order this notice of such revocation to be published in the London Gazette accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of October 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England and Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county palatine of Lancaster, in general session of the peace, held, by adjournment, at Kirkdale, in the said county, on the seventeenth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and, therefore, praying that the towns of Southport and Saint Hellens may be polling places for the said southern division of the county of Lancaster :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said places named in the said petition, namely, the towns of Southport and Saint Hellens shall be polling places for the southern division of the said county palatine of Lancaster; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county of Lancaster, assembled at the general quarter sessions, or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said southern division of the said county of Lancaster in convenient polling places, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 7th day of October 1844,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Gloucester, at a general quarter session of the peace held in Gloucester, in and for the said county, on Tuesday the second day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing, that the number of polling places for the western division of the said county is insufficient, and, therefore, praying that the village of Alvington, in the parish of Alvington, situate within the said western division, may be a polling place for that division:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said place named in the said petition, namely, the village of Alvington, in the parish of Alvington, shall be a polling place for the western division of the said county of Gloucester; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county of Gloucester, assembled at the general quarter sessions or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said western division of the said county of Gloucester into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Windsor-Castle, October, 1844.

The following Addresses having been transmitted for presentation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, the same were presented accordingly; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Warwick, in Council assembled, Her Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, desire most respectfully to approach your Royal Highness with our heartfelt congratulations on Her Majesty's safe delivery, and the auspicious event of the birth of a Prince.

We acknowledge with gratitude the mercy of Divine Providence in granting to your Royal Highness so abundant a share of domestic bliss; and we earnestly pray that your Royal Highness may long continue in health, prosperity, and happiness, to be an ornament to these realms.

Given under our common seal at the Courthouse, in the borough of Warwick, the 13th day of August, in the year of our Lord, 1844.

Philip Wm. Newsam, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness Prince ALBERT.

WE, the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, Councillors, and Inhabitants of the town and borough of Guildford, in the county of Surrey, assembled at a public meeting held this 22d day of August 1844, which was convened by the Mayor, pursuant to a requisition for that purpose, beg to offer your Royal Highness our hearty congratulations on her Majesty's recent safe delivery, and the birth of another Prince.

We trust that it may please Almighty God to uphold this Scion of the illustrious House of Brunswick by his gracious Providence, that in his future years he may be regarded with affection and veneration by every inhabitant of these realms, and that his name may be known throughout the world only to be honoured, admired, and blessed.

This Address is signed by me, on behalf of the meeting, as directed by a resolution of the meeting,

Cussteels Cooper, Mayor.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE ALBERT of Saxe Coburg and Gotha.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Lichfield, in Council assembled, on the 12th day of August, in the year of our Lord 1844.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the city of Lichfield, desire to offer to your Royal Highness our cordial and heartfelt congratulations that it has again pleased Almighty God to give a safe deliverance to our blessed Sovereign from the perils of child-birth.

We are deeply sensible of the blessings this event is calculated to bestow upon our country, and earnestly hope that whilst your ancestral dignities and virtues shine conspicuously in your Royal Offspring, the domestic happiness of yourself and your beloved Consort may be amply extended and securely established.

By the Council,

Thomas George Lomax, Mayor.

Office of the Poor Law Commission, Somerset-House, October 7, 1844.

THIS is to give notice, that the Poor Law Commissioners did, on the 24th day of September last, in pursuance of the powers given to them by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, and with the consent of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and with the approval of the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, appoint Samuel Hitch, Esq. a Doctor in Medicine, to be an Assistant Commissioner, for the period of twenty days from the 11th day of October 1844, for the purpose of inquiring specially into the condition and treatment of the lunatic inmates of the workhouses at Birmingham and Leicester:

And that the said Samuel Hitch did, on the 26th day of September last, take the oath required by the said Act, before the Honourable Mr. Justice Wightman, one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, at St. Alban's-bank, Hampton, in the county of Middlesex.

Edwin Chadwick, Secretary.

Metropolitan Buildings.

*Office of Woods and Works, Whitehall,
October 4, 1844.*

The Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods, Forests, Land Revenues, Works, and Buildings, hereby give notice, that they have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act for regulating the construction and the use of buildings in the metropolis and its neighbourhood," appointed Sir Robert Smirke, Knt. James Pennethorne, Esq. and Thomas Cubitt, Esq. to constitute, with the Official Referees appointed under the said Act, a Board, for the examination of any persons who may present themselves for the purpose of obtaining a certificate of qualification for the office of District Surveyor, within the limits of the said Act; and that all communications for the said Examiners are to be addressed to the Registrar of Metropolitan Buildings, at his Office, No. 8, Trafalgar-square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Company, styled the Trust and Loan Company of Upper Canada, has applied, by petition to Her Majesty in Council, for a charter of incorporation; and that such petition, together with a copy of the proposed charter, has been referred to the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations.
