Whitehal, June 13.

THis Morning His Majesty received an account by an Express from the Mayor of Lyme. That on Thursday last there appeared three Ships off of that place, and that about seven in the Evening the Duke of Monmouth Landed with about 150 Men, and entering the said Town, possessed himself of the same, sending some of his Traiterous Complices into the Neighbouring Counties to incite the People to an open Rebellion against His Majesty. Whereupon His Majesty caused His Privy Council to assemble; And ordered the following Proclamation to be published.

JAMES R.
WHereas We have received Certain Information, That James Duke of Monmouth, Ford late Lord Gray Outlawed for High Treason, with divers other Traytors and Outlaws, are lately Landed in an Hostile manner at Lyme, in Our County of Dorset, And have Possessed themselves of Our said Town of Lyme. And have sent and dispersed some of their Trayterous Complices into the Neighbouring Countries to Incite them to Joyn in open Rebellion against Us.

We do hereby, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, Declare and Publish the said James Duke of Monmouth, and all his Complices, Adherents, Abettors, and Advisers, Traitors and Rebels; And do Command and Require all Our Lieutenants, Deputy-Lieutenants, Sheriffs, Justices of the Peace, Mayors, Bayliffs, and all other Our Officers, Civil and Military, to use their utmost endeavours to Seize and Apprehend the said James Duke of Monmouth, Ford late Lord Gray, and all their said Confederates and Adherents; And all and every other Person and Persons that shall be Aiding or Abetting the aforesaid Traitors and Rebels; And the said Persons, and every of them to Secure until Our further Pleasure be known, as they will answer the contrary at their utmost Peril.

Given at Our Court at Whitehal this Thirteenth day of June 1685. And in the First year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

And His Majesty having been pleased to Communicate the said Intelligence to both His Houses of Parliament, They immediately resolved to make the following Addresses to His Majesty, with which they severally attended His Majesty in the Banqueting House at Whitehal.

The Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled.

His Majesty having been Graciously pleased to impart to this House that he hath this Morning received Intelligence that the Duke of Monmouth and divers other his Adherents in Hostile manner, have Landed at Lyme in Dorsetshire, and taken possession of the said Town, This House doth therefore Resolve to wait on His Majesty to give him their humble thanks for his favour in imparting the said Intelligence to this House, and humbly offer to assist and stand by His Majesty with their Lives and Fortunes against the said Duke of Monmouth, and all Rebels and Traytors, and all other His Enemies whatsoever.

The Address of the House of Commons.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesties most Loyal Subjects, the Commons of England in Parliament assembled, Do with all Duty return our most humble and hearty Thanks for your Majesties Gracious Message, Communicated to us by the Earl of Middleton, one of your Majesties Principal Secretaries of State, of the Invading this your Kingdom by that Ingrateful Rebel James Duke of Monmouth, and do with all Duty and Loyalty and utter Detestation of such Rebels and Traytors, assure your Majesty, That we are, and always shall be ready to stand by and assist your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes, against the said James Duke of Monmouth, his Adherents and Correspondents, and all Rebels and Traytors, and all others whatsoever, that shall assist them or any of them.

And since the preservation of your Majesties Person is of the highest concern to the Peace and Happiness of this Kingdom, We your most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, Do most humbly beseech your Majesty to take more than Ordinary care of your Royal Person, which we beseech God long to preserve.

Edinburg, June 9. Since our last we have received Intelligence that the late Earl of Argile, upon the Arrival of his Majesties Ships, hath quitted the Isle of Boot, and is gone over to Cowal, one of the divisions of Argileshire, having first destroyed the Sheriff of Boot's Estate, burnt his House, and taken away his Furniture. He has brought his Ships and Boats into Loch sine towards Inveraray, where the Marquis of Athol and the Earl of Braed Albin were then lying with a considerable Body of Men; And we daily expect to hear of Action between them and the Rebels, unless these shall avoid fighting by waiving over from one side of the Loch to the other, where nevertheless they are now blockt up by his Majesties Ships lying in the mouth of the Loch. The three Scotch Regiments, that were in the service of the States General of the United Provinces are daily expected here from Holland.

Vienna, June 3. We have an account by an Officer arrived this day from Hungary that the Luxemburg Troops are on their March to joyn the Imperial Forces, which block up Newbeusel under the Command of Colonel Heusler and Count Rassi; And that a Party of the Garison of Gran hath taken a Turk in the disguise of an Hungarian Peasano who was going with Letters from the Pasha of Newbeusel to the Visier of Buda, to let him know the extremity they were reduced to; That the Garison deserted daily, and that those that remained would be forced in few dayes to capitulate. We have likewise advice that the Turks who were drawn together between Pest and Vaccia were retired, and that they had sent the provisions designed for the relief of Newbeusel to Buda fearing they should be attacked by the Imperialists if they staid there. The 28th past a Regiment of Cuirassiers which the Elector of Cologne has given the Emperor arrived in the Neighborhood of this City; And the same day arrived here an Express to give the Emperor an account that the 6000 Men which his Electoral Highness sends to his assistance
