FRIDAY, AUGUST 1, 1845.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of June 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws respecting the office of county coroner," it is enacted, that, when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts, for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it should be lawful for the said justices, in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying, that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the coroner or coroners of such county as thereafter provided; and it is thereby further enacted, that the clerk of the peace should give notice of any such resolution to every coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition would be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices should confer with every such coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose, touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of that Act; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, should be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and the clerk of the peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every coroner for such county; and it is further enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, if she should think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition which might be presented to Her by any coroner of the same county, concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it should seem fit to Her

Majesty, to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorising the election of an additional coroner above the number of those who had been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county should be divided into such and so many districts, for the purposes of that Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within such district the court for the election of coroner for such district should be holden, as hereinafter provided; and every such Order should be published in the London Gazette :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Hereford, in general quarter sessions assembled, at the Shire-hall, in the city of Hereford, in and for the said county, on the thirtieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, did resolve, that a humble petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying for such division or alteration as hereinafter mentioned, and did adjourn the further consideration thereof to the general quarter sessions of the peace, held at the Shire-hall, in Hereford, in and for the county of Hereford, on the seventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, due notice thereof having been given to all the coroners of the said county; and three of the justices attending such general quarter sessions did thereby certify, under their hands and seals, that such petition was agreed to; and whereas the said justices have since presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing,

“ That whereas it seemed expedient to the justices of the said county, that the said county should be divided into two districts, for the purposes of the Act, intituled “ An Act to amend the law respecting the office of county coroner;” and the said justices did, in quarter sessions assembled, on Monday the thirtieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, resolve, that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying, that such division be made, and did thereupon adjourn the further consideration of such petition to the quarter sessions to be holden on Monday the seventh day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-five; and whereas due notice of such resolution was given by the clerk of the peace to the two coroners for the said county; the said justices having conferred with the said coroners, and having had due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, and the nature of their employment, and because, in the event of a contested election for the office of coroner, very considerable expence will be saved to the candidates, also a considerable saving will be afforded to the county in the travelling expences of the coroners and constables, or other persons giving notice to coroners of deaths, and because favoritism or partiality in selecting the coroner to whom notices of death are given will be prevented, thereby confirmed the resolution passed on the thirtieth day of December one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and humbly petitioned Her Majesty that the said county may be divided into the two following districts, viz:

“ The first, to be called the Hereford District, containing the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places thereunto adjoining, hereinafter named, all of which lie to the south part of the said county, and contain, according to the census taken in one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, about two hundred and seventy-five thousand square acres, and fifty-four thousand inhabitants, who are chiefly employed in agriculture :

“ The other district, to be called the Leominster District, containing the parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places thereunto adjoining, hereinafter named, all of which lie to the northern part of the said county, and contain about two hundred and sixty thousand square acres, and forty-eight thousand inhabitants, who are chiefly employed in agriculture :

“ And therefore praying, that the court for the election of coroner for the Hereford District may be holden at the Shire-hall, in Hereford, and the court for the election of coroner for the Leominster District may be holden at Leominster; and they did thereby assign the Hereford District to Thomas Evans, Gentleman, one of the persons then holding the office of coroner for the said county, and the Leominster District to Nicholas Lanwarne, Gentleman, the other person then holding the office of coroner for the said county.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of June 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners

" of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to make " better provision for the spiritual care of " populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An " Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners " of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to make " better provision for the spiritual care of " populous parishes," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for ratifying and carrying into effect a certain agreement made between us and Sir Gilbert Heathcote, of Normanton, in the county of Rutland, Baronet.

" Whereas, upon and by reason of the vacancy, on the thirteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, of the prebend of Empingham, founded in the cathedral church of Lincoln, and under and by virtue of the provisions of the said first recited Act, the whole of the lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments belonging to and forming the endowment of the the said prebend, became vested in us for the purposes of the same Act :

" And whereas it is by the said secondly recited Act enacted, that, notwithstanding the charge thereby created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like rights and powers of ownership, as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, and other hereditaments vested, and liable to be vested, in us by or under the provisions of the said recited Acts

(including the Act first herein recited), and may, subject to such provisions now in recital, be exercised by us, by proper instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, but in the case of any such lands, tithes, rent charges, and other hereditaments not actually in our possession, with the consent of the respective owners thereof, testified by their being made parties to such instruments; and that the consent of the said Governors (being the said Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne) shall not be in any case required to the exercise by us of any such rights and powers as aforesaid notwithstanding such charge; provided that no such lands, tithes, tenements, or hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed except by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying such scheme :

Wm. L. Bathurst:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of June 1845,

PRESENT,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling ecclesiastical corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years;" duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling ecclesiastical corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years;" have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, relating to certain leases of mines by the Chancellor of the cathedral church of Saint Peter, in Exeter.

"Whereas we prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of August in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, whereby after reciting, among other things, that by an indenture of lease, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, to the purport and effect therein recited, and also reciting an agreement and certain terms and conditions upon which, under the provisions of the said hereinbefore recited Act, it had been agreed that the said indenture of lease should be surrendered, we humbly recommended and proposed that, until any two of the lives named in the said lease should have dropped, one fourth part of the whole of the net reservation or reservations to be made payable under any new lease or leases so to be granted therein as aforesaid, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, should be, by and under such leases, made payable, and should be paid to the parties beneficially interested in and under the existing lease therein recited as aforesaid :

"And whereas we further recommended and proposed, that nothing in the said scheme contained should prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters therein contained, or any of them :

"And whereas the said scheme was duly ratified by an Order of your Majesty in Council on the third day of September last, and the said Order has been since duly gazetted:

"And whereas the said indenture of lease of the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, is erroneously stated to be to the purport and effect recited in the said hereinbefore recited scheme of the sixth day of August last, and such recitals should have been in the terms following, that is to say, that by a certain indenture of lease of the twenty-eighth day of June one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and made between the Reverend Joseph Holden Pott, Clerk, Chancellor of the cathedral church of Saint Peter aforesaid, of the one part, and Humphry Waldo Sibthorp and Richard Ellison, of the other part; certain lands, hereditaments, and premises, situate, lying, and being in the parish of Newlyn, in the county of Cornwall, were demised to the said Humphry Waldo Sibthorp and Richard Ellison, their heirs and assigns, for and during the natural lives of Catherine Sophia Countess de Cadignan, Mary Esther Hawkins, and Christopher Henry Thomas Hawkins, therein described, and for and during the life or lives of any or either of them longest living, under the yearly rents, covenants, and conditions therein contained; and in the said indenture is contained a proviso, that notwithstanding the grant and demise thereby made, it should be lawful for the said Joseph Holden Pott and his successors, from and after the decease of the survivor of them the said Catherine Sophia Countess de Cadignan and Mary Esther Hawkins, but not before, to enter into and upon the said demised premises, or any part thereof; and to search for, dig, raise, work, and carry away the mines, metals, and minerals which might therein be found, upon the terms and in manner in the said lease more particularly mentioned:

“And whereas the said Humphry Waldo Sibthorp and Richard Ellison are unable to surrender their interest in the said hereinbefore recited lease upon the terms and conditions so recommended and proposed by us as aforesaid, but have consented and agreed to make such surrender in consideration of their receiving one fourth part of the rents, royalty, or other consideration reserved in any such new or other lease for and during the lives of the said Catherine Sophia Countess de Cadignan and Mary Esther Hawkins, and the life of the longer liver of them:

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that such part and so much of the said hereinbefore recited scheme as recommends and proposes that, until any two of the lives aforesaid shall have dropped, one fourth part of the whole net reservation or reservations shall be paid as therein mentioned, shall be rescinded, and in lieu and substitution thereof, that, until after the death of the survivor of them the said Catherine Sophia Countess de Cadignan and Mary Esther Hawkins, one fourth part of the whole of the net reservation or reservations to be made payable under any new lease or leases so to be granted as in the said recited scheme mentioned, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall be by and under such lease or leases made payable, and shall be paid to the said Humphry Waldo Sibthorp and Richard Ellison, their heirs and assigns.

“And we further recommend and propose, that this present and the hereinbefore recited scheme shall be taken and construed together as if they were one and the same scheme, and that, except as far as the said hereinbefore recited scheme is hereby varied, the same shall have full force and effect, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.”

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Chancellor of the cathedral church of Exeter, and no objection has been made thereto:

No. 20493.

B

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of June 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say:

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Astbury, in the county and diocese of Chester.

“Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council, that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as hereinafter provided :

“ And whereas the said parish of Astbury is of great extent, and contains a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter-mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth :

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bird Bishop of Chester, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Astbury described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “ The District of Saint Stephen, Congleton.”

“ And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of June 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to make better provision for “ the spiritual care of populous parishes,” duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the tenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act “ to make better provision for the spiritual care “ of populous parishes,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Glossop, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, that if at any time it shall be made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it shall be lawful, by the authority in the same Act provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council, ratifying such scheme), with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it is by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district shall be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district, out of which it is recommended that any such district, or any part thereof, should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, may have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district; and that such scheme shall not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy shall have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons shall, in the meantime, consent to the same; and it is by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we shall recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, shall be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds; and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same shall be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as thereafter provided:

“And whereas the said parish of Glossop, and the chapelry of Mellor, in the said parish, are, respectively, of great extent, and contain a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof; and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion, that the particular part of such parish hereinafter mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth:

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lichfield, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Glossop described in the schedule hereunto annexed,—all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth in the map or plan hereunto also annexed,—shall be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly; and that the same shall be named, “The District of Charlesworth.”

“And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the said Act, the sum of one hundred pounds; and upon any building within such district, being duly licensed by the bishop of the diocese for the performance of divine service, according to the same Act, there shall be paid by us, in like manner, to such minister, the further sum of thirty pounds, making in the whole the sum of one hundred and thirty pounds; and that so soon as any church or chapel within such district shall have been duly approved by us, and consecrated as the church or chapel of such district, for the use and service of the minister and inhabitants thereof, and such district shall have thereupon become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, to the perpetual curate for the time being of such new parish, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the said sum of one hundred pounds, one hundred and thirty pounds, or one hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, shall be paid by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the licence of such minister or of such building, or of the consecration of such church or chapel as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish.

“And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament.

“ SCHEDULE.

“All that part of the parish of Glossop, in the county of Derby, and in the diocese of Lichfield, comprised within the townships of Charlesworth, Simondley, and Chisworth; the last-mentioned township being in the chapelry of Mellor, in the said parish of Glossop.”

And whereas the draft of the said scheme has been transmitted to the incumbents and to the patrons of the church of the parish and of the church or chapel of the chapelry out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act; and one calendar month has expired since such draft was so transmitted, and no objections have been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.

That those Captains, who shall be at present, or who shall come in turn to be, on the Half-pay List of 14s. 6d. a day, and shall be above the aforesaid ages, may be placed on the Retired List at £1 a day, with the designation of Rear-Admiral, and their widows to be entitled to pensions of £120 a year.

Those Captains, who shall be now on the Half-pay List of 10s. 6d. a day, may be placed on the Retired List at 16s. a day, to be increased to the foregoing scales and advantages as they would have respectively come in turn to have received the higher rates of Half-pay aforesaid on the Effective List; and in the event of their death while on this 16s.
