AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of August 1845,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, in the words following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled " An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state " of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for carrying into effect certain alterations in the several dioceses of Canterbury, London, Winchester, Chichester, Lincoln, and Rochester; and for providing a competent income and a fit house of residence for the Bishops of Rochester.

" Whereas it was by the said first-recited Act provided, that the diocese of Canterbury should consist of the county of Kent (except the city and deanry of Rochester, and the parishes in the same Act and hereinafter proposed to be included in the diocese of London), and of the parishes of Croydon and Addington, and of the district of Lambeth Palace, in the county of Surrey; and that the diocese of London should consist of the city of London and of the county of Middlesex, and of certain parishes in the county of Essex, all in the present diocese of London, of certain other parishes in the counties of Kent and Surrey, then and now in the diocese of Rochester, of the borough of Southwark, and of certain other parishes in the said county of Surrey, then and now in the diocese of Winchester, and of certain other parishes in the same county, then and now in the peculiar jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, all which several parishes are in the same Act, and hereinafter particularly named, together with all extra-parochial places locally situate within the limits of such several parishes, except the aforesaid district of Lambeth Palace, and that the diocese of Rochester should consist of the city and deanry of Rochester, of the county of Essex (except the parishes so as aforesaid proposed to be left in the diocese of London), and of the whole county of Hertford; and that such variations should be made in the proposed boundaries of the different dioceses as might appear advisable, after more precise information respecting the circumstances of particular parishes and districts; and that a fit residence should be provided for the Bishops of Rochester, and that for that purpose sanction should be given for the purchase of houses or lands, or for the sale of lands belonging to the see; and that archidiaconal power should be given to the Dean of Rochester within that part of Kent which would remain in the diocese of Rochester, and that the limits of the other existing deanries and archdeacons should be newly arranged, so that every parish and extra-parochial place should be within a rural deanry, and every such deanry within an archdeaconry, and that no archdeaconry should extend beyond the limits of one diocese; and that all the archdeacons of England should be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate; and that it should be competent to us to propose, in any scheme prepared and laid before your Majesty in Council under the provisions of the same Act, that all parishes, churches, or chapelries locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same were locally situate, should be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which the same were locally situate:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William Archbishop of Canterbury, the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Bishop of London, the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester, the Right Reverend John Bishop of Lincoln, and the Right Reverend George Bishop of Rochester, respectively, in testimony whereof they have severally signed and sealed this scheme, that upon and after the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, so much of the county of Kent as is now in the diocese and archdeaconry of Rochester (except the city and deanry of Rochester) shall be detached and dissevered from the said diocese and archdeaconry, and shall (except the several parishes and places hereinafter proposed to be transferred to the diocese of London) be included in and form part of the said diocese of Canterbury, and, until further or other Order of your Majesty in Council, be included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Maidstone; and the several parishes of Charlton, Lee, Lewisham, Greenwich, Woolwich, Eltham, Plumstead, and Saint Nicholas Deptford, in the county of Kent, and Saint Paul Deptford, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, all now in the said diocese and archdeaconry of Rochester, and the several parishes of Saint Mary Newington, Barnes, Putney, Mortlake, and Wimbledon, in the said county of Surrey, and in the peculiar jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, shall be detached and dissevered from the said diocese of Rochester, and from the said peculiar jurisdiction respectively, and shall be included in and form part of the said diocese of London, and, until further or other Order as aforesaid, be included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Middlesex; and the whole county of Essex now in the said diocese of London (except the parishes of Barking, Great Ilford, East Ham, West Ham, Little Ilford, Low Layton, Walthamstow, Wanstead, Woodford, and Chingford, which ten last-mentioned parishes shall remain in the same diocese, and shall, until further or other Order as aforesaid, be included in and form part of the archdeaconry of London), and the whole county of Hertford, now partly in the same diocese and partly in the said diocese of Lincoln, shall be detached and dissevered from the said two last-mentioned dioceses, and shall be included in and form part of the said diocese of Rochester; and so much and such parts of that portion of the said county of Essex so as aforesaid proposed to be transferred to the said diocese of Rochester, as now form part of the said archdeaconry of Middlesex, shall be detached from the same archdeaconry, and shall, until further or other Order as aforesaid, be included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Colchester so far as applies to the deanry of Heddingham, and in and of the archdeaconry of Essex so far as applies to the deanries of Harlow and Dunmow; and so much and such parts of the said county of Hertford as now form part of the said archdeaconry of Middlesex, and all parishes and places in the same county, over which the jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Huntingdon at present extends, shall be transferred to and included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Saint Albans; and all parishes and places in the county of Buckingham, over which the jurisdiction of the Archdeacon of Saint Albans at present extends, shall be transferred to and included in and form part of the archdeaconry of Buckingham; and the parish of Addington, in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Winchester, shall be detached and dissevered from the same diocese, and shall, together with the parish of Croydon in the same county and in the peculiar jurisdiction of the Archbishop of Canterbury, be included in and form part of the diocese of Canterbury, and both the said last-mentioned parishes shall be included in and form part of the said archdeaconry of Maidstone; and that, from and after the next avoidance of the see of Winchester, the borough of Southwark, and the parishes of Christchurch Southwark, Battersea, Bermondsey, Camberwell, Clapham, Lambeth, Rotherhithe, Streatham, Tooting Graveney, Wandsworth, and Merton, in the said county of Surrey and diocese of Winchester, shall be detached and dissevered from the same diocese, and shall be included in and form part of the said diocese of London, and, until further or other Order as aforesaid, be included in and form part of the said archdeaconry of Middlesex.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, upon and after the same first day of January, all parishes and places locally situate within the limits of the said several dioceses of Canterbury, London, Winchester, Chichester, Lincoln, and Rochester, and of the several archdeaconries thereof respectively, and all churches and chapels, and the whole clergy, and others your Majesty's subjects, locally situate within the limits of such parishes and places respectively, shall, notwithstanding any peculiar jurisdiction or exemption from jurisdiction, which any of such parishes, places, churches, chapels, or clergy may now possess or be subject to, or claim to possess or be subject to, be respectively under and subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the bishops of the said several dioceses, and of the archdeacons of the several archdeaconries of such several dioceses, within the limits of which several dioceses and archdeaconries they shall respectively be so locally situate, and to no other ecclesiastical jurisdiction whatsoever; except the cathedral churches of and within the said several dioceses, and the royal residences and the churches or chapels founded therein or annexed thereto, including the collegiate church of Saint Peter, Westminster, which shall respectively be subject to the jurisdiction and visitation, if any, to which they are now, by law respectively subject, and to none other; and, with the like exceptions, all and each of such parishes, places, churches, and chapels, so possessing or being subject to or claiming to possess or be subject to any such peculiar jurisdiction or exemption from jurisdiction, shall severally and respectively be included in and form part of the dioceses and archdeaconries respectively within the limits of which they shall respectively be so locally situate.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the right of appointing the several archdeacons of Essex, Colchester, and Saint Albans shall, upon the same first day of January, be transferred from the said Bishop of London and his successors, and shall be vested in the said Bishop of Rochester and his successors for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, upon the now next avoidance of the archdeaconry of Rochester, the said archdeaconry shall be suppressed, and the canonry in the cathedral church of Rochester annexed thereto shall become and be subject to the provisions respecting the endowment of archdeaconries by the annexation of canonries thereto, contained in an Act, passed in session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled “ An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, “ the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;” and the then dean of Rochester, if the deanery of the cathedral church of Rochester shall have become previously vacant, and if otherwise the next succeeding dean of Rochester, and every future dean of Rochester, for the time being, shall have the full and exclusive jurisdiction and authority of an archdeacon, within and over the whole city and deanery of Rochester, and all parishes and places, churches and chapels, and the rural dean and the whole clergy and others your Majesty's subjects locally situate within the limits of the said city and deanery.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, if the said archdeaconry of Rochester shall become vacant before the same first day of January, or before a vacancy shall have occurred in the said deanery of the cathedral church of Rochester, it shall be competent to us to recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council some temporary arrangement, respecting the archidiaconal jurisdiction to be exercised within and over the whole of the existing archdeaconry of Rochester,—or within and over such portion thereof as is herein proposed to be, upon and after the same first day of January, transferred to the said diocese of Canterbury and archdeaconry of Maidstone,—or within and over the said city and deanery of Rochester, as the case may be.

“ And whereas it was by the said first-recited Act provided, that, out of the fund accruing from payments to be made to us from the revenues of the larger sees, fixed annual payments should be made by us, in such instances and to such amount as should upon due inquiry and consideration be determined on, so that the average annual income of the bishops of the smaller bishopricks respectively should be not less than four thousand pounds, nor more than five thousand pounds;

“ And whereas upon due inquiry and consideration we have satisfied ourselves, that the present average annual income of the said see of Rochester does not exceed the sum of one thousand two hundred and fifty pounds; and the said George Bishop of Rochester has declared to us his intention, not to continue to hold any other preferment besides the bishoprick of Rochester, after the thirty-first day of December next; and we are of opinion that the average annual income of the bishops of Rochester ought to be five thousand pounds:

“ We, therefore, further recommend and propose, that, from and after the last-mentioned day and upon the said bishop ceasing to hold any other preferment as aforesaid, the average annual income of the bishop of Rochester for the time being shall be raised to the sum of five thousand pounds; as near as may be; and that to this end there shall be paid by us to the said George Bishop of Rochester, and his successors bishops of Rochester for the time being, out of such moneys as shall from time to time be standing to our credit and account in the Bank of England, being part of payments from the larger sees respectively towards the augmentation of the incomes of the bishops of the smaller sees, the fixed annual sum of three thousand seven hundred and fifty pounds, by equal half-yearly payments; the first of such payment to be made on the first day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-six; and that

Whenever thereafter a vacancy in the said see of Rochester shall happen on any other day than the first day of January or the first day of July, the next half-yearly payment shall be duly apportioned and paid between and to the bishop making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the bishop succeeding to the said see:

“ And whereas the amount of the moneys from time to time applicable to the purposes aforesaid, and to the augmentation of any other of the smaller sees, will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the larger sees from which payments are hereafter to be made towards such purposes; and the amount of the demands upon such moneys will depend on the contingency of vacancies occurring among the said smaller sees; and it may therefore happen that the demands upon such moneys may for a time exceed the amount thereof: we further recommend and propose, that if at the commencement of any half year, calculated from the first day of January to the last day of June, and from the first day of July to the last day of December respectively, it shall appear to us that there will, in the current half year, be a deficiency of the said moneys to pay the sums then charged thereon, and payable in the same half year, it shall be lawful for us to resolve that a deduction be made from the sum so payable in the same half year to the Bishop of Rochester for the time being, and from any sums payable to the respective bishops of other smaller sees, by virtue of any other scheme prepared or to be prepared by us, and of any Order or Orders of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, so as to keep the sums to be paid during the same half year within the amount of the moneys applicable as aforesaid during such half year, and to calculate such deduction in proportion to the sums which have been or may be named in this and any such other scheme, as the future annual average incomes of the said sees respectively; and that upon the amount of every such deduction being certified by us or by our treasurer to the bishop to be affected thereby within fourteen days after the commencement of such half year, such bishop shall have no immediate claim to any greater sum than the residue of such his half-yearly payment after such deduction as aforesaid, nor any future claim, except as is hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, that so soon thereafter as the sums to be paid to us in any half year applicable to the purposes aforesaid shall exceed the sums to be paid by us for those purposes within the same half year, we shall be authorised and bound to divide the surplus, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, rateably among the bishops from whose payments such deductions shall have been so made, or their representatives, and so from half year to half year, until the whole sums deducted shall be paid; the deductions of one half year to be paid before any payment shall be made on account of the deductions of any subsequent half year.

“ And whereas we have, in conjunction with the said George Bishop of Rochester, contracted for the purchase, at and for the price or sum of twenty-four thousand seven hundred pounds, of an estate situate partly in the parish of Danbury and partly in the parish of Sandon, in the county of Essex, with a house, offices, and out-buildings thereon and forming part of the said estate, which will, according to our foregoing recommendations, be within the diocese of Rochester; and will afford a fit and convenient residence for the bishops of the said see: we, therefore, further recommend and propose, that the said George Bishop of Rochester, or his successor bishop of Rochester, may be authorised and empowered to purchase and take a conveyance of the said estate to him and his successors bishops of Rochester for ever, at and for the price or sum aforesaid, and that the said amount of purchase money, and also such further sum of money, if any, as may be deemed necessary by us for putting the said house and premises in complete tenantable condition, shall be raised and paid in manner hereinafter mentioned.

And whereas the house of residence heretofore and now occupied by the said bishop of Rochester, in the parish of Bromley, in the said county of Kent, will no longer be situate within the limits of the said diocese of Rochester, and it will therefore be necessary to dispose thereof; and in order to complete the purchase aforesaid, it will be necessary at the same time to dispose of other property belonging to the same see in the same parish; we therefore further recommend and propose, that the said bishop or his successors may be authorised and empowered, with our consent signified under our common seal in the case of each particular sale, to sell and dispose of, in such manner and for such prices and sums respectively as shall upon due inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, and duly to convey to the purchaser or respective purchasers thereof, all the right, title, and interest of him the said bishop and his successors bishops of Rochester in and to all or any of the manors, lands, tenements, and hereditaments belonging to the said see of Rochester, situate within the said parish of Bromley; and that the proceeds of every such sale shall from time to time be paid by each purchaser into the Bank of England, to our credit, to an account intituled “Account with the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” to be by us applied as hereinafter recommended and proposed; and that any such purchaser, taking a conveyance with our consent signified as aforesaid, after paying his purchase money to our credit as aforesaid, shall not be responsible for, or be bound to look to, the due application of such money; and that the proceeds of every such sale shall and may, from time to time, be applied by us, at such times and in such manner as we shall deem expedient, in or towards payment of the purchase money for the estate so contracted for as aforesaid, and of the cost of so putting the house and premises thereon in tenantable condition, and of the costs, charges, and expenses of and attending such purchase and such sales as aforesaid respectively; and that the balance, if any, shall be vested in and applied by us for the purposes, or the deficiency, if any, shall be supplied in some mode conformable with the provisions of the said recited Acts.

“ And whereas by the secondly recited Act it was enacted, that it should be lawful to direct that any house of residence purchased under the provisions thereof or of the therein recited Acts, the Act herein first-recited being one of such Acts, should be insured and kept insured by the bishop for the time being in the occupation thereof, at his own personal charge and expense, in such public office or offices of assurance from loss or damage by fire, and in such sum or sums as might be deemed fit, and that such house should be insured and kept insured accordingly; and that the receipt for every premium payable for such insurance should be delivered to us within fourteen days after such premium should become due: we therefore further recommend and propose, that the said last-mentioned house and premises shall be insured and kept insured by the said George bishop of Rochester and his successors bishops of Rochester, in the sum of ten thousand pounds, from loss or damage by fire, in the Sun Fire Office; and that the receipt for every premium payable for such insurance shall be delivered to us, through the hands of our treasurer for the time being, within fourteen days next after such premium shall have become due.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing, in accordance with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament, any further or other measures, relating to the matters herein contained or any of them, and especially for the creation and endowment of any new archdeaconry or archdeaconries or the alteration of the limits of any existing archdeaconry or deanry, or the re-arrangement of any deanries, which may be found necessary in consequence of the several alterations hereinbefore proposed to be made.”

And whereas due notice of the said scheme has been given in accordance with the provisions of the first-recited Act, and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the several dioceses of Canterbury, London, Winchester, Chichester, Lincoln, and Rochester.

CONTRACT FOR CAST IRON ARTICLES.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, August 13, 1845.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Friday the 12th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock-yards with Cast Iron Articles, under a contract for twelve months certain, and afterwards until the expiration of six months warning.

A schedule of the articles, and a form of the tender, may be obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Cast Iron Articles," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £500 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS for SALT BEEF and PORK.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 2, 1845.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Friday the 26th of September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT MEAT,

Of the Cure of the United Kingdom, equal to 8000 Navy Tierces of Beef, and 14,000 Navy Tierces of Pork, in separate tenders, all to be cured in the ensuing season; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part.

One half of the beef to be delivered in tierces, and the remainder in barrels, and a quantity of pork, equal to 200 tierces (and for which separate tenders are to be made), to be delivered in casks, containing 100 pounds each, and of the remaining quantity of pork, two thirds to be delivered in tierces, and the remaining one third in barrels, into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

Beef, two thirds on or before the 31st March 1846, and one third on or before the 31st May 1846;

Pork, one third on or before the 31st March 1846, and two thirds on or before the 31st May 1846;

and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantities beyond those specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender for a less quantity than shall be equal to 300 tierces of beef, or to 300 tierces of pork (except for the pork, to be delivered in casks containing 100 pounds each), will be admitted.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or some person on his behalf, duly authorized in writing; and it is to be expressly understood, that the tenders must contain a separate price for the beef, and a separate price for the pork; and that every tender must also specify the prices both in figures and words at length, or the tenders will be rejected.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner of the envelope the words, "Tender for Salt Meat," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract, for the due performance of the same.

No person will be accepted for more than one Canteen, nor any person who is not of unexceptionable character, or who will not undertake, bona fide, to reside in the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person; two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect of the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations annexed to the form of tender, which will be furnished on application at this Office (Sundays excepted), between the hours of ten and four, and by the Barrack Masters at the several Barracks.
