FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1846.

India-Board, May 5, 1846.

THE Secret Committee of the East India Company have received from the Governor General of India the several papers, of which the following is a copy :

Government Notification.

Camp, Umritsir, March 16, 1846.

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General of India has been pleased to direct the publication, for general information, of the subjoined extracts from the proceedings of the Government of India, relative to the re-establishment of amicable relations between the British Government and the State of Lahore, and the recognition of the independence of Maharajah Goolab Singh.

Note of Conference between F. Currie, Esq. and Major H. M. Lawrence, on the one part, and the Minister and Chiefs of the Lahore Durbar on the other, March 8, 1846.

THE Minister and Chiefs having assembled at the tent of the Governor-General's Agent, for the purpose of signing the Treaty, the conditions of which had been previously discussed and determined, produced, on the part of the Maharajah, a letter addressed to Major Lawrence, the Governor-General's Agent, of which the following is a translation :

“ The feelings of consideration, kindness, and generosity, which have been evinced towards the Lahore State by the Right Honourable the Governor-General, and His Excellency's respect for the former friendship of the British Government with the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh, have been communicated to me through Mr. Secretary Currie and yourself, and have caused me to feel most grateful.

“ Certain important matters will now be represented to you by the following confidential personages:—Bhaee Ram Singh, Rajah Lal Singh, Sirdar Tej Singh, Dewan Deenanath, Fukeer Noor-ood-deen; and you, who are the guardian of the perpetual friendship of the two Governments, will represent these matters to the Governor-General, and will, doubtless, use your endeavours to procure a favourable decision regarding them.

“ The Lahore Government, it is known, is endeavouring to arrange its affairs; and it is necessary that effectual measures should be taken to prevent the recurrence of any disturbances. With this view it is very desirable that some British regiments, with artillery and officers, should be directed to remain at Lahore for a few months, for the protection of the State. After affairs have been satisfactorily settled, and the period which may be fixed upon expired, the British troops will then return.”

To the above paper the following reply was made verbally, and was, at the request of the Minister and Chiefs, written down and given to them :

“ The letter from the Maharajah to Major Lawrence, expressing gratitude to the Governor-General, has been read in presence of the Minister and Chiefs of the Durbar. At the close of that letter, it is requested that a British force may be left at Lahore for a limited period.

"Upon this, it is to be observed that, from the wording of the letter, it is not evident that the retention of a British force at Lahore is sincerely and urgently desired by the Lahore Government, and the nature of the disturbances which are to be provided against, is not specifically described. In so important a matter, general expressions are out of place. The British Government desires to exercise no interference with the Government of Lahore after the Treaty of Peace is concluded; and the Governor-General is not willing to have any concern with the Lahore Government, or to accede to any measure not provided for by the Treaty. This has been repeatedly explained to the Lahore Durbar. If, therefore, for any special reason, and on any particular account, the assistance and intervention of the British Government are desired by the Lahore Durbar, the fact should have been more distinctly stated in the Khurreeta, and the causes which render such aid indispensable should have been given in detail. However, as the Maharajah has authorized the Chiefs named in the Khurreeta, and who are now present, to make known all the particulars of the case, they should now state all the circumstances in full."

The Minister and Chiefs, after consultation, read aloud the substance of the paper, of which the following is a translation, but requested that it might be put in the form of a Khurreeta from the Maharajah, and sent in the evening. A communication was then made to the Governor-General, who determined that a British force should, under certain conditions, to be entered in a separate engagement, occupy Lahore for a limited time. The Treaty was then signed by the Commissioners, and the meeting broke up.

Translation of the Document alluded to in the preceding Paragraph, afterwards sent from the Durbar as a formal Khurreeta, with the seal of the Maharajah.

"ALL the circumstances regarding the disorganization of the Government of Lahore since the demise of the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh, until the present time, are well known to the British Government.

"The satisfactory settlement of affairs, the discharge of the disturbers of public peace, and the reorganization of the army under the stipulations of the new Treaty, are now engaging consideration. But lest, after the departure of the British forces, the evil disposed should create fresh disturbances, and endeavour to ruin the State, it is the earnest and sincere desire and hope of the Lahore Durbar, that British troops with intelligent officers should, for some months, as circumstances may seem to require, be left at Lahore, for the protection of the Government and the Maharajah, and the inhabitants of the city. When affairs have been satisfactorily settled, and the period prescribed for the stay of the British force shall have expired, the troops may then be withdrawn."

GENERAL ORDER by the Governor-General of India.

Camp, Lahore, March 8, 1846.

THE treaty of peace, between the British Government and that of His Highness the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, has been signed.

The treaty will be ratified by the Governor-General in presence of the Maharajah and the Sikh Chiefs to-morrow afternoon, the 9th instant, at four o'clock, in the Governor-General's tent.

The Governor-General invites his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, his Excellency the Governor of Sind, with their personal staff, to attend on this occasion, also the generals of divisions, the brigadiers, the head of each department, and all officers commanding corps, with one native officer from every regiment.

His Highness the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh will be received by a salute of 21 guns. The street leading to the Governor-General's tent will be lined by detachments of regiments, according to the orders which his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief will be pleased to issue.

The following day, the Governor-General will pay his Highness the Maharajah a visit of congratulation on the restoration of peace between the two Governments, and will leave the camp for that purpose at three o'clock. The escort will be fixed in the General Order of his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

The 36 pieces of Sikh artillery which were pointed against the British army, have been surrendered and brought into camp. The disbandment of the Sikh army, its re-organization, on the same rate of pay as in the time of the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh, and the limitations of its numbers, have been settled by the treaty.

At the earnest solicitation of the Government of the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, the Governor-General has consented to occupy the citadel and town of Lahore by British troops for a limited period, that opportunity may be afforded the Lahore Government of completing the reorganization of its army according to the stipulations of the treaty.

If, by the good offices of the British Government, peace and order can take the place of the military anarchy and misrule by which the Sikh nation has been brought to the verge of dissolution, the Governor-General will rejoice that the co-operation of the British Government, by the aid of its faithful army, shall have been successful in effecting that object. It is the strongest proof which the British Government can give, of the sincerity of its desire to see a Sikh Government re-established. The British Government having afforded the protection desired, the troops will be withdrawn before the end of the year. The details of the force will be determined between the Governor-General and his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief. During the period of occupation the native troops will continue to receive Sinda pay and allowances.

It is by the valour and discipline of the British troops, led by their distinguished commanders, that these important and complete successes have been gained; and the Governor-General is confident that, during the temporary occupation of the fortified town of Lahore, the troops will prove, by their good conduct, that they are as generous and humane after victory as they are brave and invincible in the field of battle.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India,

F. CURRIE,

Secretary to the Government of India,
with the Governor-General.

Memorandum of the proceedings of a Durbar held at Lahore, on the 9th of March 1846.

AT four, P.M., of the 9th of March, a public Durbar was held in the state tent of the Right Honourable the Governor-General, at which His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief and staff, His Excellency the Governor of Sinda and staff, with the British and Native Officers invited in the Governor-General's order, dated 8th instant, attended.

The young Maharajah of Lahore, attended by the Minister Rajah Lal Singh, Rajah Goolab Singh, the Commander-in-Chief of the Lahore Army, Sirdar Tej Singh, and about 30 other Sirdars and Civil Officers, with their suites, were present.

After the treaty of peace was ratified and exchanged with the usual ceremonies, the Governor-General addressed the Chiefs in the following terms, the address being translated, sentence by sentence, by the Secretary to the Government of India, Mr. F. Currie :

"On this occasion of ratifying the treaty of peace between the British Government and the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, in the presence of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, His Excellency the Governor of Sinda, and the Officers of the British Army on the one hand, and the Sikh Chiefs on the other, I have to repeat the assurances which have so often been given by me and by my predecessors, of our desire that peace and friendship may always subsist between the two Governments.

"The British Government desires to see a Sikh Government re-established which may be able to control its army, protect its subjects, and willing to respect the rights of its neighbours.

"By this treaty, the Lahore Government has sufficient strength to resist and punish any Native Power which may venture to assail it, and to put down all internal commotions.

"Wisdom in council, and good faith in fulfilling its engagements, will cause the Sikh Government to be respected, and enable it to preserve its national independence.

"For forty years, it was the policy, in Runjeet Singh's time, to cultivate friendly relations between the two Governments, and, during the whole of that period, the Sikh Nation was independent and happy. Let the policy of that able man towards the British Government be the model for your future imitation.

"The British Government in no respect provoked the late war. It had no objects of aggrandizement to obtain by hostilities. The proof of its sincerity is to be found in its moderation in the hour of victory.

"A just quarrel, followed by a successful war, has not changed the policy of the British Government. The British Government does not desire to interfere in your internal affairs. I am ready and anxious to withdraw every British soldier from Lahore. At the earnest solicitation of the Sikh Government, I have, reluctantly, consented to leave a British force in garrison at Lahore, until time shall have been afforded for the reorganization of the Sikh army, by which assistance the stipulations of the treaty may be more easily carried into effect.

"In no case can I consent that the British troops shall remain in garrison for a longer period than the end of this year.

"I state this publicly, that all the world may know the truth, and the motives by which I am actuated in this matter.

"The Sikh army must, according to the treaty, be immediately reorganized, by reverting to the same system, and rate of pay, as in Runjeet Singh's time.

"If the friendly assistance now afforded by the British Government, be wisely followed up, and honest exertions made by the Chiefs without delay, you will become an independent and prosperous State.

"The success or failure is in your own hands; my co-operation shall not be wanting; but, if you neglect this opportunity, no aid on the part of the British Government can save the State.

"I leave my Political Agent, Major Lawrence, assisted by Major McGregor, and a most able General Officer, Sir John Littler, to command the British troops. These Officers possess my entire confidence.

"Again I repeat, my anxious desire is to see a Sikh Government strong and respected, an obedient army, patriotic chiefs, and a happy people.

"I trust the reign of the Maharajah will be long and prosperous, and celebrated for the happiness of his people under a just and pacific Government."

At the close of this address, the Sirdars expressed in warm terms their gratitude to the Governor-General, and their resolution to follow the advice His Excellency had given them.

The usual presents were then given, after which the Durbar broke up.

TREATY between the British Government and the State of Lahore.

WHEREAS the Treaty of Amity and Concord, which was concluded between the British Government and the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh, the Ruler of Lahore, in 1809, was broken, by the unprovoked aggression, on the British provinces, of the Sikh army, in December last, and whereas, on that occasion, by the proclamation dated the 13th of December, the territories then in the occupation of the Maharajah of Lahore on the left or British bank of the river Sutlej, were confiscated and annexed to the British provinces, and, since that time, hostile operations have been prosecuted by the two Governments, the one against the other, which have resulted in the occupation of Lahore by the British troops; and whereas it has been determined that, upon certain conditions, peace shall be re-established between the two Governments, the following Treaty of Peace between the Honourable English East India Company and Maharajah Dhuleep Singh Bahadoor and his children, heirs, and successors, has been concluded, on the part of the Honourable Company, by Frederick Currie, Esq., and Brevet Major Henry Montgomery Lawrence, by virtue of full powers to that effect, vested in them by the Right Honourable Sir Henry Hardinge, G.C.B. one of Her Britannic Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Governor-General, appointed by the Honourable Company to direct and control all their affairs in the East Indies, and, on the part of His Highness the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, by Bhaee Ram Singh, Rajah Lal Singh, Sirdar Tej Singh, Sirdar Chutter Singh Attareewalla, Sirdar Runjeor Singh Majetha, Deewan Deena Nath, and Fukeer Noor-oo-Deen, vested with full powers and authority on the part of His Highness.

Article 1. There shall be perpetual peace and friendship between the British Government on the one part, and Maharajah Dhuleep Singh, his heirs and successors, on the other.

Art 2. The Maharajah of Lahore renounces for himself, his heirs and successors, all claim to, or connexion with, the territories lying to the south of the river Sutlej, and engages never to have any concern with those territories or the inhabitants thereof.

Art. 3. The Maharajah cedes to the Honourable Company, in perpetual sovereignty, all his forts, territories, and rights, in the Doab, or country, hill and plain, situate between the rivers Beas and Sutlej.

Art 4. The British Government having demanded from the Lahore State, as indemnification for the expenses of the war, in addition to the cession of territory described in Article 3, payment of one and a half crores of rupees, and the Lahore Government being unable to pay the whole of this sum at this time, or to give security, satisfactory to the British Government, for its eventual payment, the Maharajah cedes to the Honourable Company, in perpetual sovereignty, an equivalent for one crore of rupees, all his forts, territories, rights, and interests, in the hill countries which are situate between the rivers Beas and Indus, including the provinces of Cashmere and Hazarah.

Art 5. The Maharajah will pay to the British Government the sum of 50 lacs of rupees on or before the ratification of this treaty.

Art. 6. The Maharajah engages to disband the mutinous troops of the Lahore army, taking from them their arms; and His Highness agrees to reorganize the Regular, or Aeen, regiments of infantry, upon the system, and according to the regulations as to pay and allowances, observed in the time of the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh. The Maharajah further engages to pay up all arrears to the soldiers that are discharged under the provisions of this article.

Art. 7. The regular army of the Lahore State shall henceforth be limited to 25 battalions of infantry, consisting of 800 bayonets each, with 12,000 cavalry: this number at no time to be exceeded, without the concurrence of the British Government. Should it be necessary at any time, for any special cause, that this force should be increased, the cause shall be fully explained to the British Government, and, when the special necessity shall have passed, the regular troops shall be again reduced to the standard specified in the former clause of this article.

Art. 8. The Maharajah will surrender to the British Government all the guns, 36 in number, which have been pointed against the British troops, and which, having been placed on the right bank of the river Sutlej, were not captured at the battle of Sobraon.

Art. 9. The control of the rivers Beas and Sutlej, with the continuations of the latter river, commonly called the Garrah and the Punjnad, to the confluence of the Indus at Mithunkote, and the control of the Indus from Mithunkote to the borders of Beloochistan, shall, in respect to tolls and ferries, rest with the British Government. The provisions of this article shall not interfere with the passage of boats belonging to the Lahore Government on the said rivers for the purposes of traffic or the conveyance of passengers up and down their course. Regarding the ferries between the two countries respectively, at the several ghats of the said rivers, it is agreed that the British Government, after defraying all the expenses of management and establishments, shall account to the Lahore Government for one-half of the net profits of the ferry collections. The provisions of this article have no reference to the ferries on that part of the river Sutlej which forms the boundary of Buhawulpore and Lahore respectively.

Art. 10. If the British Government should, at any time, desire to pass troops through the territories of His Highness the Maharajah, for the protection of the British territories, or those of their allies, the British troops shall, on such special occasion, due notice being given, be allowed to pass through the Lahore territories. In such case, the officers of the Lahore State will afford facilities in providing supplies and boats for the passage of rivers; and the British Government will pay the full price of all such provisions and boats, and will make fair compensation for all private property that may be endamaged. The British Government will moreover observe all due consideration to the religious feelings of the inhabitants of those tracts through which the army may pass.

Art. 11. The Maharajah engages never to take, or retain, in his service, any British subject, nor the subject of any European or American State, without the consent of the British Government.

Art. 12. In consideration of the services rendered by Rajah Gholab Singh, of Jummo, to the Lahore State, towards procuring the restoration of the relations of amity between the Lahore and British Governments, the Maharajah hereby agrees to recognize the independent sovereignty of Rajah Gholab Singh, in such territories and districts in the Hills, as may be made over to the said Rajah Gholab Singh by separate agreement between himself and the British Government, with the dependencies thereof, which may have been in the Rajah's possession since the time of the late Maharajah Kurruk Singh; and the British Government, in consideration of the good conduct of Rajah Gholab Singh, also agrees to recognize his independence in such territories, and to admit him to the privileges of a separate treaty with the British Government.

Art. 13. In the event of any dispute or difference arising between the Lahore State and Rajah Gholab Singh, the same shall be referred to the arbitration of the British Government; and by its decision the Maharajah engages to abide.

Art. 14. The limits of the Lahore territories shall not be, at any time, changed, without the concurrence of the British Government.

Art. 15. The British Government will not exercise any interference in the internal administration of the Lahore State; but, in all cases or questions which may be referred to the British Government, the Governor-General will give the aid of his advice and good offices for the furtherance of the interests of the Lahore Government.

Art. 16. The subjects of either State shall, on visiting the territories of the other, be on the footing of the subjects of the most favoured nation.

This Treaty, consisting of sixteen articles, has been this day settled by Frederick Currie, Esq. and Brevet Major Henry Montgomery Lawrence, acting under the directions of the Right Honourable Sir Henry Hardinge, G.C.B., Governor-General, on the part of the British Government; and by Bhaee Ram Singh, Rajah Lal Singh, Sirdar Tej Singh, Sirdar Chutter Singh Attareewalla, Sirdar Runjoor Singh Majethea, Dewan Deena Nath, and Fuqeer Noor-oo-deen, on the part of the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh; and the said Treaty has been this day ratified by the seal of the Right Honourable Sir Henry Hardinge, G.C.B., Governor-General, and by that of His Highness Maharajah Dhuleep Singh.

Done at Lahore, this 9th day of March, in the year of our Lord 1846, corresponding with the tenth day of Rubbee-ool-awul 1262, Hijree, and ratified on the same date.

Memorandum of a State Visit paid by the Governor-General to the Maharajah of Lahore in His Highness's Palace, on the 10th March 1846.

ON the afternoon of the 10th of March, the Governor-General, attended by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, His Excellency the Governor of Sind, and the British Officers who were present at the ratification of the treaty on the 9th instant, paid a visit of congratulation to the Maharajah Dhuleep Singh at the Palace in Lahore. On this occasion Dewan Deena Nath, by direction of the Minister and assembled Chiefs, read, from a written paper, an address, of which the following is a translation:—

“It is impossible for us adequately to express the gratitude which we feel to the Governor-General for his having determined to continue the ancient relations which existed with the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh, and for his generosity, kindness, and mercy in maintaining this Government.”

“For the excellent advice which was given, yesterday, through kindness and friendship, to the assembled Sirdars, exhorting them to unanimity, prudence, and good government, we are also most grateful. We consider this good advice as having a direct tendency to effect the re-establishment of the Government of the country. We have further to express our gratitude for arrangements having generously been made, in compliance with our solicitations, for leaving a garrison in Lahore of British troops, with Major Lawrence and other trustworthy officers, for our protection and that of the city.”

“These troops will assuredly be honourably dismissed towards the Sutlej, upon a satisfactory settlement of affairs being effected within the period prescribed for their stay.”

“The various acts of generosity shown by the Governor-General on the present occasion, entirely satisfy us that His Excellency will ever maintain the same magnanimous and generous policy towards this State, and that, taking compassion on the extreme youth of the Maharajah,

His Excellency will maintain all those friendly relations which existed in the time of the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh."

After the presentation by the Maharajah of the usual offerings, the Governor-General and Suite returned to camp.

Note of the Proceedings of a Meeting of the Minister and Chiefs of the Lahore Durbar and the British Commissioners, held at the Tent of the Governor-General's Agent, on the 11th of March 1846.

ON the forenoon of the 11th instant, the Minister and Chiefs of the Durbar attended at the tent of the Governor-General's Agent, when the following agreement was concluded, and subsequently confirmed by the Right Honourable the Governor-General:—

Articles of Agreement concluded between the British Government and the Lahore Durbar, on the 11th of March 1846.

WHEREAS the Lahore Government has solicited the Governor-General to leave a British force at Lahore for the protection of the Maharajah's person and of the capital, till the reorganization of the Lahore army, according to the provisions of article 6 of the Treaty of Lahore, dated the 9th inst.; and whereas the Governor-General has, on certain conditions, consented to the measure; and whereas it is expedient that certain matters concerning the territories ceded by articles 3 and 4 of the aforesaid Treaty, should be specifically determined, the following eight articles of agreement have this day been concluded between the aforementioned contracting parties:—

Art. 1. The British Government shall leave at Lahore, till the close of the current year, A. D. 1846, such force as shall seem to the Governor-General adequate for the purpose of protecting the person of the Maharajah, and the inhabitants of the city of Lahore, during the reorganization of the Sikh army, in accordance with the provisions of article 6 of the Treaty of Lahore; that force to be withdrawn at any convenient time before the expiration of the year, if the object to be fulfilled shall, in the opinion of the Durbar, have been attained; but the force shall not be detained at Lahore beyond the expiration of the current year.

Art. 2. The Lahore Government agrees that the force left at Lahore, for the purpose specified in the foregoing article, shall be placed in full possession of the fort and the city of Lahore, and that the Lahore troops shall be removed from within the city. The Lahore Government engages to furnish convenient quarters for the officers and men of the said force, and to pay to the British Government all the extra expenses, in regard to the said force, which may be incurred by the British Government in consequence of their troops being employed away from their own cantonments and in a foreign territory.

Art. 3. The Lahore Government engages to apply itself immediately and earnestly to the reorganization of its army according to the prescribed conditions, and to communicate fully with the British Authorities left at Lahore as to the progress of such reorganization, and as to the location of the troops.

Art. 4. If the Lahore Government fails in the performance of the conditions of the foregoing article, the British Government shall be at liberty to withdraw the force from Lahore at any time before the expiration of the period specified in article 1.

Art. 5. The British Government agrees to respect the bonâ fide rights of those Jagheerdars within the territories ceded by articles 3 and 4 of the Treaty of Lahore, dated 9th instant, who were attached to the families of the late Maharajah Runjeet Singh, Kurruk Singh, and Shere Singh; and the British Government will maintain those Jagheerdars in their bonâ fide possessions during their lives.

Art. 6. The Lahore Government shall receive the assistance of the British local Authorities in recovering the arrears of revenue justly due to the Lahore Government from their Kardars and Managers in the territories ceded by the provisions of articles 3 and 4 of the Treaty of Lahore, to the close of the Khurreef harvest of the current year, viz. 1902 of the Sumbut Bikramajcet.

Art. 7. The Lahore Government shall be at liberty to remove from the forts in the territories specified in the foregoing article, all treasure and State property, with the exception of guns. Should, however, the British Government desire to retain any part of the said property, they shall be at liberty to do so, paying for the same at a fair valuation; and the British Officers shall give their assistance to the Lahore Government in disposing on the spot of such part of the aforesaid property as the Lahore Government may not wish to remove, and the British Officers may not desire to retain.

Art. 8. Commissioners shall be immediately appointed by the two Governments to settle and lay down the boundary between the two States, as defined by article 4 of the Treaty of Lahore, dated March 9, 1846.

WHEREAS in pursuance of notices published in the London Gazette, and in the Cambridge Independent Press, the Bury and Norwich Post, and Ipswich Journal, in the months of October and November last, a Bill has been introduced, and is now pending in the Honourable the House of Commons, for the purpose of extending the line of the Ipswich and Bury St. Edmund's Railway to Ely, and for making a branch therefrom to Newmarket; and whereas since the deposit of the plans and sections, and books of reference relating to the said extension and branch, with the several Clerks of the Peace for the counties of Suffolk, Cambridge, and the isle of Ely, in the county of Cambridge, a deviation or alteration in the line of the said proposed branch to Newmarket, as hereinafter defined, has been determined upon, with the consent of the several owners, lessees, and occupiers of the lands in or through which such deviation or alteration is intended to pass;

Notice is hereby, therefore, given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, for powers to be inserted in the
