

SUPPLEMENT TO

The London Gazette

Of TUESDAY the 9th of MARCH.

Published by Authority.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 10, 1847.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, the 9th day of March 1847,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board an Order in Council, dated the fourth day of February last, whereby it was ordered, that notice should be given in the London Gazette, that after the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the publication of that Order and notice, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, would take into consideration the propriety of making the two several Orders therein specified, for the purposes of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England:"

And whereas notice of the said Order was given accordingly, and published in the London Gazette on Saturday the sixth day of February last:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, on the thirteenth day of March in this year, the several courts holden for the recovery of small debts or demands, under the provisions of any Act or Acts cited in one or both of the schedules annexed to the said Act of the last session of Parliament, and marked (A) and (B) respectively, shall be abolished, except a court

holden for the manor of Sheffield, under an Act, passed in the forty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for regulating the proceedings in the Courts Baron of the manors of Sheffield and Ecclesall, in the county of York;" and excepting also the courts hereinafter more particularly specified; and that, on and after the fifteenth day of March in this year, the County Court of Middlesex, heretofore holden under the provisions of an Act, passed in the twenty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for preventing delays and expences in the proceedings in the County Court of Middlesex, and for the more easy and speedy recovery of small debts in the said County Court," shall be holden under the provisions of the said Act of the last session of Parliament, in the several districts into which the said county shall be divided, by any Order to be made by Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council; and also that each of the several Courts of Request or Conscience heretofore holden for the recovery of debts and demands in the several cities, towns, and places hereinafter mentioned within the provisions of some one or more of the Acts cited in the schedule annexed to the said Act of the last session of Parliament, and marked (A), shall be holden as a County Court on and after the said fifteenth day of March, in the city or town hereinafter mentioned to be respectively appointed or substituted, instead of the city or cities, town or towns, place or places in which such court was or might have been holden under the provisions of any of the said Acts; that is to say,

A court heretofore holden at Bath, under an Act, passed in the forty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the more speedy and easy recovery of small debts in the city of Bath and the liberties thereof, and in the several parishes and places therein mentioned, in the county of Somerset," shall be holden as a County Court in the city of Bath:

Two courts heretofore holden at Bristol; that is to say, one court holden under an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the more speedy and easy recovery of small debts in the city and county of the city of Bristol and the liberties thereof, and in the several parishes and places therein mentioned, in the counties of Gloucester and Somerset;" and another Court holden under an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting more effectual powers for the regulation of the Court of Conscience within the city of Bristol," shall be consolidated and holden as a county court in the city of Bristol:

A court, other than the Court of Passage, heretofore holden for the recovery of small debts in Liverpool, under an Act passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the fourth and fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for amending the proceedings and practice of the Court of Passage of the borough of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster,' and to repeal an Act, passed in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled " 'An Act for the more easy and speedy recovery of small debts in the town and port of Liverpool and liberties thereof, in the county palatine of Lancaster,' and to give further power for the recovery of small debts within the borough of Liverpool," shall be holden as a County Court in the town of Liverpool:

And that the district to be assigned to each of the said courts, when so holden as a County Court, shall be the district which by any Order to be made by Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, shall be specified as the district of the County Court holden in each of the said cities and towns respectively. Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Osborne-House, the 9th day of March 1847.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board an Order in Council, dated the fourth day of February last, whereby it was ordered, that notice should be given in the London Gazette, that after the expiration of one calendar month from the date of the publication of that Order and notice, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, would take into consideration the propriety of making the two several Orders therein specified, for the purposes of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England:"

And whereas notice of the said Order was given accordingly, and published in the London Gazette on Saturday the sixth day of February last:

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, on the fifteenth day of March in this year, the said Act of the last session of Parliament shall be put in force in every county throughout England and Wales; and that the whole of the said counties, including all counties of cities and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining, except the city of London, and excepting also the Superintendant Registrar's districts of Ecclesall Bierlow, and Sheffield, and so much of the Superintendant Registrar's district of Wortley, as is not hereinafter specified as part of the district of the County Court of Yorkshire holden at Barnsley, shall be divided into the several districts hereinafter specified; and that the County Court of each of the said counties shall be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of the districts into which such county shall be so divided, in the several cities and towns hereinafter specified as court towns, or towns in which courts are to be holden in each county, in conjunction with the said districts respectively, except in the districts hereinafter called Metropolitan Districts, in each of which the court shall be holden in some convenient place within such district; and in each district, except in the said Metropolitan Districts, the said court shall be holden by the name of "The County Court of _____, holden at _____," inserting in the first blank space the name of the county, and in the second the name of the town in which the court is to be holden; and in the said Metropolitan Districts, the said court shall be holden by the name of "The _____ County Court of _____," inserting in the first blank space the name hereinafter given to the court, and in the second the name of the county in which the Court is to be holden:

And that in the description of the said several court districts hereunto annexed, unless where specific mention is made of particular parishes, chapelries, townships, tithings, hamlets, or precincts, the several places named are to be taken to mean and imply the several Superintendent Registrars' districts, bearing the like names respectively, which have been constituted pursuant to an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for registering births, deaths, and marriages in England," or pursuant to any Act passed for the amendment thereof, as the same were severally constituted on the nineteenth day of December last past; save only, that all parts of parishes and chapelries, townships, tithings, and hamlets, which are detached from the main body of the parishes and chapelries, townships, tithings, and hamlets to which such detached parts severally belong, and also all places

(if any), parochial or extra-parochial, not included in the said descriptions (except those hereinbefore excepted), shall be taken to be within the district of that court within the precincts and outer boundary of which they severally lie, or by which they are severally surrounded, or with which they have the greatest common boundary, if not wholly surrounded by any one court district; and that each of the said court districts shall be deemed to include also all rivers, creeks, harbours, and waters included within the outer boundary thereof, or thereunto adjoining, which are within the body of any county in England or Wales; and that where the districts of any two courts shall be divided by a river, the boundary line between the two districts shall be the mid-channel of such river; and that every place included within the outer boundary of the court districts so specified and described shall be taken to be within the jurisdiction of the County Court holden for the purposes of the said Act for the county in which the city, town, or place is situated where the court is ordered to be holden, or when such city, town, or place may be situated in two or more counties, then of the County Court holden for that county under which such city, town, or place is mentioned in the description of the said several court districts hereunto annexed, in like manner as if it were part of such county:

And that the description of the said several court districts, and the names of the cities, towns, and places where the courts shall be severally holden therein, are as follows; the first column containing the names of the court towns (except in the said Metropolitan Districts,) and in the said Metropolitan Districts the names given to the said courts respectively; and the second column containing in every case the description of the districts for which the courts are to be holden therein; that is to say:
