The following promotion has this day taken place, consequent upon the death of Rear Admiral the Honourable James William King:

Captain Villiers Francis Hatton to be Rear Admiral of the Blue.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the present session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to give further time for making certain railways," the Furness Railway Company have made application, in writing, to the Commissioners of Railways, setting forth, that the said Furness Railway Company are desirous that the period of time, limited by "the Furness Railway Extensions Act, 1846," for the completion of the railway and works thereby authorized to be made, should, as to such portion of the said railway, and the works connected therewith, as is situate between Dalton and Ulverston, be extended for the period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act; and also, that the period of time limited by the same Act for the compulsory purchase of lands for the purpose of constructing the said railway or works should, as to such of the lands mentioned and described in the plans of the said railway, and the books of reference thereto, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster, as are situate within the several parishes of Dalton, Pennington, and Ulverston, be extended for the further period of two years from the expiration of the period so limited by such Act.

And notice is hereby given, that any persons who may think themselves aggrieved by such proposed extension of the time, for the completion of the said railway or works, and for the compulsory purchase of the said lands, and who desire to object thereto, may bring such objections before the Commissioners of Railways, by sending a written statement thereof, by post, on or before the 1st day of March next, addressed to the Secretary of the Commissioners of Railways, Whitehall, London.—Dated this 12th day of February 1848.
