

such blacksmith's shop, proceeds northerly, in a line at the back of the said blacksmith's and of the houses on the western side of such road at the distance of fifty-two yards, as far as the back of the premises at the junction of Coppice-side with the road leading from Swadlincote to Castle Gresley, and at the distance of fifty yards on the south side of the latter road; the boundary line then passes in a westerly direction at the distance of fifty yards from the southern side of the said road leading to Castle Gresley until it reaches a distance of forty-three yards from the toll-gate, and crossing the said latter road, proceeds up the western side of the road leading from the toll-gate in a northerly direction to Old Colliery, as far as the stream on the north side of the Swadlincote Railway, and passing westerly along that stream as far as Dark Land Houses, and then turns southerly, westerly, and northerly, along the enclosure of such premises, and again reaches the before-mentioned stream, along which it proceeds as far as the parish of Stapenhill, as the said district is more particularly delineated on the map hereunto annexed, and is thereon coloured pink:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in the said church at Swadlincote aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the incumbent thereof for the time being:

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John Lord Bishop of Lichfield (as the Bishop of the diocese) has been obtained thereto, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof the said John Lord Bishop of Lichfield has signed and sealed this representation:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the like advice, hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield. *Wm. Treaty of Friendship and Commerce between Her Majesty and the Republic of Liberia. Signed at London, November 21, 1848.

[Ratifications exchanged at London, August 1, 1849.]

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the Republic of Liberia, being desirous to conclude a Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and to regulate thereby the commercial intercourse between the dominions and subjects of Her Majesty and the territories and citizens of the Republic; Her Majesty has for this purpose named as Her Plenipotentiaries, that is to say:

The Right Honourable Henry John Viscount Palmerston, Baron Temple, a Peer of Ireland, a Member of Her Britannic Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, and Her Britannic Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs; and the Right Honourable Henry Labouchere, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, a Member of Parliament, and President of the Committee of Privy Council for affairs of Trade and Foreign Plantations:

And the Republic of Liberia having, by resolutions of the Legislature, bearing date the 4th of February 1848, authorized and empowered Joseph Jenkins Roberts, the President of the Republic, to conclude such Treaty on behalf of the Republic;

The Plenipotentiaries of Her Majesty, and the said President of the Republic, after having communicated to each other their respective powers, have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:

ARTICLE I.

There shall be perpetual peace and friendship between Her Majesty the Queen of the United
