Admiralty, 23rd August 1849.

The Right Honourable Francis Nathaniel Marquis of Conyngham, K.P. to be Vice-Admiral of the Province of Ulster.

To the Board of Guardians of the Stepney Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts within the Stepney Union appear to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the Stepney Union;

1. That eight legally qualified medical men, or in case so many legally qualified medical men cannot be procured, advanced medical students be forthwith appointed, to aid in carrying out the system of house to house visitation throughout the affected parts of the Union, or any other measures that it may be deemed advisable to adopt under the emergency.

2. That a house or rooms be provided as a place or places of refuge in suitable positions, to which may be removed the families of such necessitous persons as have been attacked by cholera, or others living near to persons so attacked; and that the houses or rooms from which persons may have been removed shall be thoroughly cleansed and purified by the owners, or those having the care thereof, or, in their default, by the Guardians.

3. That hand-bills and notices be issued throughout the Union, and especially in the affected districts, giving full directions where medical aid and other assistance may be procured by those who may be attacked by cholera or by any of its premonitory symptoms.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 30th day of August 1849.

(Signed) Ashley.
Edwin Chadwick.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Parish of Bethnal Green; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas the parish of Bethnal Green appears to be affected by formidable epidemic and endemic disease, and it is desirable that further measures should be adopted for the prevention, if possible, or mitigation of such disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do now in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained, to extend to the parish of Bethnal Green:

1. That a sufficient and adequate staff of men, with all proper materials, be kept in readiness to carry out all works of lime-washing, &c. in the cases of houses where cholera has occurred, and in such other instances as the medical officers of the parish shall direct.

2. That provision be forthwith made to secure additional supplies of water, to enable a complete and frequent washing of the courts and other confined and close localities throughout the parish.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 31st day of August 1849.

To the Trustees of the Poor of the Parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases," and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas the parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch, appears to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do, in further exercise of the power vested in us as aforesaid, issue the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to the parish of St. Leonard, Shoreditch:

1. That three lay visitors be forthwith appointed, in addition to those previously appointed, to aid in carrying out an effective system of house to house visitation.

2. That a sufficient and adequate staff of men, with all proper materials, be kept in readiness to carry out all works of lime-washing, &c. in the cases of houses where cholera has occurred, and in such other instances as the medical officers of the parish shall direct.

3. That provision be forthwith made to secure additional supplies of water, to enable a complete and frequent washing of the courts and other confined and close localities throughout the parish.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 31st day of August 1849.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Holborn Union; and to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by the Act eleventh and twelfth Victoria, cap. 123, intituled "An Act to renew and amend an Act of the tenth year of Her present Majesty for the more speedy removal of certain nuisances, and the prevention of contagious and epidemic diseases;" and by virtue of an Order of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the 27th day of March 1849, directing that the provisions of the said Act be continued in force throughout the whole of Great Britain; We, the General Board of Health, are authorized to issue such directions and regulations as the said Board shall think fit for the prevention, as far as possible, or mitigation of epidemic, endemic, and contagious diseases;

And whereas various parts and places, included in the Holborn Union, appear to be affected by formidable epidemic or endemic disease;

We, the General Board of Health, do hereby order the execution of the directions and regulations hereinafter contained to extend to the several parishes included in the Holborn Union;

1. That two additional properly qualified medical men, or (in case such properly qualified medical men cannot be obtained) advanced medical students, be forthwith appointed, to devote their whole time to a house to house visitation of the affected districts.

2. That a house or houses, or suitable rooms, be forthwith prepared, wherever it may be deemed most convenient (being as near as practicable to the affected districts), to serve as a house or houses of refuge, for the reception of the families of those who have been attacked by cholera, and also of those necessitous persons living under the same roof, or in the immediate vicinity of those so attacked; and that the houses or rooms, from which such persons have been so removed, shall be thoroughly cleansed and purified by the owners or those having the care or ordering thereof, or in their default by the Board of Guardians of the aforesaid Union.

Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this 1st day of September 1849.

(Signed) Ashley.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Methodist Tabernacle, situate in Lowther-street, in the parish of Saint Mary, in the county of Cumberland, in the district of Carlisle, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 22nd day of August 1849, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 29th day of August 1849.

Jas. Mounsey, Superintendent Registrar.

CONTRACT FOR POLICE CLOTHING.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, August 29, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 4th October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, all such articles of

for the use of the Police Force employed in Her Majesty's several Dock and Victualling Yards, as shall from time to time be demanded for twelve months certain, and further, until the expiration of three months' warning.

Patterns of the articles and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Police Clothing," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £500, for the due performance of the contract.

Office of Ordnance, August 20, 1849.

THE Principal Officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they are ready to dispose of, to such persons as may be willing to tender for the same, in Store, at the Royal Arsenal, at Woolwich, which have been divided into lots, and may be viewed upon application to the Storekeeper, at that place, any day (Sundays excepted) previous to the day fixed for the delivery of the tenders.

A quantity of old Shot, cast in sand, assorted and mixed, from 2lbs. to 1½ozs.

A catalogue of the several lots may be obtained by persons willing to become purchasers, at the Storekeeper's Office, Woolwich; the Principal Storekeeper's Office, at the Tower; and at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-mall; where the tenders for the whole, or any number of the said lots, are to be delivered, on or before Tuesday the 18th September 1849.

By order of the Board,

G. Butler, for Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR BRAZIERS' FOUNDERS' AND COPPERSMITHS' GOODS.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, August 22, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 25th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dockyards with Braziers' Founders' and Coppersmiths' Goods.

Patterns of the articles may be seen, and a form of tender, schedule, and conditions of the contract obtained at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Braziers' Goods, &c." and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR MARINE CLOTHING AND NECESSARIES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Service, Somerset-Place, August 23, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday, the 20th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, under a contract for twelve months certain, and further until the expiration of three months' warning, all such and Woollen and Linen Articles of Necessaries as may from time to time be demanded for the Royal Marines, and for the Artillery Companies of the Royal Marines.

The Clothing to be supplied either made up, or in materials for making up.

A form of the tender, and the conditions of the contract may be obtained at the said Office, and patterns of the articles may be seen on application at the Marine Office, New-street, Spring-gardens, between the hours of eleven and three.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Marine Clothing," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £3000 for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACTS for SALT PORK of the CURE of the UNITED KINGDOM, or of any FOREIGN COUNTRY WHATSOEVER.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, July 30, 1849.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Thursday the 27th September next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for the supply of a quantity of

SALT PORK,

Of the Cure of the United Kingdom, or of any Foreign Country whatsoever, equal to 6,000 Tierces, to be cured in the ensuing season, and to be delivered in tierces, excepting a part thereof, equal to 100 tierces, which is to be delivered in casks containing 100lbs. each, and for which separate tenders are to be made; their Lordships reserving to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or of not contracting for any part; and also an unlimited power of selection, according to quality.

Every tender to specify where the meat is intended to be cured, and a separate price for each denomination of cure comprised therein.

The pork to be delivered into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, Portsmouth, Plymouth, and Haulbowline, in such proportions as shall hereafter be directed, and within the following periods:

One-third on or before the 31st March 1850,
Two-thirds on or before the 31st May 1850, and to be paid for by bills payable at sight, but not during the first period of delivery, for any quantity beyond that specified.

The conditions of the contract may be seen at this Office, or by applying to the Agent for the Victualling at Cork, or to the Collectors of Her Majesty's Customs at Limerick, Belfast, Waterford, and Newry, or to the Secretary of the Postmaster-General at Dublin, or to the Resident Agent for Transports at Leith.

No tender will be admitted for a less quantity than 300 tierces, except for the quantity to be delivered in casks containing 100lbs. each.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner of the envelope the words "Tender for Salt Pork," and "Comptroller for Victualling," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, and be accompanied by a letter signed by two responsible persons engaging to become bound with the person tendering in a sum equal to £25 per cent. on the amount of the contract for the due performance of the same.

Mules, Solicitors; at Exeter, at the offices of Mr. Kennaway, Messrs. Bishop and Pitts, and Mr. Gidley, Solicitors, at the place of sale.

Durham.

TO be peremptorily sold by auction, by Messrs. Farebrother, Clark, and Lye, at Garraway's Coffee-house, Change-alley, London, on Wednesday, 5th September 1849, at twelve o'clock, in five lots, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in two several causes of Chaytor v. Maclean, and Chaytor v. Bell, and with the approbation of Sir William Horne, one of the Masters of the said Court:

A valuable, extensive, and highly improvable freehold, and small part copyhold estate, chiefly tithe free, in the chapelries of Witton le Wear, Hamsterley, and Saint Helen's, Auckland, in the parish of Saint Andrew, Auckland, about four miles from the market town of Bishop Auckland, eight from Wolsingham, twelve from Darlington, and eleven from the city of Durham, consisting of Witton Castle, a capital stone-built baronial mansion (recently repaired and embellished at a large expense), with offices, gardens, shrubberies, woods, through which there are beautiful rural walks, extending to the banks of the Linburn, park-like grounds and farms, the whole containing about 2405 acres; also the manors or lordships, and advowsons of, and right of presentation to, the perpetual curacies of Witton le Wear and Hamsterley, and the very valuable collieries and iron works; also, in separate lots, the great tithes of the chapelries of Witton le Wear, Hamsterley, North Redburn, and Newton Cap.

Particulars with plans may now be had of John Jones at the Castle; at the Talbot, Bishop Auckland; Waterloo Arms, Durham; King's Head, Darlington; and Barnard Castle; Black Bull, Wolsingham; in London, at the Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane; of Messrs. Burrell, Shafto, and Greenwell, Solicitors, Durham; of Messrs. Lawrence, Crowdy, and Bowlby, Old Fish-street, Doctors'-commons, of William Loader, Esq. Solicitor, No. 28, Bedford-place, Russell-square; of Messrs. Wordworth and Dunn, Solicitors, No. 32, Threadneedle-street; of Messrs. Cole, No. 4, Adelphi-terrace; at Garraway's Coffee-house; and at the offices of Messrs. Farebrother, Clark, and Lye, No. 6, Lancaster-place, Strand.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to two Orders of the High Court of Chancery made in the causes Tomlinson v. Troughton and Haydock v. Tomlinson, with the approbation of the Honourable Sir George Rose, one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Bull Inn, in the county of Lancaster, on Wednesday the 10th day of October 1849, at six o'clock in the evening, in eleven lots;

The separate freehold estates of the late William Tomlinson, Esquire, situate at Preston aforesaid, consisting of extensive buildings and premises at Avenham and Crowhill, formerly and for many years used as a Tanning and Currying Works of the said William Tomlinson, with two cottages and a meadow adjoining; several plots or parcels of building land; a coach building establishment and smithy, and buildings situate in Woodcock's-yard; a freehold cottage called Avenham-cottage; four freehold messuages and shops on the west side of Cheapside; three cottages and premises formerly called Swainson's-court, immediately behind the said messuages in Cheapside; and several perpetual and other ground rents.

Particulars and conditions may be had (gratis) in London at the said Master's chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane (on personal application only); also of Mr. Cowburn, Solicitor, No. 15, Lincoln's-inn-fields, and of Messrs. Johnson, Son, and Wetherall, Solicitors, No. 7, King's Bench-walk, Temple; and in the country, of Messrs. Troughton, Son, and Noble, and Messrs.
