The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of county coroner," it is enacted, that when and so often as it shall seem expedient to the justices of any county in England, that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said justices in general or quarter sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition be presented to Her Majesty praying that such division or alteration be made; and that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Her by any coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional coroner above the number of those who have been customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of the said Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the Court for the election of coroner for such district shall be holden; and every such order shall be published in the London Gazette.

And whereas it appearing to the justices of the Peace for the county of Salop that the division of that county made under and by virtue and for the purposes of the said Act by an Order of Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-five, whereby the said county was divided into five districts for the purposes of the said Act, should be altered by dividing one of the said five districts, called the Bradford District, into two districts, in the manner hereinafter mentioned, the said justices in general quarter sessions assembled, on the first day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine did agree that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that the said Bradford district should be divided into two districts, and that one of such districts should be called the Bradford North District, and consist of the parishes and places forming the division of the said county called the north part of the hundred of Bradford, and that the other of such districts should be called the Bradford South and Brimstree Shiffnall District, and consist of the parishes and places forming the divisions of the said county called respectively the south part of the hundred of Bradford, and the Shiffnall division of the hundred of Brimstree; and that the Court to be holden for the purpose of the election of any coroner for the district proposed to be called Bradford North District should be holden at the town of Hodnet, and that the Court to be holden for the election of any coroner for the Bradford, South, and Brimstree Shiffnall District should be holden at Wellington; and the said petition further prayed, that Her Majesty would be pleased to authorize a writ de coronatore eligendo to be issued for electing a coroner for the said district proposed to be called the Bradford North District.

And whereas the said petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the said petition is founded, hath been presented to Her Majesty and duly certified to Her, under the hands and seals of two of the justices present when the said petition was agreed to; and it hath been made to appear that the provisions of the said Act have been duly complied with:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, and under and in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act, doth hereby order and direct as follows; that is to say:

1. That the district at present constituted in the said county for the purposes of the said Act, called the Bradford district, shall be and the same is hereby divided into two districts; that is to say: one of such districts, consisting of the parishes and places forming the division of the said county, called the north part of the hundred of Bradford, and such district shall be called and the same is hereby named "The Bradford North District;" and the other of such districts, consisting of the parishes and places forming the divisions of the said county, called, respectively, the south part of the hundred of Bradford, and the Shiffnall division of the hundred of Brimstree, and such last-mentioned district shall be called and the same is hereby named "The Bradford South and Brimstree Shiffnall District."
