

street, where the boundary line commenced, as such district chapelry is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed and is thereon coloured red.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed in Trinity Church aforesaid, and that the fees to arise therefrom should belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Plymouth :

"That the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned; in testimony whereof, he has signed and sealed this representation :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made; and the recommendations of the said Commissioners, in respect of the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, and the fees arising therefrom, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts, and registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
