AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Militia," it was enacted "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time, where with the advice of Her Privy Council she might see fit so to do, to extend or reduce the period of training and exercise of all or any part of the Militia, so as the whole period of training or exercise in any year should not exceed fifty-six days, nor be less than three days."

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to extend the period of training and exercise of the Militia in the present year, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the period of training and exercise of all the regiments and corps of the Militia in England and Wales be extended for and during the present year, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, so that the whole period of training and exercise of the said regiments and corps in the said year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, shall not in any case exceed fifty-six days, nor be less than three days; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and be transmitted to the respective Lieutenants of the counties, ridings, and places in England and Wales, in order that they should proceed upon the same in pursuance of the directions of the said Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, by an Order in Council, to direct that all or any part of the provisions of the said Act, or of the rules to be made in pursuance thereof, shall apply to all or any Court or Courts of Record in England or Wales, and that within one month after such Order shall have been made and published in the London Gazette, such provisions and rules respectively shall extend to and apply in manner directed by such Order; and that any such order may be in like manner, from time to time, altered or annulled:

And whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the provisions of the said Act, and the rules made and to be made in pursuance thereof (with the exceptions hereinafter stated), should apply to the Court of Record, in the borough of Cambridge, called the Court of Pleas:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that within one month after this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, the provisions of the said "Common Law Procedure Act, 1852," and the rules made, and to be made, in pursuance thereof (except sections, 97, 98, and 120, of the said Act, rules 57, 81 to 111, both inclusive, 115 to 117, both inclusive, 123 to 134, both inclusive, 173 and 175, and except such parts of the said Act as relate to Special Juries, Terms, and Pleadings between the tenth day of August, and the twenty-fourth day of October, in any year), shall apply to the said Court of Record of the borough of Cambridge, called the Court of Pleas.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, it was enacted that when and as often as it should seem expedient to the justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of the said Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under the said Act, it should be lawful for the said justices, in general quarter session assembled, to resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof should be given to the coroner or coroners of such county as hereinafter provided; and that the clerk of the peace should give notice of any such resolution to every coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said justices into consideration, and the justices should confer with every such coroner who should attend the meeting of the justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of such proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as should appear to the justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of this Act; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, should be certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two or more of the justices present when such petition should be agreed to, and the clerk of the peace for such county should forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every coroner for such county.

And whereas the justices of the county of Northumberland, in quarter sessions assembled, did, on the nineteenth day of October one thousand eight hundred and fifty three, resolve that a petition should be presented to Her Majesty, praying that the said county should be divided into two districts, for the purposes of the aforesaid Act, and thereupon the consideration of the said petition was adjourned according to the provisions of the said Act, and due notice of the said resolution, and of the time when the same would be taken into consideration, was duly given to the existing coroner for the said county; and the said petition was afterwards duly taken into consideration and agreed to by the justices of the said county, in pursuance of the said Act; and the Clerk of the Peace for the said county did forthwith, on the said petition being agreed to, give a true copy thereof, certified under his hand, to the existing coroner for the said county; and whereas the said petition hath been certified to Her Majesty, under the hands and seals of two of the justices present when the same was agreed to.

And whereas the said petition sets forth: "That the county of Northumberland is a very large district in point of area, and considerable in point of population; that hitherto there have been two coroners elected for the whole county; that one of the coroners is lately dead; that Her Majesty's justices of the peace, in quarter sessions assembled, on the nineteenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, came to a resolution that it was expedient, for the purpose of saving great and unnecessary expenses in the election of a coroner, to divide the county of Northumberland into two districts, for the purpose of carrying into effect a statute passed in the session of the seventh and eighth of Her Majesty's reign, cap. ninety-two, intituled 'An Act to amend the law respecting the office of county coroner,' and that such districts should be the Northern and Southern Divisions of the said county, as they are thereafter more particularly described; that, besides the saving of the expense of elections contemplated by the statute, by adopting the said resolution, much cost will also be saved to the county, by not having in many cases to bring the coroner from great distances, and to parishes and townships, by the constables thereof not having to travel such distances to the coroner to give notice of deaths; that notice of the above resolutions has been given to Stephen Reed, Esquire, the present coroner for the said county, and that the said petition would be taken by the said justices into consideration on the third day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, at the court-house at Morpeth, in the said county; that hitherto the two coroners of the said county have, by a common understanding, confined themselves to the said districts, although, in point of law, each of them had jurisdiction over the whole county, and each of them were elected by the freeholders thereof; that the petitioners consider that it would be better to legalize this subdivision under the statute above referred to, and that the description of the districts and the boundaries thereof, which it is proposed by the said petition to adopt, should be as follows; that is to say; that the Northern Division of the county of Northumberland should include the whole of the several wards of Bambrough, Coquetdale, Glendale, Morpeth and Norham, and Islandshires, but excluding therefrom the townships of Tweedmouth and Spittal, as they now by statute form part of the county of the borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and that the Southern Division should include the whole of the several wards of Tynedale, Castle, and Bedlingtonshire, but excluding therefrom the several townships of Byker, Heaton, Jesmond, Westgate, and Elswick, as they now by statute form part of the town and county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne; that another reason upon which the said petition is founded arises from the fact of the great increase of population in the southern part of the county, near to the town and county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, which population has vastly increased within the last twenty years, and that, therefore, in the southern part of the county, the duties of coroner have very much increased, so much so as to make it necessary that a coroner should reside constantly in that district of the county."

And whereas it appears to Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the customary division of the said county, mentioned in the said petition, had subsisted for more than seven years before the passing of the said Act; and whereas it has seemed fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking the said petition into consideration, to order that the said county shall be divided into two districts, hereinafter described, for the purposes of the said Act, being the same districts into which the said county hath been customarily divided as aforesaid: Now it is hereby ordered that the county of Northumberland shall be, and is hereby, divided into two districts for the purposes of the said Act; that the districts be called the Northern Division of the county of Northumberland, and the Southern Division of the county of Northumberland respectively; that the district called the Northern Division shall consist of and include the whole of the wards of Bambrough, Coquetdale, Glendale, Morpeth, Norham, and Islandshires, excluding the townships of Tweedmouth and Spittal, and that the court for the election of coroner for the said district shall be held at Alnwick; that the district called the Southern Division shall include the whole of the wards of Tynedale, Castle, and Bedlingtonshire, excluding the townships of Byker, Heaton, Jesmond, Westgate and Elswick, and that the court for the election of coroner for the said district shall be holden at Newcastle-upon-Tyne; that the district in and for which the said Stephen Reed, Esquire, usually acted before the passing of this Act, being the district called the Southern Division, shall be assigned to the said Stephen Reed, in pursuance of the said Act. And it is further ordered that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the

"Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-second day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Prebendary of Bilton, in the cathedral and metropolitan church of Saint Peter, at York, for the property belonging to him as such prebendary.

"Whereas, by and under the provisions of the said Acts, the whole of the separate estates and endowments belonging to the Prebend of Bilton, will (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), upon the first avoidance of the said prebend become absolutely vested in us, for the purposes of the said Acts, and the chief of such purposes is that of making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required:

"And whereas it was by the same Acts enacted, that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made, with the consent in writing under the hand of any prebendary of any cathedral church, for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such prebendary, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments:

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Reverend William Preston, the present holder of the said prebend, that with a view to sooner carrying into effect the purpose of the said recited Acts hereinbefore particularly mentioned, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council:

"We, therefore, with the consent of the said William Preston, testified by his having signed this scheme, humbly recommend and propose that, without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and after the day of such gazetting, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), now belonging to the said William Preston, as such holder of the said prebend as aforesaid, or to or in which he has or ought to have any estate, right, title, or interest, shall, together with all such estate, right, title, and interest therein (except as aforesaid), be and be held to be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred and conveyed by and from the said William Preston to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us for the purposes of the said Acts, subject only to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof; and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance there shall be paid by us to the said William Preston, the sum of six hundred and seventy pounds sterling; provided that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, shall, since the twenty-ninth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, have been, or shall be granted or made by the said William Preston:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of York.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Cathedral Churches of Wales," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for regulating the Cathedral Churches of Wales,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for regulating the incomes of the future deans and canons of the cathedral church of Saint David's.

"Whereas it is by the first-mentioned Act enacted, that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), such annual sums shall be determined on to be paid, and shall be accordingly paid by us, or such deductions shall be allowed to be made out of the proceeds of any suspended canonry or canonries, as, after due inquiry and calculation, shall give to the Dean of Saint David's an average annual income of seven hundred pounds, and to the canons of the said church an average annual income of three hundred and fifty pounds.

"And whereas it is by the secondly recited Act declared and enacted, that, notwithstanding such last recited provision, it shall be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, to carry such purposes, or any of them, into effect by any mode of payment or contribution, augmentation, or endowment, which may be deemed fit, as well as by the mode, in the said first recited Act specified, and that the scale of payments and receipts may, from time to time, in any case be revised, and, if need be, varied by the like authority, so as to preserve, as nearly as may be, the intended average annual incomes respectively, but not so as to affect any dean or canon in possession at the time of making any such variation.

"And whereas it is by the thirdly recited Act declared and enacted, that the average annual incomes of the dean and canons residentiary of the said cathedral church shall be of the same amounts respectively as are fixed by the said first recited Act; and that the provisions of the same Act, and of the herein secondly recited Act, respecting the augmentation of the incomes of deans and canons, shall be construed to authorize the augmentation of the incomes of the dean and canons residentiary aforesaid, out of the common fund in the said first recited Act mentioned :

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the annual incomes of the dean and of the canons in the said cathedral church of Saint David's are subject to great fluctuation and uncertainty, and do not amount on an average to the said sums of seven hundred pounds and three hundred and fifty pounds respectively; and we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry and consideration, that the following arrangement should be adopted for regulating such incomes :

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that with respect to every dean and to every canon of the said cathedral church of Saint David's, to be appointed after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, there shall be delivered to us by the treasurer of such church, in every year, so soon as conveniently may be after the annual audit of the accounts of the chapter of the said church, a correct account in writing, in such form and verified in such manner, as we shall from time to time direct, shewing every sum of money, from whatsoever source arising, which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, shall have become due and payable to such dean or canon in respect of the deanery, or of any such canonry, for the year ending on the day up to which such accounts shall have been so audited as aforesaid; and that if at any time it shall appear, by any such account, that the amount so to have become due and payable to any such dean shall exceed the sum of seven hundred pounds, or to any such canon the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, then, and in every such case, the amount of the surplus shall at the same time be paid by the said treasurer to our credit, at the Bank of England; and that upon any account so delivered being examined and approved by our treasurers for the time being, their receipt for the amount of any such surplus shall be given to the said treasurer of the said cathedral church, and shall be a good and valid discharge for the same; and that if at any time it shall appear by any such account that the amount so due and payable, in the case of any such dean, shall be less than the sum of seven hundred pounds, or in the case of any such canon less than the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds, then, and in every such case, there shall be paid by us forthwith to such treasurer, on account of such dean or canon, such a sum of money as shall make up the deficiency; and the receipt of such treasurer, countersigned by the same dean or canon, as the case may be, shall be a good and sufficient discharge for any claim which such dean or canon may have on us in respect of the average annual income to which he may be entitled for the year to which the same account relates.

"Provided always, and we further recommend and propose, that all moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, may be receivable by any dean or canon thereof succeeding upon the first vacancy of the deanery, and of each canonry, happening after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme as aforesaid, shall be included in the next yearly account to be delivered to us as aforesaid; and that the income of the dean or canon so newly appointed shall be made up or limited, as the case may be, in manner aforesaid, to such part of the sum of seven hundred pounds, or three hundred and fifty pounds respectively, and no more, as shall be proportioned according to such rate, to the period during which he shall have been appointed to such deanery or canonry.

"And that upon every subsequent vacancy of the deanery or any canonry, all the moneys which, according to the statutes and usage of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, would, if such vacancy had not taken place, have become due and payable to the dean or canon making such vacancy, out of the corporate revenues of the said cathedral church, for the year ending on the day of the next ensuing annual audit as aforesaid, shall be included in the account so to be delivered to us as aforesaid after such audit; and that the whole of any surplus above the sum of seven hundred pounds, in the case of a dean, and three hundred and fifty pounds in the case of a canon, shall be paid to us; and that in case the amount of such moneys shall be below the said sum of seven hundred pounds or three hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be, we shall not be called upon to pay in respect of such deanery or canonry, any greater sums for that year than shall together be necessary to make up the income of such deanery or canonry for that year, to seven hundred pounds or three hundred and fifty pounds, as the case may be; and that the respective incomes of seven hundred pounds to the dean, and three hundred and fifty pounds to each canon, so to be secured as aforesaid, shall, on every such vacancy as last aforesaid, be strictly apportionable between the dean or canon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the dean or canon succeeding thereto, any statute or usage of the said cathedral church, relating to the division of the corporate revenues thereof, to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said cathedral church, or the deans and canons thereof, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint David's.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 30th day of January, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to make better provision for the spiritual care of populous parishes,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property belonging to the Prebend of Cantlowes, in the cathedral church of Saint Paul, London, and which will become vested in us as hereinafter mentioned.

"Whereas it is by the said Act (amongst other things) enacted, that notwithstanding the charge by that Act created (being a charge created in favour of the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne), all the same and the like powers and rights of ownership as are possessed and enjoyed respecting and over any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments whatsoever, by any absolute owner thereof, shall be enjoyed by us with respect to and over all or any lands, tithes, rent-charges, tenements, or other hereditaments vested, or liable to be vested, in us under certain Acts therein mentioned (being the Acts under which the property hereinafter described will become vested in us), and may, subject to the provisions of the same Acts, and of the now reciting Act, be exercised by us, by proper instruments in writing duly executed according to law; but in the case of any such lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other hereditaments not actually in our possession, with the consent of the respective holders thereof, testified by their being made parties to such instruments, with a certain proviso respecting the application of every sum of money received as the consideration or purchase-money for the sale, transfer, or conveyance by us of any of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments, or of any estate or interest therein, and with a further proviso that none of such lands, tithes, tenements, or other hereditaments be sold, transferred, or conveyed, except by the authority of a scheme, and an Order issued by your Majesty in Council ratifying the same:

"And whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments belonging to the said Prebend of Cantlowes (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage), will become vested in us on the next avoidance of the same dignity which is now held by the Reverend Thomas Randolph, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof:

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments; and, after due consideration, it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, and so long as the said Thomas Randolph shall, as such prebendary, continue to hold the estates of the said prebend, with his consent, testified by his being made party to such deed or deeds, from time to time to sell, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, or endowments belonging to the said prebend, and which will become so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable:

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

A fixed red light will be exhibited at sunset on the 6th of February, 1854, and on each succeeding day from sunset to sunrise, in the lighthouse recently erected on the South Point of Green Island (the southernmost of the Fox Islands in Penobscot Bay).

This light is intended to serve as a guide to vessels in entering Carver's Harbour and Hurricane Sound.

The illuminating apparatus is a 5th order Fresnel lens, illuminating  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the arc of the horizon.

The tower is joined to the end of the keeper's dwelling; is constructed of red brick; and its base is 68 feet above ordinary high-water mark. The height of the focal plane above the ground is 24 feet, and the light should be visible, in good weather, from the deck of a vessel ten feet above the water, at a distance of 15 nautical or 17 statute miles. The roof of the lantern is painted black.

West end of Martinicus Island, S.S.W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W., distance 11 miles.

Hurricane or Deadman's Ledge (covered at high water), W. by S., distance  $\frac{1}{2}$  mile Saddleback Lighthouse, E. by S., distance 7 miles.

By order of the Lighthouse Board,

W. B. FRANKLIN,

Corps Topl. Engineers, and Inspector
1st L. H. District.

Portland, Me., Dec. 8, 1853.

Sailing Directions for Carver's Harbour and Hurricane Sound, (Maine.)

WHEN the lighthouse recently erected on Heron Neck is lighted (on the 6th February next,) the following directions, furnished by Capt. R. King Porter, for Carver's Harbour (a safe anchorage for vessels drawing 10 feet of water and about 2 miles from Heron Neck Lighthouse;) and for Hurricane Sound (which is formed by Green's Island—on which the lighthouse stands—on the east, and a range of islands and ledges on the west side, a safe roadstead for vessels of any class,) will be found useful to mariners.

FOR "CARVER'S HARBOUR."

Bring the light to bear north-east and run for it. Deep water within a ship's length of the rocks. Half a mile from the light you will pass to the eastward of Deadman's Ledge (the Eastern Hurricane Ledge), dry at low water. One-fourth of a mile south by west from the light lies Heron Neck Ledge always above water. Pass between the light and the ledge (a narrow but deep channel), and you will open Deep Cave on Green's Island—keep on in an easterly direction, giving the different points of Green's Island a berth of a cable's length. When up with the S.E. point, you will be near a dry ledge one-eighth of a mile from the point—leave it on the starboard hand—Carver's Harbour will then be in sight, and may be known by the houses around the harbour bearing N.E. by N. distant one mile. Give the east point of Green's Island, opposite the first house, a small berth and run for the harbour, leaving some dry ledges on the starboard hand. Keep nearest the starboard shore at the entrance of the harbour to avoid some sunken ledges on the opposite side. Anchor in the middle of the harbour in 10 feet water at low tide—soft bottom—good holding ground and good anchorage.

FOR "HURRICANE SOUND."

Bring Heron Neck Light to bear N.E., and run for it; when half a mile from the light, you will pass Deadman's ledge, which you will leave on your port hand, and when midway between the ledge and the light you will be in the entrance to Hurricane Sound, which runs in a northerly direction.

Keep midway between Green's Island on the east, and the islands and ledges on the west side, and when about a mile and a half above the entrance you will be near a dry rock; pass to the eastward of it, and anchor when you have room to give the rock a good berth.

There is anchorage all the way up the sound, but the water is deep until you get above the rock.

By order of the Lighthouse Board,

W. B. FRANKLIN,

Corps Topl. Engineers, and Inspector
1st L. H. District.

Portland Me, December 8, 1853.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Proposed changes of Lights at Cape Hatteras, Body's Island, and Ocracoke (Coast of North Carolina).

DURING this month (December) a temporary light will be placed outside of the lighthouse tower at Cape Hatteras, about 10 feet below the present lantern (100 feet above the level of the sea) equal in power and brilliancy to the light now exhibited at that point.

The present light will be extinguished at the time of lighting the temporary light, for the purpose of elevating the tower, preparatory to placing upon it a First Order Fresnel Flashing Lens Light.

During the month of March next, a First Order Fresnel Flashing White Light will be exhibited from the Cape Hatteras Tower, from an elevation of about 150 feet above the level of the sea, which should be visible under favourable circumstances, from an elevation of 10 feet above the level of the sea, about  $18\frac{1}{2}$  nautical miles.

This light will be recognized, by observing that in every 20 seconds of time there will be an eclipse of 12 seconds' duration, followed by a brilliant flash of 8 seconds' duration—or in the same proportion, in every 15 seconds of time, there will be an eclipse of 9 seconds' duration, followed by a brilliant flash of 6 seconds' duration.

The approximate position of the Cape Hatteras Light-house, as determined by the coast survey, is—

Lat.  $35^{\circ} 15' 11''$  north.

Long.  $75^{\circ} 30' 33''$  west from Greenwich.

BODY'S ISLAND LIGHT.

Simultaneously with the exhibition of the flashing light from the Cape Hatteras Tower, the revolving light at Body's Island, about 32 nautical miles to the northward of Cape Hatteras, will be changed to a—

Fourth Order Fresnel Fixed White Light, varied by alternate red and white flashes.

The focal plane of this light will be 50 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible under favourable circumstances, from an elevation of 10 feet above the level of the sea, at a distance of about 12 nautical miles.

The approximate position of Body's Island Light as determined by the Coast Survey, is—

Lat. 35° 47' 20".5 north.
Long. 75° 31' 20" west from Greenwich.

OCRACOKE LIGHT.

At the same time the present revolving light at Ocracoke, about 23½ nautical miles to the southward and westward of Cape Hatteras Lighthouse, will be changed to a—

with a focal plane 75 feet above the level of the sea, and should be seen under favourable circumstances from an elevation of 10 feet above the level of the sea, about 13½ nautical miles.

The approximate position of Ocracoke Lighthouse, as determined by the coast survey, is—

Lat. 35° 06' 31".6 north.
Long. 75° 58' 27".4 west from Greenwich.

A more minute and detailed description of these towers, buildings, appearance by day, and the characteristic distinctions of the lights, will be published hereafter, and the precise day upon which these changes will be made, will be stated—

A dangerous shoal, with only 9 feet water upon it at low tide, with the Cape Hatteras Lighthouse bearing N. 37° W. (true) distant 8½ nautical miles, lies off this point, and mariners should be careful not to run their vessels, in bad weather and especially at night, into less than fifteen fathoms approaching from the northward and eastward, and twelve to eleven fathoms approaching from the southward and westward.

Secretary.
