

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it has been mutually agreed between the said John Jones, George Edward Haviland, and Thomas Nattle Grigg, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said Ashhurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, at Bodle-street Green aforesaid, should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of Warbleton, for the first two turns or rights of presentation and appointment as aforesaid which may happen, that the next or third turn or right of presentation and appointment as aforesaid which may so happen should belong to, be vested in, and be exercised by, the rector or incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of Herstmonceux, and that all subsequent turns or rights of presentation and appointment as aforesaid which may so happen should belong to, be vested in, and be exercised by, the rectors or incumbents for the time being of the said parish churches of Warbleton and Herstmonceux alternately, the said rector or incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of Warbleton having and enjoying two successive turns or rights of presentation and appointment as aforesaid for every single turn by the said rector or incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of Herstmonceux.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church of St. John the Evangelist, at Bodle-street Green, in the parish of Herstmonceux, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation, in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and that the right of presentation and appointment to the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the rector or incumbent for the time being of the parish church of Warbleton for the first two turns or rights of presentation and appointment as aforesaid which may happen, that the next or third turn or right of presentation as aforesaid which may so happen shall belong to, and be exercised by, the rector or incumbent for the time being of the parish church of Herstmonceux, and that all subsequent turns or rights of presentation and appointment as aforesaid shall belong to, and be exercised by, the rectors or incumbents of the said parish churches of Warbleton and Herstmonceux alternately, the said rector or incumbent for the time being of the said parish church of Warbleton having and enjoying two successive turns or rights of presentation and appointment as aforesaid for every single turn by the said rector or incumbent for the time being of the parish church of Herstmonceux, the said rectors or incumbents being the persons mentioned in such representation; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the ninth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words and figures following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the parish of Saint Mary, in the city and county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and of the parish of Hawarden, in the county of Flint, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate certain contiguous portions of the said two parishes and to form the same into one consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes for the consecrated church of the Holy Epiphany, at Lache, in the said parish of Saint Mary Chester, under the power for such purpose contained in the ninth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for the further amendment of the Church Building Acts,' and that such proposed consolidated chapelry should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Lache-cum-Saltney,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say:

"The boundary commences at a point in the centre of the stream of the River Dee, where the parishes of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill and Hawarden meet, and thence proceeds in an easterly direction to the southern bank of the said river, at the north-western corner of a field marked No. 8 in the Tithe Commutation Map of Saint Mary's parish, where a ditch falls into the river dividing the said field from a field marked No. 31 on the same map, thence following the western fence of field No. 8 in a south-easterly direction till it abuts upon another field No. 25, the hedge of which field it follows westerly along a steep brow to the western corner of the last-named field No. 25, adjoining 'Red-hill,' and thence along the south-western fence of the same field No. 25, till it reaches the point where Hough-green and Red-hill meet, from which point it crosses in a straight line southerly the Brick Kiln ground on Hough-green across the Chester and Mold Turnpike-road direct to the eastern corner of a field marked No. 43 in the said tithe-map, and proceeds along the south-eastern fence thereof, and also of field No. 42, in a south-westerly direction, until it reaches the eastern fence of field No. 41, which last-mentioned fence it follows, and also the eastern fence of field No. 67, and crossing the Lache-road or lane in the same direction, proceeds along the eastern fence of another field No. 100, and also of
