

No. 99, and then along the southern fence of the said field No. 99, until it reaches and follows the eastern fence of field No. 14, and then along the southern fence of No. 14 to the eastern fence of field No. 18, and along that fence southerly, until it abuts on field No. 17, which last-mentioned field it crosses in a southerly direction to the point where a little runlet passes under the Chester and Wrexham Turnpike-road, which runlet it follows along the eastern fence of field No. 18, to its south-eastern angle, where the boundary of the parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill meets the boundary of Eccleston Parish, thence following the boundary of the parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill and the parish of Eccleston in a south-westerly direction, until they meet the parish of Dodleston, then in a northerly direction along the boundary line of the said parishes of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill and Dodleston, until it reaches the north-western angle of the meadows, called 'Lache Eyes,' at a point called 'Mitchell's Nooke,' No. 19 on the said tithe-map where it turns easterly, still following the boundary of the same parish of Saint Mary-on-the-Hill, till it comes to a brook at the north-eastern corner of field No. 94, along the middle of which brook the boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry proceeds (at the western side of fields Nos. 441, 445 and 457, in Hawarden Parish), north-easterly to the point where a lane, called Sandy-lane, joins the Chester and Mold Turnpike-road, and thence along the middle of the same brook, passing under the said turnpike-road, by a bridge called Stone Bridge, until such brook reaches a flood gate of eight sluices, from the centre of which flood gate the boundary proceeds to the middle of the River Dee, along the middle of which said river it proceeds in an easterly direction, until it again reaches the point where the boundary line of the said consolidated chapelry of Lache-cum-Saltney commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map hereto annexed, and is thereon coloured blue and pink.

"That the consents of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Chester, of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of the said diocese of Saint Asaph, of the Most Honourable Richard, Marquis of Westminster, patron of the parish church of the said parish of Saint Mary, Chester, and of Sir Stephen Richard Glynné, of Hawarden Castle, in the county of Flint, Baronet, patron of the parish church of the said parish of Hawarden have been obtained to the formation of the said consolidated chapelry of Lache-cum-Saltney, as required by the Act and section hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Richard, Marquis of Westminster, and Sir Stephen Richard Glynné, as such respective patrons as aforesaid, testified as aforesaid (with the approbation of your Majesty's said Commissioners, testified as hereinafter mentioned, and of the said John, Bishop of Chester, and Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate, to serve the said church of the Holy Epiphany, at Lache aforesaid should be vested in, belong to, and, whenever occasion may require, be exercised by, the Bishop of the said diocese of Chester for the time being.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned, for the consecrated church of the Holy Epiphany, at Lache, in the parish of Saint Mary, Chester (to be called "the Consolidated Chapelry of Lache-cum-Saltney), be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation in respect of the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate, to serve the said church, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Act; and that the right of presentation and nomination to the said church shall belong to, and be exercised by, the bishop of the diocese of Chester for the time being, he being the person mentioned in such representation; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrars of the dioceses of Chester and Saint Asaph respectively.
