The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division, of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division, into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place;

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Southampton, in quarter sessions assembled, on the thirty-first day of December last, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, representing that the number of polling places for the Isle of Wight, in the said county, is insufficient, and praying that the town of Ventnor may be a polling place for the said isle, within which such town is situate;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the town of Ventnor shall be a polling place for the Isle of Wight; and that the justices of the peace for the county of Southampton, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide the said Isle of Wight into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act for the more easy recovery of small debts and demands in England," it is among other things enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said Act be put in force in such county or counties as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, from time to time, should seem fit, and to divide the whole or part of any such county (including all counties of cities, and counties of towns, cities, boroughs, towns, ports, and places, liberties and franchises therein contained or thereunto adjoining), into districts, and to order that the County Court should be holden for the recovery of debts and demands under the said Act, in each of such districts, and from time to time to alter such districts as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, should seem fit, and to order, from time to time, that the number of districts, in and for which the Court should be holden, should be increased until the whole of such county should be within the provisions of the said Act, and, with the advice aforesaid, to alter the place of holding of any such Court, or to order that the holding of any such Court should be discontinued, or to consolidate any two or more of such districts, and, from time to time, with the advice aforesaid, to declare by what name and in what towns and places the County Court should be holden in each district:

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by an Order in Council, of the ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-seven, to order that the said Act should be put in force in the counties and places therein specified, among which counties the county of Glamorgan was included, and the town of Cardiff was named as a place for holding one of the Courts of the said county of Glamorgan, and the town of Merthyr Tydfil was named as a place for holding another of the Courts of the said county:

And whereas by certain other Acts made and passed in the thirteenth, in the fourteenth, and in the sixteenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, the provisions of the said recited Act have been amended and extended:

And whereas it hath been represented that it would be of advantage to the public that County Courts should be holden at Aberdare and Newbridge, in the county of Glamorgan, for the parishes and places thereunto adjacent:

Her Majesty having taken the premises into consideration, is thereupon pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six—

The parishes of Aberdare and Penderrin, and hamlet of Rhigos in the parish of Ystradysfodwg, now in the district of the County Court of Glamorgan, holden at Merthyr Tydfil, shall cease to be within the district of the said Court, holden at Merthyr Tydfil, and shall form the district of a County Court to be holden at Aberdare aforesaid, and a County Court for the purposes of the above-mentioned Acts shall accordingly, from and after such day, be held at Aberdare aforesaid, by the name of the "County Court of Glamorgan, holden at Aberdare," for the said parishes of Aberdare and Penderrin, and the hamlet of Rhigos in the parish of Ystradysfodwg; and that, from and after the said thirty-first day of May, the parishes of Llantwitvairdre, Llantrissaint, and Eglwysilan, now in the district of the County Court of Glamorgan, holden at Cardiff, shall, with the exception of the hamlet of Energlyn in the parish of Eglwysilan, cease to be within the district of the said Court, holden at Cardiff, and the parishes of Llanwyno and Llanfabon, now in the district of the County Court of Glamorgan, holden at Merthyr Tydfil, shall cease to be within the district of the said Court, holden at Merthyr Tydfil, and the above parishes and places shall form the district of a County Court, to be holden at Newbridge aforesaid; and a County Court for the purposes of the above-mentioned Acts shall accordingly, from and after such day, be held at Newbridge aforesaid, by the name of the "County Court of Glamorgan, holden at Newbridge," for the said parishes of Llanwyno, Llanfabon, Llantwitvairdre, Llantrissaint, and Eglwysilan, except the hamlet of Energlyn therein.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS a Petition has been presented to Her Majesty in Council from Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of Norfolk, in quarter sessions assembled, setting forth that the said county of Norfolk contains, according to the last census, a population of four hundred and forty-two thousand seven hundred and fourteen inhabitants, exclusive of the boroughs of Great Yarmouth, King's Lynn, and Thetford, and that it is divided into thirty-three hundreds, comprizing about seven hundred parishes; that there have been heretofore two coroners for the said county, whose powers have extended and been exercised throughout the whole of the said county, excepting the said boroughs and the liberties or franchises of the Duchy of Lancaster, the Duke of Norfolk, Sir Thomas Hare, Baronet, and Charles Watson Townley, Esquire; that the said liberties or franchises embrace eleven of the said thirty-three hundreds, the greater part of a twelfth, and about one hundred and fifty parishes, scattered over the other hundreds, the whole containing a population of one hundred and eighty-six thousand and two hundred inhabitants, as nearly as can be calculated; that one of the said county coroners has lately retired from his office, and that the county is now served by one coroner only, Mr. Edward Press, who resides in the city of Norwich; that the said petitioners have taken into their consideration the Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for amending the law respecting the office of County Coroner," and have unanimously resolved that it is expedient to divide the said county into districts for the purposes of the said Act; that in the judgment of the said petitioners it will not be necessary or desirable to divide the said county into more than two districts, one of them to comprize the two hundreds of Freebridge Lynn, and Freebridge Marshland (excepting the seven parishes of Castleacre, Congham, Flitcham, Gayton, Grimstone, Harpley, and Tilney Saint Lawrence), and the other to comprize the rest of the county not lying within any of the above-named liberties or franchises; that the said two hundreds of Freebridge Lynn and Freebridge Marshland are entirely isolated from the rest of the county jurisdiction by the intervening liberties or franchises, and will for that reason form, in the opinion of the said petitioners, a convenient and desirable district; that the said petitioners have conferred with Mr. Press, who is now, as stated in the said petition, the only county coroner, and although the secondly proposed district will embrace a larger area, and a more numerous population, yet that it may nevertheless, by means of the existing railways in the county, be efficiently served by one coroner residing in the centre of it; and humbly praying that Her Majesty would be pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that the said county be divided into the two districts proposed in the said petition; that the former of the said districts may be named the Lynn District, and the latter the Norwich District; that the town of King's Lynn and the Shirehouse at Norwich Castle, may be determined to be the respective places at which the Courts for the election of coroners shall be holden; and that Her Majesty would further be pleased to direct the issue of a writ de coronatore eligendo for authorizing the election of a coroner for the Lynn District, leaving it to the said petitioners, under the powers of the said Act of Parliament to assign the Norwich District to Mr. Press :

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, has been pleased to comply with the prayer of the said petition :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said county of Norfolk be divided into the said two districts in the said petition proposed; that the former of the said districts shall be named the Lynn District, and the latter the Norwich District; that the town of King's Lynn and the Shire-house at Norwich Castle shall be the respective places at which the Courts for the election of coroners shall be holden; and that a writ de coronatore eligendo shall issue for the election of an additional coroner for the said county.

Whereas by an Order in Council of the thirteenth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the churchyards of All Saints, the Holy Trinity, and St. Peter, DORCHESTER, and such period has since been extended to the twenty-third of this instant April, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; now, therefore, it is ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that now existing vaults in the said churchyards which can be opened without disturbing soil which has been already buried in, be exempted from the operation of such Order, on condition that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal, four inches in the least in thickness, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work cemented in an air-tight manner.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the seventh day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be forthwith discontinued in the old portion of Saint Mary's Churchyard, EALING, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied so as to except family vaults and graves ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments be allowed on the following conditions ; namely: that when required such vaults and graves be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches at the least in thickness, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented ; and that burials in such family vaults and graves be restricted to the bodies of the husbands, wives, parents, and unmarried children of those already buried therein.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued in the old portion of the churchyard of KEW, Surrey, from and after the first of July in that year, and it seems fit that such Order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be permitted in now existing vaults and brick graves in the said churchyard, provided that, when required for use, such vaults and graves be opened without disturbing soil that has been buried in, and that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the first of May last, burials were regulated in the churchyard of St. Paul, MANNINGHAM, in Bradford, in the county of York, and directed to be discontinued therein (except in then existing family brick graves), from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered in lieu thereof, that interment in the said churchyard be discontinued except in family bricked graves in which each coffin shall be embedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an air-tight manner, and except in other graves never previously opened.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the seventh of December last, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first of October next, in the burial-ground of the Independent Chapel, in STONY STRATFORD, and it seems fit that so much of the said Order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the use of the vaults and brick graves in the said burial-ground be still allowed after the said first of October, provided that the said vaults and brick graves, when required for use, be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in ; that each coffin be embedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented, and that no coffin be buried without a covering of four feet of earth, measuring to the general surface of the ground.

Norfolk-street and North-row, Park-lane, and Bury-street, St. James's.

The Valuable Leasehold Property of the late Hugh Reilly, Esq.

MR. V. J. COLLIER has received directions to sell by auction, at the Mart, London, on Friday, the 25th of April, at twelve o'clock, in lots, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Reilly v. Reilly, extensive leasehold property, comprising the dwelling-house lately occupied by the deceased, situate No. 3, North-row, within a few yards of Park-lane, held for 30 years, at an annual ground-rent of £20; a family residence, eligibly situate No. 8, Norfolk-street, Park-lane, held for 32½ years, at an annual ground-rent of £20; several sets of coach-houses, stabling, and premises, situate in Harrison's-yard, Wood's Mews, in the rear of Norfolk-street, held for 29 years, at low rents; the spacious premises distinguished as No. 18, North-row, in the rear of the Bricklayers' Arms, Park-street, comprising double coach-house, harness-room, a very superior six-stalled stable, and loose box, with dwelling-rooms and lofts over, yard, and premises (in hand); also a capital four-stalled stable adjoining, connected with the livery-yard of Mr. Sheward, in Green-street, to whom it is let until Midsummer, 1860, at the low annual rent of £21, the whole held for 19½ years, at an annual ground-rent of £20; and a roomy dwelling-house, No. 40, Bury-street, Saint James's, with three floors of workshops in the rear, having a back entrance, held for 16½ years, at the low rent of £73 10s. per annum.

Nearly the whole of the above property has been untenanted for many years, and therefore requires some outlays in repairs; but its eligible situation and capability of improvement render it a promising investment, particularly as most of the premises are held under the Marquis of Westminster, who would doubtless grant an extension of the several leases on advantageous terms to improving tenants.

Particulars may be obtained of Messrs. Norris and Sons, Solicitors, No. 2, Bedford-row; at the Mart; and of Mr. V. J. Collier, No. 3, Moorgate-street.
