AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of June, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," as enlarged by the first section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts," have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district chapelry of Smethwick (heretofore assigned or taken out of the parish of Harborne), in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Matthew, situate in the said district chapelry of Smethwick, under and by virtue of the power or authority contained in the sixteenth section of an Act of Parliament passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the first section of an Act of Parliament passed in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to further amend the Church Building Acts," and that such proposed district should be named 'THE DISTRICT CHAPELRY OF SAINT MATTHEW, SMETHWICK,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned, that is to say:

"The District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Smethwick, is bounded by a line commencing on the south from the point where the Dudley and Oldbury Road to Birmingham crosses the boundary line of the Parish of Saint Martin, Birmingham, and from such point proceeding along the middle of that road north-westerly and northerly, until it reaches a brook called Thimble

Mill Brook, then proceeding north-easterly along the middle of that brook until it reaches the road leading from Smethwick to Birmingham and Handsworth, thence proceeding easterly along the middle of that road until it again meets the said Thimble Mill Brook and the boundary line of the Parish of Handsworth, and proceeding along such boundary line southerly until it reaches the boundary line of the said Parish of Saint Martin, Birmingham, then proceeding south-westerly along such boundary line as far as the Dudley and Oldbury Road to the point where the boundary line of the said District Chapelry of Saint Matthew, Smethwick, commenced, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map hereto annexed, and is therein coloured green.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent, that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the church of Saint Matthew, Smethwick aforesaid; and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the minister or incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a particular district to the consecrated church of SAINT MATTHEW, situate in the district chapelry of Smethwick, to be named "The District Chapelry of SAINT MATTHEW, SMETHWICK," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners in respect of the publication of banns and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials in the said church, and of the fees to arise therefrom, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts; and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lichfield.
