

War-Office, June 23, 1857.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers, Non-Commissioned Officer, and Men of Her Majesty's Army, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration,—in accordance with the rules laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant of the 29th January, 1856,—on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them before the enemy during the late War, as recorded against their several names, viz. :

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
4th Regiment	Private Thomas Grady Date of Acts of Bravery : 18th October, 1854 22nd November, 1854	For having, on the 18th October, 1854, volunteered to repair the embrasures of the Sailors' Battery on the Left Attack, and effected the same, with the assistance of one other volunteer, under a very heavy fire from a line of batteries. For gallant conduct on the 22nd November, 1854, in the repulse of the Russian attack on the advanced trench of the Left Attack, when, on being severely wounded, he refused to quit the front, encouraging, by such determined bearing, the weak force engaged with the enemy to maintain its position.
19th Regiment	Private Samuel Evans Date of Act of Bravery, 13th April, 1855	For volunteering to go into an embrasure, thereby rendering very great assistance in repairing damage, under a very heavy fire from the enemy, 13th April, 1855.
Royal Artillery	Colonel Collingwood Dickson, C.B. Date of Act of Bravery, 17th October, 1854	For having, on the 17th of October, 1854, when the batteries of the Right Attack had run short of powder, displayed the greatest coolness and contempt of danger, in directing the unloading of several wagons of the Field-Battery, which were brought up to the trenches to supply the want; and having personally assisted in carrying the powder barrels under a severe fire from the enemy.
Royal Artillery	Captain Gronow Davis Date of Act of Bravery, 8th September, 1855	For great coolness and gallantry in the attack on the Redan, 8th September, 1855, on which occasion he commanded the spiking party, and after which he saved the life of Lieutenant Sanders, 30th Regiment, by jumping over the parapet of a sap; and proceeding twice some distance across the open, under a "murderous" fire, to assist in conveying that officer, whose leg was broken, and who was otherwise severely wounded, under cover; and repeated this act in the conveyance of other wounded soldiers from the same exposed position.
Royal Artillery	Serjeant Daniel Cambridge... Date of Act of Bravery, 8th September, 1855	For having volunteered for the spiking party at the assault on the Redan, 8th September, 1855, and continuing therewith, after being severely wounded; and for having, in the after part of the same day, gone out in front of the advanced trench, under a heavy fire, to bring in a wounded man, in performing which service, he was himself severely wounded a second time.
