AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of July, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, section three, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the twenty-eight day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in the words and figures following that is to say :

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, section three, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, section one, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation with respect to an alteration of the boundaries of the district chapelry called 'The Trinity District,' in the county of Kent, and diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and duly published in the London Gazette, on the fourth day of the following month of June, the said Trinity District was duly assigned out of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, in the said county and diocese.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would be expedient that the boundaries of such district should be altered by adding thereto a portion of the adjacent parish of Saint James, Dover, in the said county and diocese as herein-after mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury (who is patron in right of his see of the said district chapelry, called Trinity District, and of the said parish of Saint James, Dover), and of the Reverend William Edward Light, Incumbent of the said parish of Saint James, Dover, and of the Reverend Lewis Borrett White, Incumbent of Trinity District aforesaid, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed these presents, we beg leave to represent that it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said district chapelry, called Trinity District, shall hereafter be altered by the addition to such district chapelry, of all that part of the said parish of Saint James, Dover, which is situated to the south, west, and south-west, of an imaginary line, commencing at a point on the sea shore, opposite to the middle of the roadway or passage between the premises, known as Marsh's Baths, and the house, numbered 1, in Waterloocrescent, and thence proceeding along the middle of such roadway or passage and of the roadway leading thence to the street, called the New Bridge, and also along the middle of such last-mentioned street, until it crosses the boundary between the said parish of Saint James, and the parish of Saint Mary, Dover, as the same is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereunto annexed.

"And we humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed addition and alteration be accordingly made and effected agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the like advice, to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of July, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit ;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed ;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed as follows, viz. :

In the churchyard of BALDOCK, Herts, from the first of July instant to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ;

In All Saints' Churchyard, in Christ Churchyard, and in Holy Trinity Churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of the Ebenezer and Mares Green Independent Chapels, and of the Wesleyan Chapel, all in WEST BROMWICH, from the first of July instant to the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight ;

In Saint Giles's Churchyard, WILLENHALL, from the first of July to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven ;

And whereas by an Order in Council of the sixth of May last (varying a former Order), interments were directed to be discontinued in the Roman Catholic Burial-ground, FAIRSWORTH, Manchester, from and after the first of this instant July, unless the ground were effectually drained to the depth of seven feet at the least, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that interments in the said burial-ground be discontinued from and after the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, unless the ground be effectually drained, as above mentioned.
