May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the borough of Boston, in the county of Lincoln, in Common Council assembled, desire most respectfully to present to your Majesty and to His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, the assurance of our cordial and heart-felt congratulations upon the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia.

We gratefully acknowledge that by the favour of Divine Providence your Majesty has for a period of twenty years watched over the welfare of your people with more than parental solicitude, and in recalling to our minds the multiplied events which have marked this lapse of time, we find ever-increasing cause to admire the exalted virtues which have uniformly adorned your Majesty's character.

Identified with this country in religious sentiments, and inheritor, together with ourselves, of the blessings which have sprung from the Great Reformation, the name of Prussia awakens within our breasts many kindling recollections. This fresh bond of union with one of the Great Powers of Europe, holds forth to us the bright prospect for our children and our children's children, of a long and peaceful continuance of that prosperity which it is our happiness to enjoy. And in the spirit of devoted reliance upon "Him who seeth not as man seeth," we desire to implore for the Princess Royal and Her Illustrious Husband, for your Majesty and the Prince Consort, the Prince of Wales, and the other members of the Royal Family, and for our country, the choicest blessings of Heaven upon this auspicious Marriage.

A proportional part of the price per bushel of wheat will be paid for any weight exceeding 60 lbs. per bushel.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Their lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection.

Samples of the wheat (not less than 2 quarts), and of the cocoa (not less than 2 lbs.), must be produced by the parties tendering.

The samples produced by persons whose tenders are not accepted are requested to be taken away by them immediately after the contracts have been decided.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said Office, or to Commander Bevis, conducting the packet service at Liverpool, or to the Collector of Customs at Bristol.
