Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1860.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 3, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Court at St. James's Palace, on Wednesday, the 7th of March next, at two o'clock, for the special and exclusive reception of Officers of Volunteer Corps, who may be desirous of presenting themselves before Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS.

The Officers of Volunteer Corps who are desirous of attending the Queen's Court, at Saint James's Palace, on Wednesday the 7th of March next, should forthwith communicate their intention to the Lord Lieutenants of the several Counties in which their Corps have been established.

A list of the Officers who have thus signified their wish to be present will be transmitted by the Lord Lieutenant of each County to the Secretary of State for the War Department.

These lists, which will distinguish the rank of each Officer and the Corps or Company to which he belongs, will be forwarded to the Lord Chamberlain from the War Department, at latest, upon Monday the 5th of March.

The Lord Lieutenants and the Military Authorities summoned to attend the Court, will enter the Palace at the Entrée Entrance in Ambassadors' Court, and will pass at once to the Entrée Room.

The Officers of Volunteers will enter the Palace at the usual Corridor Entrance, opposite Marlborough House, and will be shewn at once to the room appointed for the assembling of their corps, where they will form into Companies in the order in which they are to pass the Queen. In order to facilitate this arrangement, each Officer will be furnished with a card on which is distinctly written, his County, the number of his County in the Army List, and the name and number of his Corps, Company, or Sub-division. Artillery should be specially marked on the cards of Officers of Artillery Volunteer Corps.

The doors of the Palace will be opened at half past twelve o'clock, and no Officer can be admitted after a quarter before two o'clock.

Officers will appear in the Uniforms approved for their Corps by the Lord Lieutenants.

They will pass before the Queen by Regiments, Companies, or Sub-divisions, headed by the Senior Officer present.

The Officers of each Corps will be introduced by the Lord Lieutenants of their Counties, who will join them before entering the Throne Room. In the absence of the Lord Lieutenants, they will be introduced by the Under Secretary of State for the War Department. The Officers will draw up in line before the Queen, and the Senior Officer of each Corps or Company present, will hand a card containing the names of those about to pass before Her Majesty, to the Lord Lieutenant. This Card will be passed to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read the names to the Queen. The Officers will then pass on.

The various Corps will take precedence according to their Seniority in the Army List.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 3, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Levees at St. James's Palace, upon the following days, at two o'clock, viz.:

Thursday the 23rd instant.

Wednesday the 28th of March next.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented.

In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command, that no presentations shall be made at the Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

ADDRESSES.

The same regulations apply to the presentation of Addresses or Petitions.

A card containing a statement of the object of the Addresses or Petitions, with the names of the persons who are to present them, must be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office two clear days before the Levee. Two other cards, containing similar information, are to be taken to the Levee, one to be delivered to The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to The Queen.

On these occasions no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

The members of a Deputation, who have not previously attended Court, must be presented to The Queen.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 3, 1860.

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at St. James's Palace, upon Saturday, the 24th of March next, at two o'clock.

THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS.

NEW REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED WITH REGARD TO THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE,

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in Attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen, for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no Presentations shall be made at the Drawing Rooms, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Foreign-Office, February 15, 1860.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint John Augustus Longworth, Esq., now Her Majesty's Consul at Monastir, to be Her Majesty's Consul-General in Servia.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
February 17, 1860.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Notification issued by the Neapolitan Board of Health, declaring that all vessels leaving the ports of the following countries, on or after the dates specified, will be received at Naples in free pratique :

Hanover, on or after the 24th December, 1859.

Norway, on or after the 12th December, 1859.

Sweden, on or after the 1st January, 1860.

Holland, on or after the 14th January, 1860.

Sierra Leone and Guinea, on or after the 11th October, 1859.

Spain, except Algesiras, on or after the 13th December, 1859.

Belgium, except Antwerp, on or after the 10th January, 1860.

Algiers, except Oran, on or after the 12th January, 1860.

Algesiras, on or after the 2nd January, 1860.

Antwerp, on or after the 30th January, 1860.

Oran, on or after the 1st February, 1860.

The same notice states that vessels arriving from the port of Ceuta, will be subjected to ten days' quarantine, with airing of merchandize.

War-Office, 17th February, 1860.

THE Queen having been graciously pleased, by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 13th of December, 1858, to declare that Non-Military Persons who, as Volunteers, have borne arms against the Mutineers, both at Lucknow and elsewhere, during the late operations in India, shall be considered as eligible to receive the decoration of the Victoria Cross, subject to the rules and ordinances already made and ordained for the government thereof, provided that it be established in any case that the person was serving under the orders of a General or other Officer in Command of Troops in the Field, when he performed the Act of Bravery for which it is proposed to confer the decoration;—Her Majesty has accordingly been pleased to signify Her intention to confer this high distinction on the undermentioned Gentleman, whose claim to the same has been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of an Act of Bravery performed by him in India, as recorded against his name; viz.:

Name and Designation.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Mr. William Fraser M'Donell, of the Bengal Civil Service, Magistrate of Sarun,  Date of Act of Bravery, 30th July, 1857	For great coolness and bravery on the 30th of July, 1857, during the retreat of the British Troops from Arrah, in having climbed, under an incessant fire, outside the Boat in which he and several Soldiers were, up to the rudder, and with considerable difficulty cut through the lashing which secured it to the side of the boat. On the lashing being cut, the boat obeyed the helm, and thus thirty-five European Soldiers escaped certain death.

HER Majesty has also been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Private Soldier, whose claims to the same have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in India, as recorded against their several names; viz.:

Regiment.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
56th Bengal Native Infantry	Captain William Martin Cafe  Date of Act of Bravery, 15th April, 1858	For bearing away, under a heavy fire, with the assistance of Privates Thompson, Crowie, Spence, and Cook, the body of Lieutenant Willoughby, lying near the ditch of the Fort of Ruhya, and for running to the rescue of Private Spence, who had been severely wounded in the attempt.
1st European Bengal Fusiliers	Lieutenant Francis David Millett Brown  Date of Act of Bravery, 16th November, 1857	For great gallantry at Narrioul, on the 16th November, 1857, in having, at the imminent risk of his own life, rushed to the assistance of a wounded soldier of the 1st European Bengal Fusiliers, whom he carried off, under a very heavy fire from the enemy, whose cavalry were within forty or fifty yards of him at the time.
10th Regiment (1st Battalion)	No. 2134, Private Denis Dempsey  Date of Acts of Bravery, 12th August, 1857, and 14th March, 1858	For having, at Lucknow, on the 14th March, 1858, carried a Powder Bag through a burning village, with great coolness and gallantry, for the purpose of mining a passage in rear of the enemy's position. This he did, exposed to a very heavy fire from the enemy behind loop-holed walls, and to an almost still greater danger from the sparks which flew in every direction from the blazing houses. Also, for having been the first man who entered the village of Jugdispore on the 12th August, 1857, under a most galling fire. Private Dempsey was likewise one of those who helped to carry Ensign Erskine, of the 10th Regiment, in the retreat from Arrah, in July, 1857.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, February 14, 1860.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Berne, enclosing a copy of an Act passed by the Swiss National Assembly, reducing the transit duties of Switzerland as follows:—

	New Duties.	Old Duties.
	Fixed rate irrespective of distance.	Rate proportioned to distance traversed.
Living Animals, per head ... ..	2 centimes	3 centimes to 3 francs
Various specified articles, such as timber, coal, minerals, &c., per horse load, or per cargo of 15 cwt. ... ..	10 centimes	10 centimes to 3 francs
Other articles per cwt... ..	5 centimes	5 to 30 centimes, or 3 to 5 per cent. ad valorem

Whitehall, January 16, 1860.

The Right Honourable Sir William Erle, Knt., Lord Chief Justice of Her Majesty's Court of Common Pleas, at Westminster, has appointed Henry Jenner Hillier, of Granham, near Marlborough, in the county of Wilts, Gentleman, to be one of the Perpetual Commissioners for taking the acknowledgments of deeds to be executed by married women, under the Act passed for the abolition of fines and recoveries, and for the substitution of more simple modes of assurance, in and for the county of Wilts.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.*NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY LONG SUTTON, LINCOLNSHIRE.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was on the 12th day of January, 1860, duly adopted within "The Long Sutton District," comprising all that part of the parish of Sutton St. Mary, in the county of Lincoln, lying west of the road by the Hospital Marshes, and not included in that portion of the said parish lying east of the said road, which had previously adopted the Local Government Act, 1858, and is styled "The Sutton Bridge District;" and whereas notice of such adoption by the Long Sutton District has been duly given, in writing, to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, as required by such Act; and whereas it has now been duly certified to me that a copy of such notice has been advertized for three successive weeks in the Lincolnshire Chronicle and General Advertiser, that being one of the local newspapers published and circulated in the aforesaid district of Long Sutton, and that copies of such notice have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such district, to which notices are usually affixed, and the period of twenty-one days fixed by the said Act for appeal against the resolution for the adoption of the said Act, by such district, has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice, that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said district of Long Sutton, as hereinbefore described, and that, in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution, have the force of law within such district of Long Sutton.

Given under my hand this thirteenth day of February, 1860.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.*TRANMERE, CHESHIRE.

WHEREAS a petition, under the 17th section of the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly presented to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, signed by owners and ratepayers of the township of Tranmere, in the county of Chester, in respect of not less than one-twentieth of the rateable property in such township, praying that the said township might be excluded from the operation of the aforesaid Act, notwithstanding the vote for the adoption of such Act within such township, passed on the 7th day of October, 1859; and whereas inquiry has been directed into the circumstances of the case set forth in such petition, and such inquiry has been duly made, and the result thereof reported to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State:

Now, therefore, I do issue the following order, and do determine—

That the petition aforesaid be dismissed, and that the Local Government Act, 1858, shall, from and after the date hereof, have the force of law within the said township.

Given under my hand this 16th day of February, 1860.

HENRY FENTON JADIS, Comptroller of Corn Returns.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

IRELAND—EAST COAST.

Rockabill Lighthouse, and St. John's Point Light.

THE Port of Dublin Corporation hereby give notice, that a lighthouse has been erected on Rockabill—off the east coast of County Dublin—from which a light will be exhibited during the night of the 1st day of July next, 1860, and thenceforth will be lighted every night from sunset to sunrise. Notice is also given, that from and after same date the light on St. John's Point, Dundrum Bay, will be coloured red.

Specification given of the position and appearance of the lights, by MR. HALPIN, Superintendent of Lighthouses.

Rockabill Light.

Rockabill Lighthouse is erected on the summit of the larger rock— $2\frac{1}{2}$  miles eastward of Skerries Islands—and is in lat.  $53^{\circ} 35' 45''$  N., and long.  $6^{\circ} 0' 30''$  W., bearing from Drogheda Bar S.S.E. distant 11 miles; from the Kish Lightship N. by E.,  $\frac{1}{2}$  E., distant 17 miles; from the Nose of Lambay Island N.N.E., distant  $6\frac{1}{2}$  miles; from Balbriggan Pier Light, S.E. by E., distant  $6\frac{1}{2}$  miles.

The light will be a flashing light, giving a bright flash every twelve seconds, of the natural colour white, as seen from between the bearings of S.  $\frac{1}{2}$  E. (round by the Eastward) to N.E. by N., and will be coloured red round by the westward, between the same bearings.

The illuminating apparatus is dioptric (holographical) of the 1st order, its focal plane 155 feet over the mean level of the sea, and in clear weather the white light should be seen from a distance of 18 miles.

The tower is circular, of gray limestone, and the whole height from its base to the top of its lantern is 105 feet. A range of storehouses surround the lower story of tower; the dwelling-houses are built to the north westward, on a lower level of the rock.

St. John's Point Light.

From and after the date of the exhibition of the Rockabill light (1st July, 1860), the intermitting light on St. John's Point, Dundrum Bay, will be coloured red, the times of its eclipses will continue as heretofore.

Note.—At same date with the exhibition of the new light on Rockabill, and the change in the colour of the light on St. John's Point, some alterations will be made in the distinctive characters of floating lights off the east coast of Ireland, conformably to notices this day published.

(Bearings stated are magnetic. Variation  $25\frac{1}{2}^{\circ}$  W. in 1859.)

By order,
William Lees, Secretary.

Ballast Office, Dublin,
22nd December, 1859.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Kish Bank Light Vessel.

EAST COAST OF IRELAND.

Ballast Office, Dublin,
December 22nd, 1859.

IT having been represented that the Three Lights, now exhibited from the Kish Bank light-vessel, are (when seen end on) liable to be mistaken for a Single Fixed Light, it is deemed advisable to reduce the heights of the lights exhibited from the fore and mizen masts of this vessel.

Notice is hereby given, that on the 1st July, 1860, the light now exhibited from the fore mast of the Kish Bank light-vessel, at a height of 26 feet above the level of the sea, will be lowered 6 feet, and exhibited at a height of 20 feet above the level of the sea. Also the light now exhibited from the mizen mast of this vessel, at a height of 25 feet, will be lowered 5 feet, and thenceforth exhibited at a height of 20 feet above the level of the sea.

The light exhibited from the main mast will remain as at present, at a height of 36 feet above the level of the sea, being then 16 feet above the level of the two other lights.

This light-vessel will also, from the same date, carry a black ball at each of her mast-heads.

By order,
William Lees, Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Blackwater Bank and Arklow Bank Light Vessels.

EAST COAST OF IRELAND.

Ballast Office, Dublin,
December 22nd, 1859.

IT being deemed expedient, that an alteration should be made in the character of the lights now exhibited from the Blackwater Bank and Arklow Bank light-vessels, notice is hereby given:

Blackwater Bank.

That the Two Lights now exhibited from the Blackwater Bank light-vessel, the one revolving and the other fixed, will, on the 1st July, 1860, be discontinued—and thenceforth, from sunset to sunrise, a bright fixed light will be exhibited from the main mast of this vessel, at a height of 33 feet above the level of the sea. This vessel will carry a black ball at her main mast-head.

Arklow Bank.

The fixed bright light now exhibited from the Arklow Bank light-vessel, will at the same time be discontinued, and thenceforth, from sunset to sunrise, a bright revolving light, which will attain its greatest brilliancy once in every minute, will be exhibited from the main mast of this vessel, at a height of 39 feet above the level of the sea. This vessel will carry a black ball at her main mast-head.

These changes will take place simultaneously with the exhibition of Rockabill light, and the proposed change in the colour of St. John's Point light, notice of which is this day circulated.

By order,
William Lees, Secretary.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for
396. Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the petition of Samuel Copping, of 27, Tokenhouse-yard, in the city of London, Solicitor, praying for letters patent for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of coffins,"—a communication to him from abroad by John R. Cannon, of New Albany, in the United States of America,—was deposited and recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 14th day of February, 1860, and a complete specification accompanying such petition was at the same time filed in the said office.

Patent Law Amendment Act, 1852.

Office of the Commissioners of Patents for Inventions.

NOTICE is hereby given, that provisional protection has been allowed 2409. To John Talbot Pitman, of the American and European Patent Offices, No. 67, Gracechurch-street, London, for the invention of "a method of clearing the bed of rivers."—A communication to him from abroad, by William Kennish, of the city of New York, in the State of New York, one of the United States of America.

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners, on the 21st day of October, 1859.

4. To Henry Andrew Dewar, of Union-street, Aberdeen, North Britain, M.D., for the invention of "improvements in moulding or applying india rubber as the basis of artificial teeth, and in apparatus for the same."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 2nd day of January, 1860.

81. To William Henry Orchard, of No. 15, Hatton-garden, in the county of Middlesex, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in dressing millstones for cleaning all kinds of small grain having a husk or hull."—A communication to him from abroad, by Henry Darling, of New York, in the United States of America.

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 12th day of January, 1860.

138. To William Daves, of Compton, in the county of Stafford, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of metal shoes for beasts of draught and burden, and in the machinery or apparatus to be used in such manufacture."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners, on the 19th day of January, 1860.

196. To Septimus Beardmore, of No. 27, Albion-street, Hyde-park, London, W., Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in electric telegraphs."

200. And to John Ingham, of Bradford, in the county of York, Dyer and Finisher, and George Hinchliffe, of the same place, Book-keeper, for the invention of "an instrument or apparatus to facilitate and simplify calculations, and particularly adapted for computing the weights of cotton warps, applicable also for woollen and worsted warps, and warps of other fibrous substances."

On both their petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 26th day of January, 1860.

205. To Magloire Olivier Dammann, of No. 13, Queen's-road, Haverstock-hill, St. Pancrass, London, for the invention of "an apparatus with chemical process producing fumigations for the cure of the gout, rheumatisms, nervous debility, and decease of the skin."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 27th day of January, 1860.

242. To George Albemarle Cator, of Selby, in the county of York, Gentleman, for the invention of "improvements in machinery for preparing flax, hemp, and other vegetable fibrous substances, for scutching, or other manufacturing processes."

On his petition, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners on the 30th day of January, 1860.

244. To Abraham Ripley, of No. 42, Bridge-street, Blackfriars, city of London, Engineer, for the invention of "the application of the shavings, parings, and refuse of hides and leather to a new manufacture, and in the process and mode of treating or operating the same, in order to produce the said new article or fabric."

246. To George Smith, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Ironfounder, for the invention of "improvements in monuments, fountains, lamps, letter-boxes, urinals, and such like ornamental and public erections in cast iron."

248. To Alfred Augustus Larmuth, of Salford, in the county of Lancaster, Dentist, for the invention of "certain improvements in 'healds' employed in looms for weaving."

250. To William Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, No. 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for the invention of "improved machinery for cutting dovetails."—A communication to him from abroad, by Thomas Haley Burley, Charles Henry Phelps, and William James Lowerra, all of New York, in the United States of America.

254. To Edmund Walker, of London-street, in the city of London, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in windlasses."

256. And to Ferdinand Jossa, of Sunderland, in the county of Durham, Chemist, for the invention of "improvements in the manufacture of sal ammoniac from small and refuse coals, and from the gas generated in the manufacture of coke."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners, on the 31st day of January, 1860.

258. To Thomas Hill, of Heywood, in the county of Lancaster, Boiler Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."

262. To Gustavus Palmer Harding, of Belleville, Paris, in the Empire of France, Manufacturer, for the invention of "improvements in hats and similar coverings for the head."

264. And to John William Matthews, of High-street, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, Hat Manufacturer, for the invention of "an improvement in the manufacture of hats."

On their several petitions, recorded in the Office of the Commissioners, on the 1st day of February, 1860.

267. To Abdiel Hawkins, Glyphographer, of No. 65, Hatton-garden, London, in the county of Middlesex, for the invention of "finishing machine wrought wood carvings, and also for finishing certain wood carvings rough hewn or cut by hand-labour."

269. To Louis Julien Brethon, of Tours, Departement d'Indre et Loire, France, Practical Engineer, for the invention of "an improved press for the compression of bricks, tiles, and similar articles of either plastic or other suitable compressible materials."

270. To John Yule, of Glasgow, in the county of Lanark, North Britain, Engineer, for the invention of "improvements in steam boilers."

WHEREAS the Court, authorized to act in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 29th day of December, 1859, and now in prosecution against William Levett, of No. 89, Union-street, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and No. 79, Blackfriars-road, in the said county of Surrey, Patent Wadding Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, has, on the application of the said bankrupt, appointed a public sitting under such Petition, to be held before Robert George Cecil Fane, Esq., one of Her Majesty's Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy, on the 9th of March next, at half past one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, for the allowance of the Certificate of the said bankrupt's conformity to the laws now in force concerning bankrupts, according to the form and subject to the provisions of the Statute passed in the Parliament holden in the twelfth and thirteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "The Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849;" this is to give notice, that such Court will sit, at the time and place above mentioned for the purpose aforesaid; when and where any of the creditors of the said bankrupt, who shall have given due notice of their intention to oppose, may be heard against the allowance of such Certificate, and the same will be allowed, unless cause be then and there shewn to the contrary, or such other order will be made therein as the justice of the case may require.

WHEREAS the Court authorized to act in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 16th day of November, 1859, and now in prosecution against Thomas Pratt, of No. 73, Dean-street, Soho, in the county of Middlesex, sometime passing under the name of Thomas Mowbray, of Nos. 12 and 13, Gloucester-mews East, George-street, Portman-square, Farrier, Dealer and Chapman, has, on the application of the said bankrupt, appointed a public sitting under such Petition, to be held before Edward Goulburn, Serjeant-at-Law, one of Her Majesty's Commissioners of the Court of Bankruptcy, on the 12th day of March next, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, London, for the allowance of the Certificate of the said bankrupt's conformity to the laws now in force concerning bankrupts, according to the form and subject to the provisions of the Statute, passed in the Parliament holden in the twelfth and thirteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "The Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849;" this is to give notice, that such Court will sit, at the time and place above mentioned, for the purpose aforesaid; when and where any of the creditors of the said bankrupt, who shall have given due notice of their intention to oppose, may be heard against the allowance of such Certificate, and the same will be allowed, unless cause be then and there shewn to the contrary, or such other order will be made therein as the justice of the case may require.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 14th day of November, 1859, against John Godfrey and John Daniel Delany, of Savoy-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, Printers, Dealers and Chapmen, did, on the 14th day of February, 1860, suspend the allowance of a Certificate of conformity to each of the bankrupts for twelve months from that day, and the said Court did further order that such Certificates when granted shall be of the third class; and that such Certificates will be delivered to the said bankrupts, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of such Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 18th day of October, 1859, against Frederick Henry Dench, of No. 24, High-street, Poplar, in the county of Middlesex, Currier and Leather Seller, Dealer and Chapman, did, on the 10th day of February instant, allow the said Frederick Henry Dench a Certificate of the first class; and that such Certificate will be delivered to the said bankrupt, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of such Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.

In the County Court of Oxfordshire, holden at Oxford.

THE creditors of Henry De Brion, late of High-street, Oxford, Teacher of the French Language, may receive a Dividend of 3s. 3<sup>d</sup>. in the pound, by applying at the office of the County Court aforesaid.—February 14, 1860. JOHN CREWS DUDLEY, Registrar.

In the County Court of Oxfordshire, holden at Banbury. In the Matter of the Petition of the Reverend John William Hewett, of Bloxham, in the county of Oxford, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Head Master of All Saints Grammar School, at Bloxham aforesaid, an Insolvent Debtor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Dividend, at the rate of 5s. 4d. in the pound is payable to the creditors of the above insolvent, and may be received at my office, in Banbury, any day after the 18th of February instant, between the hours of ten and four. No dividend will be paid without the production of the securities exhibited at the time of proving the debt. Executors and administrators are required to produce the probate of the will or the letters of administration under which they claim.—Banbury, February 15, 1860.

JOHN FORTESCUE, Registrar.
