"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said John, Baron Campbell, and Charles Meeking, and the said Dean and Canons of Windsor, and the said President and Scholars of Saint John Baptist College, Oxford (testified as aforesaid), that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint James, Gerrard's Cross, shall belong to and be exercised jointly by Anna Maria Reid, of No. 7, Hyde-park-place West, in the county of Middlesex, Spinster, and Louisa Reid, of No. 7, Hyde-park-place aforesaid, Spinster, their heirs and assigns.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 16th day of April, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of another Act passed in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of another Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter twenty-six, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to alter and amend the Law relating to Ecclesiastical Houses of Residence,' have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the exchange and substitution of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, now belonging to us, and also a money-payment for certain other lands, tenements, and hereditaments, now belonging to the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Winchester.

"Whereas it was, by the said recited Acts, enacted and declared that by the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and ratified by an order of your Majesty in Council, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said first recited Act any sum of money which should have been invested in the public funds, or in any other security or securities, in trust for any Ecclesiastical Body corporate, aggregate, or sole, might, upon application in writing to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, under the hand and seal of such Body corporate, and in the case of any Chapter, with the consent of the Visitor thereof, be directed to be sold, and the same should be sold accordingly, and that the produce of such sale should be applied to such purpose, and in such manner, as should appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate, and also that for any like purpose any arrangement might be made with the consent in writing under the corporate seal of any chapter for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, belonging to such chapter, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money-payment, or any money-payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, and that the aforesaid provisions relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested in trust for any ecclesiastical body corporate, did and should include and apply to all monies and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals for, or to the credit of, or in trust for any bishop, dean and chapter, dean or canon, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land or otherwise.

"And whereas the said chapter now consists of a dean and six canons, six canonries having been suspended under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, and the canonry which shall next become vacant will, on its next avoidance, be also suspended under the provisions of the same Act.

“And whereas the dean and chapter are seized in fee of certain manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, a great portion of which manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments have been heretofore demised or granted, and are now held on leases or grants for years or lives at small annual reserved rents, and upon payment of fines, and they are also beneficially interested, or otherwise entitled to certain sums of stock and cash invested or held in trust as aforesaid, and particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked A.

“And whereas we are seized in fee simple of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B, which lands, tenements, and hereditaments are now in possession.

“And whereas it has been made to appear to us that, by reason of the great antiquity of the said cathedral church, and of the want of due reparation in times past, it has become necessary for the due sustentation thereof to expend thereon forthwith such a sum of money as cannot be wholly charged on the parties now entitled to the receipt and enjoyment of the divisible corporate revenues of the said dean and chapter.

“And whereas we have ascertained that the sum so required to be forthwith expended in such repairs, and in effecting improvements conducive to the permanent security of the fabric of the said cathedral church amounts to five thousand pounds or thereabouts.

“And whereas one of the purposes of the said Acts is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls, and the said dean and chapter have proposed to us, with the consent of their visitor, that the said manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments, so belonging to them as aforesaid, should be dealt with in manner hereinafter mentioned; and we are of opinion that it would ultimately conduce as well to the improvement of the said fund as to the permanent benefit of the said dean and chapter, that the same should be dealt with accordingly.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Winchester, and of the Right Reverend Charles Richard Bishop of Winchester, as visitor of the said dean and chapter, testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals, we humbly recommend and propose that in consideration of the transfer to the said dean and chapter of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, hereby proposed to be so transferred, and in consideration of the money payments hereinafter mentioned to be paid by us, to, or on account of the said dean and chapter, and of our relinquishing all our interest, right, and claim in respect of the said suspended canonries, to and in the estates and property to be retained by the said dean and chapter, or to be hereby, or hereafter transferred to them as part of their permanent endowment, and to any participation in the rents and profits thereof, or in the money payments hereinafter mentioned, or the estates to be substituted for the same, all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments which now belong either in possession or reversion to the said dean and chapter, (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage, the premises situate within the precincts of the said cathedral church, and the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked C, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereupon), subject, nevertheless, to the liabilities and claims upon, or in respect of the same manors, lands, tithes, tenements, and hereditaments of, or to which the said dean and chapter are now liable. And all the estate and interest therein of the said dean and chapter shall, upon, and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law, other than any such duly published Order become, and be transferred to, and vested in us and our successors, and that we and they shall thereupon become absolutely seized of the same in fee, and shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof as from the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and that in consideration of, and for such transfer and conveyance the lands, tenements, and hereditaments, particularly set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed marked B, and all our estate and interest therein together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged upon the same lands, tenements and hereditaments shall, upon, and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any such duly published Order become, and be transferred to, and vested in the said dean and chapter for ever, in as full and ample a manner as if such estates had formed part of the ancient possessions of the dean and chapter, but subject nevertheless to any rights of pasturage, botes, or other liabilities to which the said land, tenements, and hereditaments are now subject or legally liable, and that they the said dean and chapter shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the said first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and that in further consideration of, and for such transfer and conveyance, we shall surrender all right and be excluded from all participation in respect of the said suspended canonries to, and in the estates and property to be retained by the said dean and chapter, or to be hereby or hereafter transferred to them as part of their permanent endowment, and in the rents and profits thereof, or in the money payments hereinafter mentioned, and that there shall be paid on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, by us to the said dean and chapter, until they shall have been put into possession of real estates as hereinafter mentioned in respect of the half-year then last past the sum of one thousand and eight hundred pounds, and that one such half-yearly payment and a proportionate part of another such half-yearly payment calculated in respect of the period between the said first day of January and the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and sixty shall be made immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and that the receipt or receipts of the receiver for the time being of the said dean and chapter shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all, or any, and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us, under the authority of this scheme when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that there shall also be paid by us to the said dean and chapter on the first day of May and the first day of November in every year, during the period which shall elapse previously to the avoidance of the canonry so to be suspended as aforesaid, an additional sum of four hundred and fifty pounds, and that one such half-yearly payment, and a proportionate part of another such half-yearly payment, calculated in respect of the period between the said first day of January and the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty, shall be made immediately upon the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and that the receipt or receipts of the receiver for the time being of the said dean and chapter shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money, as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to him by us under the authority of this scheme when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that, as a further consideration for the said transfer and conveyance, there shall be forthwith paid and expended by us in effecting such repairs of the said cathedral church, and improvements as aforesaid under the superintendence of, and according to plans and specifications to be prepared by the architect of the said dean and chapter, and to be approved by us, the said sum of five thousand pounds for which due allowance has been made in fixing the amount of the annuity to be paid to the said dean and chapter as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that as a further consideration for the said transfer and conveyance, there shall be paid by us forthwith, or from time to time, as occasion may require, the sum of eight thousand and five hundred pounds (for which due allowance has been made in fixing the amount of the annuity to be paid to the said dean and chapter as aforesaid), to be expended in the erection of farm buildings and the execution of other improvements on the property, which, according to the arrangements hereby proposed, is to form part of the permanent estate of the said dean and chapter.

"And we further recommend and propose that none of the monies or estates to be received or acquired by us under the provisions of this scheme (excepting such of the same lands, tenements, and hereditaments as are situate or arise within the counties of Denbigh, Flint, and Somerset), shall be applicable to the purposes of our common fund (except only so far as it may be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of this scheme) until or unless by and under the like authority the said dean and chapter shall have been put into possession in fee simple of real estates (of which not more than one-fourth part shall consist of copyhold rent charges and tithes or tithe rent charges) sufficient to secure to the said dean and chapter a clear annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including costs of management) of three thousand and six hundred pounds free from any claim by us on account of the shares to which we may be entitled in respect of suspended canonries.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the like consent of the said dean and chapter and of their visitor, that the said sums of stock and cash so described as aforesaid in the said schedule marked A, and also any other sums of stock or cash which may be now invested or held in trust for the said dean and chapter, shall, as soon as conveniently may be, be sold out or transferred, and the same or the proceeds thereof be paid or carried to our account at the Bank of England, to be applied towards the objects of this scheme, and particularly to investment in the purchase of any interest in the estates herein proposed to be transferred to us, or any or either of them, or of any other real estates.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the said Acts or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 16th day of April, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the Vicarage of Tugby with the chapelry of East Norton, in the county of Leicestershire and diocese of Peterborough, for the patronage of the vicarage of Methwold, in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich.

"Whereas your Majesty is seised in fee in right of the Crown of the patronage of the said vicarage of Tugby with the chapelry of East Norton, and the value of the said benefice does not exceed twenty pounds in the Queen's books.

"And whereas Henry William, Baron Berners, is seised in fee of the patronage of the said vicarage of Methwold.

"And whereas, by the third section of the firstly above recited Act, it is enacted that the word 'person' shall include any Corporation, and the Master, Provost, Warden, or head of any College or Collegiate establishment, and the Master, Guardian, or head of any hospital, and the governing body respectively entitled in his or their corporate capacity to any such patronage, and shall also extend to and include the Queen's Majesty as well in respect of patronage vested or to be vested in, or exercised by, Her Majesty in right of the Crown as in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, or of the Duchy of Cornwall; and in every case of exchange in right of the Crown where the benefice is above the yearly value of twenty pounds in the Queen's books, the assent of Her Majesty shall be testified by the signature of the Lord High Treasurer or First Commissioner of the Treasury for the time being; and when such yearly value shall be twenty pounds or under, such assent shall be testified by the signature of the Lord High Chancellor; and the assent of Her Majesty, when the patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Lancaster, shall be testified by the signature of the Chancellor of the Duchy; and when the patronage is in respect of the Duchy of Cornwall, such assent shall be testified by two or more of the principal officers of the said Duchy to be appointed in manner provided for appointment of officers to grant leases under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session held in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter five, which assent they are hereby authorized and empowered to give; and in every case of exchange in right of the Duchy of Cornwall, when there is a Duke of Cornwall, the assent of the said Duke shall be testified in writing under the Privy Seal of the said Duke first had and obtained for that purpose.

"And whereas the Right Honourable John Baron Campbell, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, and the said Henry William, Baron Berners, have signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said benefices may be exchanged as hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas we have made due enquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative values of the said benefices and patronage, and we do hereby certify to your Majesty, that, having regard to the fact that services are performed at Tugby and also at East Norton, the value of the said vicarage of Tugby, with the chapelry of East Norton, is equivalent, as nearly as may be, to the value of the said vicarage of Methwold; and that the particulars of such benefices respectively are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

"Now, therefore, with the assent of the said John, Baron Campbell, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, acting on behalf of your Majesty, and of the said Henry William, Baron Berners, in testimony whereof the said John, Baron Campbell, has signed, and the said Henry William, Baron Berners, has signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the patronage of, or the right of nomination to, the said vicarage of Tugby, with the chapelry of East Norton, shall be assigned and transferred from your Majesty and your successors in right of the Crown, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by the said Henry William, Baron Berners, his heirs and assigns for ever; and that, in exchange for the same, the patronage of, or right of nomination to, the said vicarage of Methwold shall, in like manner, be assigned and transferred from the said Henry William, Baron Berners and his heirs, and shall become and be vested in, and shall and may be exercised by your Majesty and your successors in right of the Crown.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of April, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners^s for England have, in pursuance of the Act^t of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Morton, in the parish of Llanyblodwell, in the county of Salop and diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Llanyblodwell and of the parish of Oswestry, in the same county and diocese, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the Schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parishes of Llanyblodwell and Oswestry should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said Church situate at Morton aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, the Bishop of the diocese, and Patron, in right of his see, of the vicarage and parish of Llanyblodwell aforesaid, and of the Right Honourable Edward James, Earl of Powis, the Patron of the vicarage and parish of Oswestry aforesaid (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Llanyblodwell and Oswestry, which are described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church situate at Morton aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Morton,'

"And we further represent that it has been mutually agreed between the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, and Edward James, Earl of Powis (testified as aforesaid) that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Morton shall belong to and be exercised by the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, and his successors, Bishops of the same See for ever.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Morton, being:—

"All that portion of the parish of Llanyblodwell, in the county of Salop and diocese of Saint Asaph, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is comprised within that portion of the township of Llynclys which is situate to the east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the high road leading from Oswestry to Welshpool.

"And also all those portions of the parish of Oswestry in the same county and diocese wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which are comprised within the township of Crickheath and the township of Morton, and within that part of the township of Sweeney which is situate to the south of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing such last-named township from the township of Weston Cotton, in the same parish, at a point in the middle of Gwerny-lane, and extending thence westward along the middle of such lane to the middle of the high road leading from Oswestry to Welshpool aforesaid, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of such high road for a distance of three hundred yards or thereabouts to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the Nant-y-Cawslane, and extending thence in a direction generally south-westward to and along the middle of the last-named lane and along the middle of Nant-lane, and along the middle of Gronwen-lane, to the boundary dividing the said township of Sweeney from the township of Treflach, in the same parish."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the consolidated chapelry therein mentioned for the consecrated church situate at Morton, in the parish of Llanyblodwell, in the county of Salop, be accordingly formed, and that the agreement mentioned in the said representation with respect to the right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, and that the said right of presentation and appointment of an incumbent or perpetual curate to serve the said church, shall belong to, and be exercised by, the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, and his successors, bishops of the same See, for ever.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Saint Asaph.

Arthur Helps,

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 16th day of April, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirty-first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Paul, situate at Maidstone, aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, testified by his having signed and sealed this representation, we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said new parish of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone, described in the schedule hereunto annexed, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed, should be assigned to the said church, and that the same should be named "The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Maidstone."

"And with the like consent of the said John Bird, Archbishop of Canterbury, testified as aforesaid, we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of marriage should be published, and that marriages, baptisms and churchings, should be solemnized or performed, at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect thereof should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Maidstone, being:—

"All that part of the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone (heretofore part of the parish of All Saints, Maidstone) in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, which is situate to the north of an imaginary line commencing on the boundary dividing such new parish from the parish of Boxley, in the same county and diocese, at a point in the middle of the Sittingbourne Road, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed "M," placed on the eastern side of such road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the said road for a distance of eighty feet, to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern extremity of the fence dividing the inclosure, numbered 3737A on the Tithe Commutation map of the said parish of All Saints, Maidstone, and on the map hereunto annexed, from the inclosure numbered 3737 on the same maps, and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of such fence and along the middle of the fence dividing the inclosures, numbered respectively 3737A as aforesaid, and 1635 on the said maps from the inclosures numbered respectively 1851 and 1850 on the same maps as far as a point opposite to the eastern end of a private roadway known as Dear's Yard, leading to Wheeler-street, and extending thence first northward to the middle of such private roadway, and then north-westward along the middle of the same roadway to the middle of Wheeler-street aforesaid, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of such street, as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Well-road, and extending thence north-westward to and along the middle of such road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the County road, and extending thence in a direction generally westward to and along the middle of the last-named road to its extremity, and extending thence north-westward in a straight line across the open space in front of the Court-house to the middle of the eastern end of the Sandling-road, and extending thence in the last-mentioned direction along the middle of the Sandling-road as far as a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Wharf-lane, and extending thence westward to and along the middle of such lane to its western extremity, and continuing thence in the last-mentioned direction to and along the middle of a footpath leading to Springfield-cottages to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of the fence dividing the inclosure numbered 3333 on the maps aforesaid from the inclosure numbered 3126 on the same maps, and extending thence in the same direction to and along the middle of such fence to a boundary stone inscribed "M St. P. D. C. 1861," placed at the western extremity of the same fence and extending thence in the same direction and in a direct line (crossing the towing path of the River Medway) to the boundary dividing the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone, aforesaid, from the district chapelry of St. Peter, Maidstone (also heretofore part of the said parish of All Saints, Maidstone) in the middle of the River Medway."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map or plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Paul, situate in the new parish of the Holy Trinity, Maidstone, in the county of Kent, to be called "The District Chapelry of Saint Paul, Maidstone," be accordingly made, and that the recommendations of the said Commissioners with reference to the publication of banns, and the solemnization of marriages, baptisms, and churchings in the said church, and with reference to the fees to be paid in respect of those offices, be carried into effect agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts: and Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Canterbury.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of April, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, section twelve, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, section twelve, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the first schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church, in the last column of the same schedule, by equal half-yearly payments, on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each year.

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands and premises, tithes or rent charges, in lieu of tithes and other hereditaments, particularly described in the second and two following schedules hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the several spiritual persons hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, that the lands and hereditaments described in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, together with the buildings and premises thereon, situate at Llanfynydd, in the parish of Hope, in the county of Flint, and diocese of Saint Asaph, which were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the sixth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Llanfynydd aforesaid; that the lands and hereditaments described in the Third Schedule hereunto annexed, situate within the parish of Netheravon, in the county of Wilts, and diocese of Salisbury, which were conveyed to us by a deed, bearing date the sixteenth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Netheravon; that the land described in the Fourth Schedule hereunto annexed, and therein numbered I, situate within the parish of Bishops Tachbrooke, in the county of Warwick, and diocese of Worcester, formerly belonging to the prebend of Tachbrooke, in the cathedral church of Lichfield, and now vested in us; and also the tithes or rent charges in lieu of tithes described in the same schedule, and therein numbered II, arising out of or upon lands situate within the same parish, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the said prebend of Tachbrooke, and also vested in us, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Bishops Tachbrooke.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Llewelyn Wynne Jones, Clerk, the present perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of Saint Mark Northop, in the county of Flint, and diocese of Saint Asaph, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rent charges in lieu of tithes described in the Fifth Schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Northop, with their appurtenances, formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Saint Asaph, and now vested in us, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Saint Mark, Northop, provided always, that the same tithes or rent charges in lieu of tithes to be so vested as last-mentioned, shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of seventy-one pounds, now payable by us to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Saint Mark, Northop, under the provisions of another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any of the said benefices or churches, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or that any land tithe or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of April, 1861,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-first day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Chardstock, in the cathedral church of Salisbury, and now vested in us.

"Whereas all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments formerly belonging to the said prebend of Chardstock, (except any right of ecclesiastical patronage) became vested in us on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred in or about the month of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, by the decease of the Reverend Henry Woodcock, Doctor in Divinity, the then prebendary, subject to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof;

"And whereas application has been made to us for the purchase of all our estate and interest in certain portions of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments; and after due consideration it appears to us to be expedient that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us to be advisable:

"We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell, or dispose of, and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments heretofore belonging to the said prebend of Chardstock, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise as he or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act, and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Salisbury.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 16th day of April, 1861.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, section twelve, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, section sixty-seven, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, section twelve, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"We humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the said Acts mentioned, in each and every year, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices or churches described in the First Schedule hereunto annexed, the annual sum set opposite to the name of each such benefice or church in the last column of the same Schedule, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year.

"And we further recommend and propose that the lands and hereditaments described in the Second Schedule hereunto annexed, together with the buildings and premises thereon, situate at High Lane, in Marple, in the county and diocese of Chester, which said lands and hereditaments were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly Gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, be transferred to, and become absolutely vested in, the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of High Lane aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that the out-rent of nine shillings and fourpence, which, in respect of a certain farm situate at Crawleyside, near Stanhope, in the county and diocese of Durham, belonging to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the perpetual curacy of Beadnell, in the county of Northumberland, and said diocese of Durham, is now payable to us, in right of the estates formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Durham, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Beadnell.

No. 22502.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend William De Pipe Belcher, Clerk, the present perpetual curate or incumbent of the perpetual curacy of South Darley, otherwise Cross Green, in the county of Derby and diocese of Lichfield, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the messuage, lands, hereditaments, and premises described in the Third Schedule hereunto annexed, situate at South Darley, otherwise Cross Green, in the parish of North Darley, in the same county and diocese, which were conveyed to us by a deed bearing date the third day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of South Darley, otherwise Cross Green: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend of forty-five pounds, which under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, was made payable by us to the said perpetual curate or incumbent shall be reduced to an annual sum or stipend of eighteen pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole of the glebe lands situate within the parish of Elm, in the county of Cambridge and diocese of Ely, comprising eighteen acres, one rood, and twenty perches, or thereabouts, which formerly belonged to the sinecure rectory of Elm-cum-Emneth, in the same diocese, and are now vested in us, shall, in like manner and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Elm.

"And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the Reverend Samuel Charlton, Clerk, the present minister or incumbent of the district of Friday Bridge, in the last-mentioned county and diocese, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, described in the Fourth Schedule hereunto annexed, arising out of or upon lands situate within the parish of Elm aforesaid, and now vested in us, and all our estate and interest therein, shall, in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the minister or incumbent for the time being, of the said district of Friday Bridge: Provided always, that the said tithes or rent charges in lieu of tithes, to be so vested as last-mentioned, shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of and in full substitution for, and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty pounds, now payable by us to the said minister or incumbent, under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the thirtieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation by us of any of the said benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the incumbent of any of the said benefices or churches, or instead of any part of such annual sum, a gross sum equivalent thereto should be substituted, or any land, tithe or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice or church in fee, nothing herein, or in any other scheme contained, shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, or from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

Whereas the present number of Fellows of King's College is fifty-five, while the new Statutes contemplate the number being reduced to forty-six, it shall not be necessary for the Provost and Fellows to abstain from filling up all Fellowships which may become vacant until the entire number be reduced below forty-six; but it shall be lawful for them to fill up such limited number of vacant Fellowships in each successive year as they may think fit, until the entire number of Fellows be reduced below forty-six.

4. Whereas it is contemplated in the new Statutes for King's College that the number of "Eton Scholars" at that College shall be twenty-four, it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows to complete that number gradually, provided that not fewer than three Eton Scholarships shall be offered for competition in each year, until the statutable number of twenty-four be completed.

Now we, the Commissioners aforesaid, by virtue of the powers vested in us by the aforesaid Act (19 & 20 Vict. c. 88), do ordain that the said Statute herein-above recited shall, so far as the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton may be affected thereby, be deemed to be a Statute of such last-mentioned College, and shall have the same force and effect as the other Statutes of the same College, subject, nevertheless, to the following provision; that is to say, that the said College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton shall not be in any manner bound or affected by the said recited Statute, if the same do not become and be a Statute of King's College in the University of Cambridge.

Given under our Common Seal this Twenty-eighth day of December, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty.

Council Office, Whitehall, April 16, 1861.

WHEREAS the CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY COMMISSIONERS, appointed for the purposes of the Act of the 19th and 20th Vict., cap. 88, in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by the said Act, have framed the two following Statutes, dated the 28th of December, 1860, for the future regulation of King's College in the UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE, and whereas the said Statutes have been laid before the Governing Body of the said College, and no objection has been made thereto, and have been this day laid before Her Majesty in Council, the same are published in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act: and NOTICE is hereby given, that it is lawful for the bodies or persons mentioned in the 39th section of that Act, within one month after this publication, to petition Her Majesty in Council against the approbation of the said Statutes, or of any part thereof.

WE, the Commissioners appointed for the purposes of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," do hereby, in execution of the powers vested in us by the said Act, make the following additional Statute for the future government of King's College in the University of Cambridge, and for better regulating the mode in which the changes in the constitution of that College, prescribed by the Statutes already made by us, the said Commissioners, shall be carried into effect.

1. As soon as the new Statutes for King's College come into force it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows at once to declare the then existing Scholars, "Eton Scholars," in the sense of that term employed in the new Code of Statutes.

2. In case any vacancies shall occur in the number of Fellows and Scholars of King's College after the day on which the new Statutes shall come into force, and before the indentures for the current year are cancelled at Eton College, it shall be lawful for the Provost and Fellows of King's College to admit to Scholarships at that College such Scholars of Eton College as shall have a contingent title to admission at King's College, and to declare such Scholars, on their admission, "Eton Scholars," in the sense of the term employed in the new Code of Statutes.

3. Whereas the present number of Fellows in King's College is fifty-five, while the new Statutes contemplate the number being reduced to forty-six, it shall not be necessary for the Provost and Fellows to abstain from filling up all Fellowships which may become vacant, until the entire number be reduced below forty-six; but it shall be lawful for them to fill up such limited number of vacant Fellowships in each successive year as they may think fit, until the entire number of Fellows be reduced below forty-six.

Repeal of previously existing Statutes.

From and after the approbation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council none of the Statutes of King's College, in the University of Cambridge, which existed and were in force before the passing of the Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the nineteenth and twentieth years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the good government and extension of the University of Cambridge, of the Colleges therein, and of the College of King Henry the Sixth at Eton," shall be of any force and effect, save and except in so far as the said former Statutes relate to the emoluments, tenure of office, right of pre-emption of livings, and other interests of a pecuniary nature of the present Provost, and of the Fellows of the College elected before the date of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, confirming the Statutes made by us the Commissioners appointed under the said Act, which Statutes are dated the nineteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty.

And save and except so much of the said former Statutes as relate to the powers and functions of the Visitor thereof, which shall be and remain in force as heretofore.

From and after the approbation of this Statute by Her Majesty in Council, all the former Statutes of the College shall stand and be repealed, except and subject as aforesaid.
