Foreign Office, October 1, 1863.

HER Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Madrid has forwarded to Earl Russell the following substance of a Royal Decree, dated December 17, 1862, so far as it relates to the formalities required to be observed by Foreigners entering Spain :

Substance of Royal Decree of December 17, 1862.

FOREIGNERS coming into Spain shall not be compelled to show a passport ; but they must present a "Cédula de Vecindad" (i.e. a Certificate of domicile or residence) or, where such is the case, a Certificate that they are in service (cartilla de servicio) or any other document which will prove their identity, the place whence, and the purpose for which, they come.

The authorities are at liberty to demand the presentation of this document as often as they think necessary.

Any foreigner will also be permitted to enter Spain on merely presenting himself to the authorities, even though he may not possess any document, but in this case he must prove his identity by means of a declaration to be witnessed by the signatures of two residents in the town in which he presents himself, who must state that they know him, and that his declaration is true. He must also express at the same time whence, and for what purpose, he comes to Spain.

The compulsory visa on passports of persons entering Spain is abolished.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

BARNET, IN THE COUNTIES OF MIDDLESEX AND HERTFORD.

WHEREAS appeals under the provisions of the Local Government Act, 1858, have been duly made to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by certain owners and rate-payers within the district of Barnet, in the counties of Middlesex and Hertford, setting forth grounds on which they dispute the validity of a vote for the adoption of the said Act within the said district. And whereas inquiry has been duly directed into the circumstances of the case, and such enquiry has been duly made, and the result thereof reported to me:

Now, therefore, I do issue the following order, and do determine the questions arising on such appeals as follows:

That the Local Government Act, 1858, has been duly adopted within the said district of Barnet, and that the said appeals be dismissed; and that the said Act shall come into force within the aforesaid District on the 5th day of October, 1863.

Given under my hand this 29th day of September, 1863.

(Signed) G. Grey.

CONTRACT FOR TRAIN OIL AND PALE SEAL OIL.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, September 23, 1863.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 6th October next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with TRAIN OR PILCHARD OIL AND PALE SEAL OIL.

Distributions of the oils and forms of the tenders may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £150 for the due performance of each of the contracts.

NOTICE is hereby given, that at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the British Metal Extracting Company, held at Glasgow, on the 30th day of September, 1863, the following Resolution having been proposed and seconded, was put to the Meeting and agreed to unanimously; that is to say:

"That as the preponderating interest in the Company, both in number of Shareholders and in the amount or value of Shares, is now in Glasgow, where also the Company's works are situated, the Registered Office of the Company shall be transferred from England to Scotland; and that the Company's business shall be managed and administered by a Board of Directors there, and that the Directors be instructed and authorized to make the requisite application to the Board of Trade for effecting these changes in terms of the Statute."

In pursuance of which Resolution and of the Joint Stock Companies Act, 1862; notice is hereby given, that it is the intention of the said British Metal Extracting Company to apply to the Board of Trade to grant their Certificate in writing changing the Registered Office of the said Company from England to Scotland; and all parties objecting to the granting of such Certificate are required forthwith to apply to the Board of Trade.

—Dated this 1st day of October, 1863.

Bothamley and Freeman, No. 39, Coleman-street, Solicitors to the British Metal Extracting Company.

The Brynambor Lead Mining Company (Limited).

AT an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders, held at the Registered Office of the Company, No. 7, George-yard, Lombard-street, in the city of London, on the 8th day of September, 1863, and confirmed at a like Extraordinary General Meeting of the Shareholders, held at the said Office, on the 25th day of September, 1863, it was resolved:

"That this Company shall be forthwith wound up voluntarily."

"That Messrs. James Bancks, Charles Graham Carttar, Accountant, and James Truscott, be the Liquidators; and that the sum of thirty-five pounds be paid to Mr. Carttar for his professional services, Messrs. Bancks and Truscott declining to take any remuneration."

"That the Liquidators shall be authorised to sell and transfer all the rights of this Company in the Brynambor Mine, and all other the plant, machinery, property, and effects of this Company, to any other Company formed or to be formed with limited liability, and to receive in compensation, or part compensation, for such transfer or sale fully paid up shares or stock in the said other Company for the purposes of distribution amongst the members of this Company."

WHEREAS at a public sitting of the Court, held at Lewes, on the 22nd day of September, 1863, the said bankrupt passed his Last Examination, and upon his application then and there made for his Order of Discharge, it was adjudged by the Court that the said bankrupt was entitled to such discharge. The Court therefore allowed and ordered such discharge accordingly.

HENRY JAMES PERRY, Esq., Her Majesty's Commissioner authorised to act under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, filed on the 9th day of May, 1861, against William Brew, of No. 11, Tarlton-street, Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Tailor, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, will sit on the 13th day of October instant, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the District Court of Bankruptcy, in Liverpool, in order to Audit the Accounts of the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, under the said Petition, pursuant to the Acts of Parliament made and now in force relating to bankrupts.

MARTIN JOHN WEST, Esq., one of Her Majesty's Commissioners of the District Court of Bankruptcy, at Leeds, authorised to act under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, bearing date the 30th day of March, 1861, filed against George Hitchen Ashley, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Common Brewer, will sit on the 24th day of October instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the before-named Court of Bankruptcy, in the Council-hall, in Sheffield, in order to Audit the Accounts of the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt under the said Petition, pursuant to "The Bankrupt Law Consolidation Act, 1849."

MARTIN JOHN WEST, Esq., one of Her Majesty's Commissioners of the District Court of Bankruptcy, at Leeds, authorised to act under a Petition for adjudication of Bankruptcy, bearing date the 30th day of March, 1861, prevented and filed against Charles Hitchen Ashley, of Sheffield, in the county of York, Common Brewer, will sit on the 24th day of October instant, at ten of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the before-named Court of Bankruptcy, in the Council-hall, Sheffield, to make a Dividend of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; when and where the creditors who have not already proved their debts are to come prepared to prove the same, or they will be excluded the benefit of the said Dividend. And all claims not then proved will be disallowed.

THIS is to give notice, that the Court acting in the prosecution of an adjudication of Bankruptcy, made on 10th day of December, 1850, against George Lea, of Eccleston Coal Wharf, Upper Belgrave Cottage Nunhead-lane, Peckham-rye, in the county of Surrey, Coal Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, a bankrupt, did, on the 14th day of August, 1863, allow the said bankrupt a Certificate of the third class; and that such Certificate will be delivered to the said bankrupt, unless an appeal be duly entered against the judgment of such Court, and notice thereof be given to the Court.
